WORLD'S FAIR STRIKE ENDS MERRILY

Populist Peffer Flops Once More—Frauds in Minnesota.

The Senate Bill Sits.
WASHINGTON, D. C., April 12.—The Democrats succeeded in forcing an executive session of the senate this morning, in the face of combined Republican opposition, Peffer, Populist, voting with the Democrats. The senate finance committee this morning cleared up the calendar, ordering a favorable report on all nominations, including Eckels for comptroller of the treasury.

World's Fair Strike.
CHICAGO, Ill., April 11.—The world's fair strikers returned to work this morning, and in addition the force of landscape gardeners was increased to 2,000 and everything went forward right merrily.

Minnesota Land Frauds.
ST. PAUL, April 11.—The senate committee, which for some weeks has been making an investigation of rumored frauds in assessment and collection of taxes in the northern part of the state and incidentally charges corruption in methods of appraising and selling state swamp lands for school university, railroad and other state uses, have prepared a report which alleges that the state has been defrauded out of hundreds of thousands of dollars.

WHO ARE THE NOMINEES.

Brief Sketches of the Latest Selections By Grover.

WASHINGTON, April 11.—Daniel N.
Morgan of Bridgeport, Conn., nominated for treasurer of United States, is about 50 years of age. He has been president of a National bank for ten years. Conrad N. Jordan, nominated for assistant treasurer at New York, is known to the country as United States treasurer in Cleveland's first administration. Edward H. Strobel of New York, nominated for third assistant secretary of state, served through Cleveland's first term and part of succeeding Republican administration as secretary of legation at Madrid. Daniel M.
Browning of Illinois, nominated commissioner Indian affairs, lives at Benton, is about 50 years of age. The lawyer Frank C. Armstrong, who is named assistant commissioner, was originally appointed inspecter in the Indian bureau from Louisiana in Cleveland's first administration, remained in the place nearly a year under President Harrison.

CLEVELAND'S NOMINATIONS.

Bellinger, of Simon, Dolph & Co.
Succeeds Judge Deady.

WASHINGTON, April 11.—The president has sent to the senate the following nominations: E. K. Strobel, of New York, third assistant secretary of state; C. B. Bellinger, of Portland, Oregon, U. S. district judge of Oregon; D. M. Browning, of Illinois, commissioner of Indian affairs; F. C. Armstrong, of Washington, D. C., assistant commissioner of Indian affairs.

The fight relative to the Roach resolution has been transferred to the executive session and is now in progress.
All efforts to get the matter in shape to satisfy both sides are so far unsuccessful.
Daniel N. Morgan, of Connecticut, treasurer of the United States; Conrad L. Jordan of New York, assistant treasurer of the United States.

Choctaws Reinforce.

WASHINGTON, April 11.—Secretary Hoke Smith today received the following telegram from Agent Bennet, at Muskogee, I. T.: "I am reliably advised that both factions of the Choctaws are strongly reinforced, and that the presence of military alone will prevent a conflict. Troops should be sent to Antlers as quick as possible."

Who Shall Be Mayor.

CLEVELAND, April 11.—A queer municipal complication was precipitated here when Robert Blee, the Democratic mayor-elect, sent to the Republican council his official bond and the names of the members of his cabinet for confirmation. The council refused to confirm the bond or the names of his cabinet nominees. The Democrats claim Blee is mayor. The mayoralty muddle is not yet settled. Rose arrived first and took possession of the chair.

When Blee, mayor-elect, arrived, he demanded it and Rose refused to vacate.

A MILLIONAIRE'S WILL.

Church at Tarrus.

NEW YORK, April 12.—The will of Elliot F. Shepard, late editor of the New York Mail and Express, was filed for probate this morning. The estate is valued at $850,000 realty, and half a million personal property. It gives a hundred thousand dollars to the presbytery of New York for evangelical work in this city, $50,000 to the Seventh Presbyterian church of this city; $100,- 000 to St. Paul's church at Tarrus, Asia Minor. He gives all his real estate to his widow and a special bequest of $50,- 000 to A. D. Shepard. The remainder of the estate goes to his children.

SAVED FROM THE ROPE.

An Identified Ravisher Saved from Hanging.

SALINA, Kas., April 11.—John Hudson, a negro, arrested for assault on Mrs. J. M. Frost, was taken from jail last night by a mob, a rope put about his neck and he was taken and confronted with Mrs. Frost, who positively identified him as her assailant. The mob then took him away and told him to prepare for death. He earnestly protested his innocence and after a time sentiment turned in his favor to the extent of causing protests against summary action, and after conciliatory addresses by the mayor and others, he was returned to jail.

Dock Strike a Failure.

HULL, England, April 11.—It looks very much as if the dock laborers strike was about to prove a failure. A lot of non-union men were put to work this morning under police and military protection. This afternoon the strikers show evidence of weakening as a number of them have applied for and were given work. Firms in a number of carrying trades, whose vessels needed labor have been supplied.

Balloonist Killed.

ROME, April 11.—Antonucci, a conspicuous Italian aeronaut, made an ascent in a balloon at Arezzo, Tuscany. A gust of wind drove the balloon against a tower, and Antonucci was blown out. He fell 150 feet. His skull was shattered.

Stanley and Slave Trade.

LONDON, April 11.—Henry M. Stanley has written to the Peace Association a letter, in which he attributes the increase of the slave trade in 1882 at African ports under the German administration to the growing practice among German merchants, of importing into Africa small arms and ammunition.
These, he says, are sold to slave traders and do incalculable damage. Stanley inculcates also the Portuguese. He appeals to the European nations to suppress the traffic in arms. Unless this step is taken, he adds, all efforts to stop the slave trade will be useless.

The Home Rule Bill.

LONDON, April 11.—There was but a thin attendance in the house of commons when discussion was resumed on the motion for a second reading of the Irish home rule bill.

It was not until Joseph Chamberlain arose that the house assumed an aspect of interest and attention. Chamberlain said the bill proposed to establish a brand-new constitution for Ireland.
The prime minister asked them, continued Chamberlain, when the controversy would be settled if the measure should be rejected. The whole question really was, Would the bill settle the controversy? Was not Gladstone in too great a hurry, and was he not too impatient to deal with the Irish difficulty? A new era had opened for Ireland with the disestablishment of the Irish church. Then the agrarian question had been partly settled. The beneficial operations of these other measures, but the prime minister said Ireland was still discontented; that no progress toward conciliation had been made. If such was the case, then the prediction of the prime minister regarding the measures he had already promoted for Ireland had proved fallacious and threw discredit on similar predictions in regard to the present measure giving Ireland a separate legislature. Probably, added Chamberlain, the people of England would accept the bill if they believed it would enable them to get rid of the Irish question, but he feared it would do nothing of the kind.

France Apologizes.

PARIS, April 11.—The government has apologized to Count Muenster, the German ambassador, for the detention of letters written by Kurtz to the German embassy and consulate, while he was imprisoned on suspicion in Rouen.
Count Muenster was assured a repetition of the incidents would be carefully avoided in the future, and that if Kurtz returned to France he would not be molested.

Attempt to Murder.

VIENNA, April 21.—Great excitement is caused here by an attempt to as-sinate Cardinal Vassary, primate of Hungary. The cardinal was walking with his secretary when a well-dressed young man rushed upon the cardinal and made a desperate attempt to stab him. The cardinal escaped unhurt, but the secretary received two severe wounds. When arrested the man refused to make known his identity or motive. The attempted assassination is undoubtedly the outgrowth of the bitter struggle in progress in Hungary over the questions of civil marriages and the baptism of children of mixed marriages, in which the cardinal is looked upon as the leader of the ecclesiastical party.

Japs Squeeze Some Islands.

MADRID, April 11.—Much excitement is caused here by a dispatch to the effect that Japanese have seized the Pelem Islands, a group of islands in the North Pacific claimed to belong to Spain.

Import of Arms Forbidden.

DUBLIN, April 11.—Baron Houghton, lord lieutenant of Ireland, has issued an order limiting the importation of arms and ammunition into Ireland.
They must be imported only at certain ports.

FROM SCOTT'S MILLS.

Mr. Phillips, who takes charge of the planer at the saw mill, arrived last week. He has already built him a house and expects to move his family here this week.

Mr. H. Commons had a force of men planting trees on his 20 acres last Saturday.

The company of people, that Mr.
Taylor wrote was coming from Kansas, are expected here this week.

Rev. J. H. Douglas spent a few days last week at the capital city visiting his family. He returned Saturday and brought us the cheering news that B.
S. Cook, one of the genial foster fathers of our colony, was so far recovered as to be able for duty again.

Mr. H. J. Minthorn, the other foster father, has not been here for near two weeks on account of Mr. Cook's sickness. However we expect him here today.

Milt Nichols and George Morris have just arrived from Newberg with their families and household goods.

Milt has bought one-half block in the town site, and a ten acre fruit lot, he expects to build and improve his fruit lot, but will work a part of the time for the Co.

George intends to buy and build soon.
He will work in John Brown's saw mill.

Mr. F. Mills and Mr. Holloway helped Milt and George move over.

Mr. Vantress and Mr. Snodgrass of Newberg and Mr. Tomlinson and Mr.
Haworth of north-western Kansas dropped in on us last Saturday.

Mr. Haworth is an experienced saw mill man, he and Mr. Vantress have come with the intention of locating here.

We are encouraged over the interest taken in our Sunday school and meeting. About fifty were present yesterday and we had a feast of heavenly food.

We, who have lately settled here, wish to publicly express our thanks to the citizens of this community for their kindness and neighborliness, but we are especially thankful for their interest hearty co-operation in the educational and religious interests of our colony.
