BLEW OUT THE GAS.—A rather amusing incident occurred during the visit of the Oregonians to San Francisco recently on the Oregon Pacific excursion. One of the excursionists said to hall from Salem, engaged a room at one of the hotels and in course of time proceeded to retire, but before getting into bed he cautiously blew out the gas. It leaked out the next day that some one had blown out the gas the evening before, and when the party was discovered, there was no end to jokes and fun over the affair.—State man. The very unsatisfactory thing about this item is the fact that nothing is said about how the man happened to be in such a healthy condition the next morning; well enough to be joked. Were it about any one but a Salem man it would sound fishy.—Albany Democrat. The above is a joke told on a young Salem banker, Jos. Albert. But it won't wash. Joe never blows out any gas, of his own or anybody else's. He isn't that kind. The story would fit some other members of the party better.

REMYNY, THE ARTIST.—There has never been in Sioux Falls such a pleasing musical treat as the concert given last evening by Remyeny under the auspices of the Y. M. C. A. His execution on the violin last evening was something that will be remembered by those who had the opportunity of hearing him. He was encored twice at each appearance, and he seemed to be in excellent spirit and gave the audience all the music they could hold. His company is made up of artists in their several lines. The singing of Miss Methot and Mr. Marchbank was very pleasingly rendered and was encored very heartily, as was also the piano work of Miss Sage.—Sioux Falls (S. D.) Republican, Jan., 1893. At the Y. M. C. A. Thursday evening.

THE LANNING FAILURE.—A dispatch was received at Albany from the First National bank of Chattanooga, Tenn., and confirmed by another dispatch to the First National bank, announcing that Capt. E. J. Lanning had placed $10,500 of the credit of the Albany bank. This is good news in connection with the matter, and relieves Mr. Lanning of the charge against him of absconding. The prevailing sentiment is that Mr. Lanning has not been in his right mind.

FIREMEN ELECTION.—The annual meeting of Alert Hook & Ladder company was held yesterday afternoon and the following officers chosen for the ensuing year: President, John C. Booth; secretary, Willie A. Moores; treasurer, Charles D. Minton; foreman, Wm. H. Booth; first assistant foreman, Edward Sauter; second assistant foreman, Edward Reuf; janitor, H. H. Vandervert; trustees, W. H. Armstrong, Edward Sauter and A. M. Patrick; board fire delegates, C. D. Minton, Jos. Schindler and F. Neckerman.

PROBATE.—T. C. Shaw, administrator of the estate of Denna Boone, deceased, was ordered to sell decedent's interest in certain real property. Geo. F. Sanderson, administrator of the Corn Boone estate was ordered to sell real property belonging to the estate.

COMING LATE.—Fruit is late coming on but you can supply your table with plenty of delicacies by using those fruit flavors and extracts—Prices, with cook book free—sold only at Van Eaton's family grocery.

NOTICE.—The Y. M. C. A. Bicycle club will take a run this (Wednesday) evening, at 7:30 p. m. After the run the monthly business meeting will be held. A full attendance is desired. F. C. Sellwood, secretary.

PERSONAL AND LOCAL.

N. R. Doty, of Jefferson, was a Salem visitor today.

Hon. Geo. W. McBride went to Portland this afternoon, for a visit at St. Helens.

Mrs. Adair started for Siletz today, with three invalid students from Harrison institute.

Dr. A. Davis, late of Los Angeles, will soon occupy the C. B. Moore's residence on State street.

Rev. Lund is in Portland, attending an Episcopal convention. Four bishops will be present.

Such inducements were never before offered as the Palace is now holding out on spring jackets.

Remyeny is fiddling his way down the valley toward Salem and seems to be making expenses.

There will be a special conclave of Knights Templar this evening.

The jury in Talkington vs. Chase and Baker gave verdict for plaintiff, of $147.50.

The first home-grown strawberries were brought to market yesterday.

June 2d Matteson strawberries were ready for market at Turner, grown by F. S. Matteson & Son.

The court house square should no longer look like a cross between hay field and wood yard.

There will be a called meeting of the Orphan's Home board Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Z. F. Moody.

The regular monthly meeting of the Y. M. C. A. bicycle club will be held this evening. Meeting at 7 o'clock the boys will take a spin on their machines before the business session.

At the meeting of Olive lodge No. 18 I. O. O. F., last Saturday evening the following officers were elected: J. H. McNary, N. G.; F. W. Waters, V. G.; W. J. Culver, recording secretary; and John Moir, treasurer.

If you want a good pair of shoes of good quality cheap, go to the New York Racket.

Money-making enterprises properly advertised in the JOURNAL as a rule succeed, if they deserve to at all. Not all can succeed. But where they do deserve to prosper advertising is all that is necessary.

At the regular monthly meeting of the directors of the Salem Building and Loan association last night $2300 was loaned at ninety-six months' interest in advance, besides paying all withdrawals.

The demand for Remyeny violin concert tickets is unprecedented. He is the only man alive who can be named with Ole Bull or Paganini.

The bids on the new Feeley house to be let Saturday will be opened at Pugh's office, which should have been stated in the item referring to the matter.

Miss R. F. Hall is off for a "Viola" lecturing tour at Gervais, Woodburn and other places.

Those reduced prices at the Columbia Shoe Store, 118 State street, are making heavy sales at that store.

Hear Remyeny Thursday night and be carried to the heavens on the wings of music.

GEORGIA GOMSTOCK'S CASE.

The Bride of Yesterday in Jail Today But Promptly Released.

Old man Grosse had his bride of yesterday arrested. She was put in jail in the afternoon and released this forenoon. She was arrested on complaint of Henry Grosse, charging her with being an unchaste cheat. Some one made him believe a Grosse fraud had been perpetrated on him. The result was Georgia languished in the county jail.

This forenoon the parties appeared in Recorder Edes's court and defendant was promptly discharged. John A. Carson appeared for Mrs. Grosse and District Attorney Condit was obliged to drop the case as the prosecuting witness failed to materialize.

Old man Grosse was in the city this morning and seemed sadly affected. He made an affidavit that he had been persuaded to make the complaint against her and had her arrested and brought over here; that he was sorry and had been swayed against his judgment and that she was making him a good wife.

The result is that she goes back with him to make the old man's home happy once more. He says yesterday morning she got up and got his breakfast, swept the house and is a neat and tidy housekeeper. She has not deeded the 100 acres of land back to him. Public sympathy is with Georgia. THE JOURNAL believes Grosse got much the better end of the bargain.

DIVORCE.

Married Monday, put in jail Tuesday, divorced Wednesday. That is the latest feature of the case of Mrs. Grosse. This afternoon a lawyer was busy drawing up papers in a divorce suit for separation from the old Polk county man. Her lawyer was very reticent but finally admitted that Grosse is of unsound mind and the land he deeded to his wife is mortgaged.

INSANE STUDENT.—A State university student has just been brought to the asylum. The Eugene Guard 6th, says. L. E. Farrington, aged 26 years, whose home is at The Dalles suddenly became deranged last evening. He has been attending the university for the last two or three years and was an earnest student. The affliction has been growing on him for about four weeks. The attending physician states that it came from over application to study and a temporary aberration of the mental faculties which is probably curable. For three weeks past he received no medical attention, seeming to be better, but excessive sleeplessness again produced this result.

NOTICE.—The annual Albany district camp meeting of the Evangelical church will be held at Waterloo, commencing on Tuesday, June 20th. All the ministers of the district are expected to be present, and laymen generally are cordially invited. All christians are invited to come and enjoy this meeting in the grove with us. d w

FOR YOUNG LADIES.—Miss Rose Trumbull, the state lecturer for the Young Ladies' W. C. T. U., is expected to speak in Salem on Sunday, the 18th of June. She is a very pleasant speaker, and will address the young people especially. Come out and hear her all Christian Endeavors. Time and place will appear later. By order of president.

INDEPENDENCE DAY.

How Much Money is Up—Meeting Wednesday Evening, June Seventh.

There is to be a big Independence day meeting at Hotel Willamette this evening at 8 o'clock.

Every business man and friend of Salem's future prosperity should be there and help make our fourth of July celebration a rousing success. The committee has reached the thousand dollar mark on subscriptions. It will go to the two thousand point before they stop.

The city of Salem should be officially represented in this celebration, because the business prosperity of the city and the success of every worthy enterprise is the highest concern of all.

The Salem Commercial interests should be represented on a large scale. There is not a business of any kind here that it will not pay to subscribe liberally and make a demonstration on that day. Turn out tonight.

The state government and the state institutions should assist in observing Independence day.

There will be immense crowds in the city on the triple occasion of the state tournament, the Celebration, the July race meetings. Let the gates of our city be thrown wide open. Pull the trolley of enterprise clear out. It will do us all good. Turn out to the meeting tonight and be prepared to double your subscription.

THE FLOWER SHOW.

Salem the Bouquet City of the Northwest.

The third annual rose and flower show will be held at the armory Friday and Saturday of this week. We want every reader of the DAILY and WEEKLY JOURNAL to become a committee of one to make it a success.

Let us surpass our two grand rose shows of the past and give Salem the name of the Flower Queen of the Willamette Valley.

It can be done. All that is required is enthusiasm. We have the climate, the soil, and the flowers. We have the women to cultivate and display them. The Salem Floricultural society has been working hard to make this a success. But it should be the pride of every Salem woman to assist the exhibit.

Everyone interested in beautifying our city and spreading its fame abroad should help make the display at the armory as grand as possible.

Flowers advertise themselves. All who have hot-houses should exhibit every bloom that can be moved. All who sell plants should not fail to swell the display. Let us give up the rest of this week to the flowers. Then our city will bloom, our gardens will bloom, and we will bloom as never before.

POSTPONED.

The rose and strawberry fair has been postponed two weeks, until June 23d and 24th.

THE OLD SQUARE.—The beautiful court house is nearly hidden by trees. They should be trimmed up. A good drinking fountain for horses should be put in on one side at least. The grounds should be graded. Cement walks around the square and leading up to the doors should be put down. Com'r Frank Anderson is quite in favor of improving the grounds. Some kind of a petition should be laid before this term of county court.

SOME FLOWERS.—The pansies ought to be represented at the Flower show this week. They are at the height of perfection now. Next to the roses at this season pansies are most popular. There ought also to be a display of lilies and cacti. The wild flower display will be very large.

ARM BROKE.—A wagonload of wood was turned over yesterday at Morning-side and two boys were thrown off, one eight year old lad was quite badly bruised. He was taken to his home in North Salem on a special car and is doing well today.

RELIABLE BOYS.—Perfectly reliable young men are somewhat rare, but the Lockwood messengers can always be depended upon for trustworthy work.

THE CAPITAL.—You want to visit it especially if you are hungry. It is the best lunch counter in Salem. In the Sam Adolph block. Open day and night.

Hawks & Levar, wall paper, 97 State.

CARPET CLEANING.—Without removing from the floor. All work guaranteed. Ref. Mrs. Wm. England, Eugene Dreyman and many others. Leave orders at Fred Legg's drug store. "Chicago Carpet Cleaner." 65 St.

HARD TIMES.—Have no terrors for J. A. Van Eaton, the grocer. He buys to meet them, and sells to make them lighter and his store is thronged hourly by those who realize this.

A home product—it competes with the world—never disappoints—"Pride of Oregon" flour, made only by the Salem Mills, but sold everywhere.

THE NORTHWEST CORNER.—Of Court and Commercial streets, is where J. A. Van Eaton, the popular grocer dispenses the staples and luxuries of life. Go there and investigate once.

NOT BRAGGING.—Clark & Eppley are not bragging about anything in particular, but they simply want it understood that they lead on groceries, and beat the world on prompt delivery.

Salem produces one article that takes the lead in all countries, and that is "Pride of Oregon" flour made by the Salem flouring mills. Every sack guaranteed.

Strong's famous ice cream supplied in all quantities, for family and party use.

F. S. Dearborn has just opened a new lot of Blank books, special ruled, Debit and Credits, cash books, miniature sets for office work. 263 Commercial street.
