CAN IT BE DOAE

A number of exchanges are discussing the possibility of publishing a One Cent Daily at Salem. The doubters seem to think it could be done at Portland.

THE JOURNAL proposes to publish a One Cent Daily by mail at least, and perhaps a One Cent Daily by carrier. The large circulation of its WEEKLY made the One Cent Daily by mail pos-

The way the latter is growing in circulation it may make a ONE CENT DAILY possible by carrier. It now costs nearly 25 cts. a month to carry the DAILY in Salem and collect the pay for it.

The people of Oregon have now a chance to break up the press monopoly at high prices so long imposed upon them at Portland; they are improving it by taking a Salem ONE CENT DAILY -25 cts. a month by mail. We have the telegraph service, the press, the paper, the ability to get out the paper; the people can do the rest,

> Whenever the Oregonian has not any other way of replying to an exchange, it credits its items to some other paper. THE JOURNAL dislikes the illwill of even a dog and connot protect itself against such a practice. It is a little rough on exchanges however to ascribe any of our bright sayings to them.

> Of course it is perfectly plain that Interstate Commerce Commissioner General Wade Hampton coming to Oregon on a special train has a great deal to do with solving the freight problems. The farmer finds his wool freights east raised to an embargo point while the general goes fishing.

And the Chinese are enjoying the liberties of American citizenship and society as much as though no Geary law had ever been enacted, and no supreme court decision declaring it constitutional had ever been rendered. Great is Cleveland, and all must bow to the will of the Democratic Czar. The law was evidently not made for the Chinese.

It is telegraphed with great gusto that Mrs. U. S. Grant and Mrs. Jeff. Davis met at a hotel and had a visit, Mrs. Grant taking the initiative. Why should they not? The war is over. Honorable terms were given the vanquished confederate leaders. If they had triumphed would Mrs. Grant have been as well received?

Both Had Eczema In Its Worst Form

After Physicians Failed, Hood's Sarsaparilla Perfectly Cured.

Great mental agony is endured by parents who see their children suffering from diseases caused by impure blood, and for which there seems no cure. This is turned to joy when Hood's Sarsaparilla is resorted to, for it expels the foul humors from the blood, and re-stores the diseased skin to fresh, healthy brightness. Read this: To C. I. Hood & Co., Lowell, Mass.:

"We think Hood's Sarsaparilla is the most valuable medicine on the market for blood and skin diseases. Our two children suffered terribly with the Worst Form of Eczema for two years. We had three physicians, but neither of them succeeded in curing them or even in giving them a little relief. At last we tried Hood's Sarsaparilla and in a month both children were perfectly cured. We recommend
