A SHERIFF AT BAY.—Last week Sheriff Wells of Polk county, was boldly bluffing by one of his constituents. He had an execution on some oats belonging to old man Heine, who lives a mile north of Dixie, and on Friday attempted to serve it and take the property. He proceeded to read his document to the man, when after a side remark in German by Heine, another member of the family confronted Mr. Sheriff with a shotgun, and told him his presence would be more desirable at the county seat, or some other place of a warmer climate. Mr. Wells was easily persuaded to withdraw. But on Saturday he appeared with a deputy and proceeded to load the oats into a wagon, when an older son persuaded them to unload the produce and once more depart. On Sunday, however, six men appeared and finally took the whole family, consisting of father, mother, two sons and a daughter, on the installment plan. They had a preliminary examination yesterday, and were all discharged except one.

A MUM SHOW.—Mrs. Taylor's greenhouse on Aylum avenue is the resort of many flower lovers at present. She has a rare collection of chrysanthemums, many of the blooms measuring 5 to 7 inches across. The reporter wears a Marchal Nell rose from the Taylor hothouses, hence this compliment to the proprietor.

REAL ESTATE.—There is greater activity at the Recorder's office than for sometime past, and John McNary and his deputies are kept busy. Today transfers were filed of lot 3, bl 2, Woodburn, J. M. Pownall and L. W. Guiss to J. H. Settlemeir, $10,000; Lafayette A. Walker to Mrs. Anna C. Klute, 176 acres, $4500.

THE JUJUNDA STRAWBERRY.—One who has grown some years says: "This is a splendid berry in all respects; large, bright scarlet, making it very saleable in market; it stands up from the ground on a stout stem, and bears immense crops. Fred J. Silsbee, of this city, has plants to sell in large or small quantities."

ORGANIZED.—The Koeley Institute met last evening in the council chamber for the purpose of electing officers and adopting a constitution. The officers are as follows: President, Caleb Chapman; Vice president, H. N. Ely; Secretary, Geo. Armstrong; Treasurer, W. H. Roach.

NOT FOUND.—G. A. Knight complained of John Yake who has been stopping at Mrs. Wilson's lodging house at the big bridge. He reads the bible, prays, cries and will not eat. When Sheriff Knight called for him he was out but will return from his wanderings and then be tried.

CHAIRMAN SWANE'S CALL.
The Aumsville Miller Rallyes the Populist Army.

THE JOURNAL gives place to the following as a matter of news and political history:

Whereas, The Marion county people's party executive committee will meet at the Grange hall in Salem on the 25th day of Nov., 1896, at 10 o'clock, a. m., for the purpose of maturing a plan of organizing people's party clubs in the several voting precincts of the county.

Therefore all who have a heart throb of sympathy for the oppressed laborers, producers and business interests of the state and nation, are cordially invited and urged to be present and take part in the deliberation. A special invitation is extended to those who think and feel that vicious laws, or something else is the cause of oppressing them. But come one, come all, and let us talk matters over and see if we can find the cause, why money is scarce and hard to get, and why the debtor cannot pay his debts, and why strong, willing, able men are tramping up and down the length and breadth of our fruitful, productive state and nation begging for work and bread.

The middle aged and older people can all call to mind a time when there were no tramps in this country, and no tramp laws on the statute books of any state or territory of North America, and now we have both. Fellow citizens, there is a cause for this, and investigation will reveal it. Come and let us reason together, and find out the cause and remove it.

Let us ask ourselves why it is that the laborers and producers have but a meager subsistence, while the money gambler and usury taker fairly wallows in luxuries and wealth he has had no hand in producing? Why are we slaves to a board of cornorators who devour our substance without rendering an equivalent.

Brethren if we would be free and equal, as declared by our patriotic fathers in the declaration upon which our government and constitution was founded, we must become thinking, vigilant participants in the political affairs of the state and nation. So come and let us reason together.

IMPROVING WILSON AVENUE.
The State Anxious to Have the City Join in a Needed Improvement.

A JOURNAL reporter finds in the general state appropriation bill an item of six thousand dollars for improvement of the state house grounds, laying a drain to the Willamette river, provided the city shares half the expense. Then some of this money may be spent in improvement of Wilson avenue. Secretary of State McBride was seen and said he was anxious on behalf of the State Board to do all in his power to have this work proceeded with this winter and at once.

If the council can do this without any unusual expense it should act by all means at its next session. The drain is to carry all surface drainage from the state house square, Wilson avenue, and the court house square to the river. It is not to be a sewer but a tile drain, contemplating of course, the tile drainage of those grounds.

This work should be done this winter when laboring men are out of employment, and when tiling can be laid most economically. If the work is got well under way this winter Wilson avenue can be graded, improved and shrubbery planted in time to get a year's growth. It will tend to beautify the Capital City very much. Secretary McBride is already having the curbing and grading done at the west end of the state house grounds. He has begun operations and the city should second his efforts by prompt action.

The Salem Improvement has now on hand a large stock of the Gilhuze coal, which is the best on the market. Ladies, you can buy Laid, Schober & Mitchell's $5 shoes at Krause Bros. for $4 cash.

NOT A PENNOYER DANCE.—The boys of Turner announced a dance for Thanksgiving day, and lest some might get a confused idea of the date, ask the JOURNAL to state that it will be on Thursday night, Nov. 30th.

SUPREME COURT.—The case of R. R. Coleman, respondent, vs. the Oregonian Railroad Co., appellant, appeal from Multnomah county, was argued and submitted today. Judge L. L. McArthur, C. M. Cake and W. I. Muir of Portland appeared as attorneys.

INDEPENDENT SOCIAL.—Rev. Bowser's friends held a successful social at W. C. T. U. hall Monday evening. Some money was raised to add to quite a fund already in hand towards building a new house of worship.

Local Correspondence from Towns in the Valley.

FROM AUMSVILLE.
Aumsville is continually improving and her people are very enterprising. Mr. Cole, Moyer and Evert have graded and graveled the avenue adjoining their property. What an example for Salem people, who whenever a street is improved that they own property upon they rush into court and make every effort to enable themselves to enjoy good roads without paying for them. But these noble generous citizens of Aumsville, without being taxed, or even asked, improve the street adjoining their property, and the others, Mesner, Porter, Hines, Smith and Gilbert are only waiting for teams to draw gravel.

Dr. Sterling has returned from his visit East. We have not needed the doctor's services as yet, but we felt a little lonesome while he was away, fearful that we might need him.

The agent for the "Evening Telegram" was in Aumsville last week. Price of paper 65 cents per month, 50 cents for the general agent, and 15 worth of beef to the local agent.

Mr. P. Miller notifies the people of Aumsville and vicinity that there will be a shooting match for turkey the day before Thanksgiving. Mr. P. M. is a good hearted boy and does not want to hurt "Syvester's" nor "Grover's" feelings, so does not say whose Thanksgiving it will be.

A meeting held at Mr. Baynards last Thursday to make arrangements to dedicate the new school house was a success, and a rattling good committee appointed on arrangement, James Moyer, Lon Gregory, and Mr. Baynard, no other three men could be found to undertake so formidable a job. Three days only allowed them to train speakers, singers and themselves, but then these men don't know the word fail. The dedication will be a success.

Our governor's Thanksgiving will be observed by regular work and a general attendance to business. On Grover's day the old Democratic turkey will be eaten, but no thanks will be offered, for Grover's promises or the future are bad. But I guess we will render praise: that he killed free silver, and offer up a prayer that the free silver men may kill free trade.

The protracted meetings held here have closed. Several have seen the errors of their ways and have decided to lead a new life. The meetings were very successful, and we trust that all who said by rising, or going forward, desired to lead a new life. May they be faithful and set a shining example to the rest.

STATE NEWS NOTES.

Heppner's council has ordered the arrest of its boys and girls who use profane language on the streets.

Albany Democrat: Next spring our taxes will all be paid in a lump, county, city and school, and hence the lump will seem big. At the last rates they would foot out 18 mills for county and state, 8 for city and 4 for city schools, an even 30 mills. This will probably be reduced to 27 mills, or 23 without a school tax.

Mrs. R. C. Gridley wrote the executive committee of the mid winter fair from Modesto, California, that she has in her possession the famous sanitary sack of flour which was sold in 1893 for the benefit of the sanitary fund. It was her husband, Mrs. Gridley says, who raised several thousand dollars for the sick and wounded soldiers, and she will let the midwinter fair have it with a history of the same. The exact amount realized for the flour, which was sold a great many times, was $324,000, and this amount was presented to the Union soldiers by R. C. Gridley, whose monument now stands in the Stockton cemetery.

Engene Guard: George Smith, of Coburg, this morning sold to Floyd Howard, of Junction, 29 head of dressed hogs that netted 5714 pounds. Hen. Spores sold the same gentleman 14 head that weighed 2500 pounds. The price paid, delivered here, was 6 cents per pound. These hogs averaged eighteen months old. This is the way to make wheat bring $1 per bushel, or more.
