MORE CHINESE SMUGGLING.

Tricks of the Celestials to Get Into Our Country.

NEW YORK, 29.—The actions of the custom-house officers here would seem to justify the charges of Special Treasury Agent Scharf that there has been smuggling of Chinese through the port of New York. Notwithstanding Scharf's protest against the admission of six Chinese who arrived from Havana Tuesday on the Seneca, one of whom called himself a merchant and the other five students, four of them were admitted by the collector because their passports issued in Havana by the Chinese consul there, in Mr. Hendrick's opinion, described the four Chinese sufficiently for identification. The alleged merchant, Tu Ki Lin, and one of the students, Chi Lun, who said he would be supported by Lee See, of the firm Lee On & Co., of Mott street, where he is not known at all, were detained by the collector; the latter because his passport makes him out to be 5 feet and 4 inches high, whereas he is 5 feet 6 inches high, and not because of the false address given. The collector had not waited to hear Col. Scharf's report on the students or to back his opinion. In the meantime the special agent had found out that all five students gave the addresses of guardians or supporters in Mott street who had no knowledge of the arrivals. Colonel Scharf's report about Tu Ki Lin did not satisfy the collector, who sent to Providence, R. I., on his own account and has entirely ignored the letter giving him the information which the Chinese inspector received from Collector Pomeroy of that place, showing that Tu Ki Lin had given a false address. The two Chinese detained will appear tomorrow in the United States court on a writ of habeas corpus. In making inquiries about the students who were admitted, two special deputies for Colonel Scharf encountered Chu Fong, proprietor of a Chinese theater, who inadvertently made a startling disclosure. "Why Scharf attacked me?" said he. "I gave him so much information and no say anything about Lee Fol and Young Luck, who smuggled in more than 800 Chinese last year." These are the two interpreters characterized in Scharf's report to Secretary Carlisle as smugglers. The inspector has Chinese letters saying that these two theatrical managers are bringing their countrymen as members of large local Chinese firms. "The collector and his deputies," said Colonel Scharf, "have not taken the slightest notice of Assistant Secretary Hamilton's direction to aid in the enforcement of the Chinese exclusion act. Instead of help, I have been opposed step by step. As I am reporting to my superior tonight, I have not been informed of the arrival of ships carrying Chinese, and even today the Yucatan came here from Havana with seven aboard, accompanied by this nefarious interpreter Fol, and I could not have known it were it not for my special assistants." Collector Hendricks has taken a rather novel means of defending his men. Yesterday he brought out the records of his department to show just how many Chinese had arrived in New York during the past few years, it being his intention to squelch Mr. Scharf with a solid array of cold figures. To his astonishment, apparently, he found these records very incomplete. He announced that he would get his figures from the Chinese consul, and with them prove the honesty of his men. It remains to be seen whether the treasury department will accept these figures, whose authenticity can in no way be proved.

Three More In Portland.

PORTLAND, July 29.—Three banks failed to open their doors this morning. They were the Commercial National, Portland Savings and Ainsworth National. With exception of a slight run on the First National there is no excitement. Notice is posted on each of suspended banks and says: "Banks forced to temporarily suspend owing to heavy withdrawal of deposits during last six days and inability to realize on securities. Depositors will be paid in full." The Commercial National bank has paid up capital stock of $250,000. Frank Dekum is president. The Portland Savings bank is under the same management. L. L. Hawkins is president of the Ainsworth National which has a capital stock of $100,000. Statements of the Commercial National and Ainsworth National published July 12 shows resources as follows: Commercial, $1,959,000; Ainsworth, $687,000. Deposits: Commercial, $1,455,000; Ainsworth, $447,000.

THE SAVINGS.

The Ainsworth National is a United States depository. No statement is yet made of the condition of the Portland Savings bank. It has a capital stock of $250,000 with a surplus of $202,000. The use of ready cash demands big figures and several banks have sacrificed valuable real estate to raise money.

France Accepts.

PARIS, July 29.—In view of the Siamese action in according to the terms of the ultimatum it is expected that France will withdraw the notice of a blockade and accept Siam's surrender. It is understood the provinces on the Upper Mekong will be subject to further negotiations between France and Great Britain.

Siam Accepts.

BANGKOK, July 29.—The Siamese government has accepted in full the terms of the French ultimatum.

Paying Silver.

TRENTON, N. J., July 29.—A run was begun on the Trenton Savings bank this morning. The bank is one of the strongest in the state and no danger is looked for as a result of the run. Withdrawing depositors are paid in silver dollars.

Unemployed From Denver.

KANSAS CITY, July 29.—The chief of police with a large force of men went to the state line this morning and met a train load of 300 unemployed men from Colorado who left Denver last night over the Union Pacific. The men agreed not to stop in Kansas City and the train was allowed to proceed to the Union depot. After disembarking the men soon scattered, some going east others south.

Crisp Surrenders.

NEW YORK, July 29.—The World's Washington special says, Crisp will organize the house in harmony with the wishes of the administration.

New York Solid.

NEW YORK, July 29.—As a result of the action of the Savings bank presidents at a meeting last night, declaring they would require legal notice for withdrawal if funds caused slight runs on the Savings banks of this city and Brooklyn today. They all are able to protect themselves under the time clause of the law and no failures have occurred or are anticipated.

LATEST FROM PORTLAND.

Bank at Forest Grove Closed—City a Heavy Loser.

PORTLAND, July 29, 3 p. m.—At closing hour all was quiet at the banks. A slight run was promptly met.

D. P. Thompson was appointed receiver of the Portland Savings Bank this afternoon. A statement of this bank shows resources estimated at $2,950,000, which is considered a conservative estimate. Its liabilities are placed at $2,475,000. During the last sixty days there has been a shrinkage of $800,000, while $800,000 has been withdrawn from the Commercial National during the same period. The Commercial National paid out $100,000 yesterday. A small bank at Forest Grove has closed owing to Commercial National's suspension. A statement of the Union Banking Company, which closed yesterday, shows assets $98,000, liabilities $53,000. The city has a claim of thirteen thousand and is the principal creditor.

Hops Steady.

NEW YORK, July 29.—[Special to JOURNAL.]—Hops held steady for all grades, but the business and demand are light, and quotations unchanged.

Wheat Lower.

CHICAGO, July 29.—Another bad break in wheat today. Price of September is plunging down to 60¢, decline 2¢ cents from lowest point touched yesterday, which in turn was the lowest figure ever made on the board.

No Use for Safes.

HAMILTON, O., July 29.—The McNeal & Urban Safe and Lock Co., one of the oldest safe firms in the country assigned Assets 150,000. Liabilities unknown. The firm claims to be solvent.

Favor Selling Bonds.

CHICAGO, July 29.—The Inter-Ocean publishes a series of interviews with local bankers on a remedy for the financial depression. They nearly all are unanimous in the opinion that the silver purchase clause in the Sherman act should be repealed, and that the government should sell three hundred millions, three per cent bonds, in order to build up the treasury gold reserve.

Results of Rumors.

YOUNGSTOWN, O., July 29.—As a result of the malicious rumors, a run was started on the Dollar Savings and Trust Company, this morning. The bank required legal notice and not a dollar was paid out. It has wealthy stockholders. A number of merchants have drawn large sums from other banks and deposited with it, thus allaying excitement.

Hop Telegrams.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 29.—Hops—Steady at 18¢20¢ per pound. The Commercial News says: "Reports from abroad indicate an impaired outlook on the Continent, measurable confirmation being afforded by the reshipment from England of hops that had been consigned to that market by the Continent. The English situation is rather less complicated, owing to more favorable weather. Scarcity of Pacific coast offerings, and limited supplies of desirable grades generally, should lead to a renewal of business with England at an early date. In the East, holders show a firmness under a less promising outlook as to quantity, although it is generally agreed that the quality will be fine. On this coast, matters have taken more favorable shape for the holder and higher rates are demanded, one dealer asking 25¢ for about the only available lot of choice old, while lower grades are proportionately firmer. Trading in forward deliveries has been on a basis of 20¢ per pound for choice, which are firmly held. There has been some picking in the Sacramento valley, but the only sample received was rushed and did not, therefore, afford a basis either of value or quality."

New York, July 29.—Hops are quiet and unchanged, with only a fair brewers' trade. Lets stock is going abroad. Receipts are much lighter and holders are not urging business.

EGGERS, July 29.—M. J. Netter, agent for Wolf & Co., of San Francisco, has been making examination of the hop yards in this vicinity, and says the prospects are favorable for a splendid crop, with little damage to be feared on account of lice.

In Illinois.

BERLIN, July 29.—The federal council held a meeting to consider what customs reprisals should be made against Russia for the increased duties levied by that country on imported German products. The council finally resolved to place an additional tax of 50 per cent on all Russian products imported into Germany. The new duties will be collected after August 1.

Mexican News.

CHIHUAHUA, Mexico, July 29.—The legislature of the state of Chihuahua has just passed a law which, if enforced, will rid a considerable portion of the Rio Grande border of the desperate bands of cattle thieves and smugglers who have committed depredations for the past several years. The law provides that any one caught in the act of stealing cattle should be shot. A great many of the thieves have their ranches in Texas, some owning extensive ranches. They make raids on Mexican ranches at night and drive the cattle across the river to the ranches which they own. The stolen stock is rebranded and started on the trail to northern markets.

Parliament Row.

LONDON, July 29.—The newspapers devote much space to editorial comments on Thursday night's happening in the commons. The Times gravely talks about the suppression of free debate by the tyrannical majority as being the moving cause, but has nothing to say about the way the closure was applied during Balfour's reign. It regrets that the opposition took notice of the "diagrammatic insults" with which Chamberlain was assailed and says such pot-house manners might have been left to serve as an example of what would occur in an Irish legislature should Gladstone succeed in establishing that "preposterous body."

Other tory papers comment in a similar vein. The Gladstonian papers refer to the insults flung at Gladstone by Chamberlain and call attention to the fact that the first blow in the scuffle was struck by a conservative.

They also find it worthy of note that O'Connor is a man who apologizes for what he said while there was no hint of an apology or retraction from Chamberlain and his abettors.

Situation in Siam.

BANGKOK, July 29.—Representatives here of the several powers, leading merchants of the city and commanders of the British and German gunboats, met today at the British legation to discuss what action should be taken in the event of rioting on the part of Chinese, who form a large per centage of the city's population. The question was left open, but it was decided to ask Siam to station military guards in the business centers as a measure of protection.

The night passed quietly. Anxiety continues. The French gunboats passed out of the Menam river last night and will rendezvous with the other vessels off the island of Koh-Si Chang. Trade is at a standstill. There are no vessels in the river.

The Siamese government continues making every effort to maintain peace with France and is encouraged by events of the last twenty-four hours to believe that an understanding will be reached shortly. The French flag has been hoisted at Koh Chang.

French Affairs.

LONDON, July 29.—It is rumored there are dissensions in the French cabinet, growing out of the troubles with Siam. It is said some of the ministers are dissatisfied because the blockade was not effected with more promptness and reproach their colleagues for recalling the French gunboats from Bangkok. One report has it the deliberations of the cabinet have been marked by a number of violent scenes. The conciliatory attitude of Lord Rosebery the British foreign minister, is ascribed to his knowledge of the French cabinet dissensions and to assurances from the French ministers in favor of using moderation in the treatment of Siam. In common the foreign secretary, in reply to a question, said the French foreign minister had assured the British ambassador to France that the blockade of the Siamese ports would not begin till July 31. The British minister at Siam, however, telegraphed it actually began July 25, and this has been confirmed. The minister at Paris has been telegraphed for an explanation of the discrepancy.

NEW YORK, July 29.—The New York World says of the organization of the congress:

"Whether Bland gets head of the coinage committee or not, that committee will favor the unconditional repeal of the Sherman act.

There will be radical changes in the complexion of the ways and means appropriations and rules committees. All leading committees will be in accord with the president's views.

Foster & Co.

FOSTORIA, O., July 29.—At a meeting of the creditors of Foster & Co., and Charles W. Foster, they decided to employ an expert to examine the books of the bank to see whether there are any irregularities in recent transfer of real estate.

FELL THROUGH.—A team was nearly lost through the big bridge on the Folk county side today by falling through a hole. They were rescued by a force of men, but the horses were horribly skinned up.
