LILUOKALANI'S RESTORATION.

Said to Have Taken Place Tuesday.

THURSTON'S PASSPORTS DENIED

For Opposing the Calico Queen of the Kanakas.

PROVISIONAL GOVERNMENT GAINING

More Fake Rumors of Cabinet Resignations.

The Queen Restored.

CHICAGO, Nov. 22.—A local paper this afternoon publishes a Washington dispatch saying it is confidentially ascertained at the state department that the queen was restored to the Hawaiian throne yesterday.

Hands Off Hawaii.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 22.—Senator Mitchell, of Oregon, today in an interview said he believed the sentiment of the Pacific coast was that the present government of the Sandwich Islands ought to be let alone by the United States. Willis has been accredited to this government by the president. "If then we are correct in the impression, Willis is instructed to use his influence, and the influence of this government, to overthrow the government to which he is accredited. It presents a case heretofore unknown in the annals of international courtesies."

ANOTHER OPINION.

Senator Cullom, of Illinois, expressed the opinion that congress, on re-assembling, would take up the Hawaiian question in a vigorous way. "The country will not tolerate the kingly airs assumed by the present administration. My opinion is, its best course is to go into that state of bankruptcy where, by its policy, it has forced so many good men."

TALKED TOO MUCH

Minister Thurston of Hawaii is not likely to receive his passports although it was said at the state department this morning that there were abundant grounds for such an action. It is claimed that his letter is a breach of diplomacy. Such action would be taken but for the reason that the American people might not think it fair play and that the right of man to talk and give his side of a controversy is always conceded.

The Date Fixed.

NEW YORK, Nov. 22.—The morning papers publish the story purporting to give some of secret advice received by Secretary Gresham from Minister Willis. It is asserted that Willis notified the State Department that he had fixed upon Tuesday of this week as date for restoration of Liluokalani.

Cabinet Rumors.

CHICAGO, Ill., Nov. 22.—The Inter-Ocean's Washington special says: The report is gaining wide publicity here that there are sharp differences of opinion in the cabinet of Cleveland on various matters. That as a result Gresham and Hoke Smith have threatened to resign. It cannot be determined that there is any truth in the reports.

Anarchists Discovered.

BARCELONA, Nov. 22.—The police this morning unearthed the headquarters of the anarchists in this city. They arrested one man and two women and secured many incriminating documents, which will probably lead to many arrests in Spain, France and Italy, besides other foreign countries. Over two hundred of the reds are already under arrest for connection with the recent explosion.

Cures Scrofula

Mrs. E. J. Rowell, Medford, Mass., says her mother has been cured of Scrofula by the use of four bottles of SSS. For a year I had given her much other care, but being in a low condition of health, so it was thought she could not live.

INHERITED SCROFULA.

Cured my little boy of hereditary Scrofula, which appeared all over his face. For a year I had given him much other care, but being in a low condition of health, so it was thought he could not live.

Indignant at Thurston.

NEW YORK, Nov. 22.—A special from a Washington morning paper says: "The reply of Minister Thurston to some of the more flagrant mis-statements contained in Blount's report and bold accusations of untruthfulness against the ex-commissioner have given great offense to the main officials of the administration, who are supposed to represent the views of the secretary of state. The indignation of these gentlemen is so great they do not hesitate to intimate that Thurston's passport will be returned by the president. He is accused of violating all known rules of diplomatic etiquette, and there is a loud demand from the state department alike for his punishment. It cannot be learned tonight what steps the administration proposes to take, if any, to discipline the plain-spoken representative of the provisional government."

Thurston's Statement.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 22.—Lorrin A. Thurston, the Hawaiian minister, gave out a statement last night. He says: "I am urged to make a statement for publication, setting forth the position and claims of the Hawaiian government and making reply to the charges contained in Blount's report. As I have received no official information that Blount has made his report, I am unable to intelligently state what the position and claims of the government are. A large proportion of the published extracts from Blount's report consist of personal attacks upon me and those associated with me in the provisional government, impugning our veracity, good faith and courage, charging us with fraud and duplicity. First, I desire to call attention to Blount's method of constructing his report. Although he in several places states that I was the leader of the revolutionary movement, he never asked me a question concerning the same nor gave me an opportunity to make any statement. The same is true of a large number of the other men who had taken a leading part in the movement in January. His evidence consists exclusively in prepared affidavits or answers to leading questions put by himself at private interviews, no one else being present but the stenographer. In no instance was there any cross examination or an opportunity given to contradict or explain the evidence.

"Blount charges that but for the support of the United States representative and troops, the establishment of the provisional government was impossible. Although the presence of the American troops may have prevented bloodshed, they were not essential, and did not assist in the overthrow of the queen. The result of the movement would have been eventually the same if there had not been a marine within 1000 miles of Honolulu. In support of this statement the troops did not land till Monday night, January 18, after the revolution had been in full progress since the afternoon of Saturday the 14th, during which time the committee of safety had openly organized for the avowed purpose of overthrowing the queen. There was absolutely no attempt at concealing from the government the objects and intentions of the committee. The queen, cabinet and supporters were utterly demoralized and suspicious of one another and devoid of leadership. The committee and their supporters were united and had ample force to execute their purpose; knew exactly what they wanted and proceeded with intelligent deliberation, thoroughness and confidence to do it. It is admitted by all that the queen before the revolution at noon Saturday by attempting to promulgate a constitution. Such attempt was immediately followed by preparations for armed resistance, and the United States troops were landed at 5 o'clock Monday."

Thurston then goes on to recite the details of the revolution which have already appeared in these columns.

Burned to Death.

NEWBERN, Tenn., Nov. 22.—A fire last night destroyed half a dozen business houses, causing a loss of $50,000. Lee Bradshaw and Platt Moffat, white, and Edgar, colored, were burned to death. It is believed other bodies are in the ruins. Several were seriously hurt.

Collars Shut Down.

POTSVILLE, Penn., Nov. 22.—Over a dozen of the principal Lehigh Valley colliers have shut down for lack of cars. More will follow tomorrow. Fully 5,000 men and boys are idle.

No Emigration.

ROME, Nov. 22.—The report has been issued by the minister of foreign affairs advising no further emigration to the United States on account of economic conditions prevailing there.

STATE AGRICULTURAL SOCIETY.

New Officers Elected for the Coming Year.

JUDGE GALLOWAY CHOSEN PRESIDENT.

The Society Out of Debt—The Outlook for 1894.

The annual meeting of the Oregon state board of agriculture was held at the capitol Tuesday commencing at 2 p. m. All the members present excepting Samuel H. Holt of Medford. Upon the roll being called President J. T. Apperson, of Oregon City, M. Wilkins, of Coburg; D. A. McAllister, La Grande; T. L. Davidson, J. G. Wright, Salem; W. F. Matlock, Pendleton; J. C. Simpson, Siuslaw; David Guthrie, Dallas; A. F. Miller, Seilwood, Wm. Galloway, McMinnville; and Z. F. Moody, of The Dalles, answered to their names. Secretary J. T. Gregg, of Portland, superintendent of the grounds, John Q. Wilson, and superintendent of the pavilion Wm. Savage, of Salem, were also in attendance.

OFFICERS ELECTED.

President, Wm. Galloway. Vice president, W. F. Matlock. Secretary, J. T. Gregg, (re-elected.) Treasurer, A. Bush. Chief marshal, W. L. Simeral. Superintendent of the pavilion and also of the grounds—Wm. H. Savage.

Executive committee—Messrs. Galloway, Apperson, Matlock, Wright and Moody.

Following committees were appointed: Finance, J. T. Apperson, A. F. Miller, Z. F. Moody.

Revision of premium list: David Guthrie, A. F. Miller, Z. F. Moody.

Revision of speed program: J. T. Apperson, Wm. F. Matlock, Pres. Galloway. These gentlemen are also a committee on rules and admission to grounds.

Resolutions complimentary to the retiring president, J. T. Apperson, and John Q. Wilson were passed. The latter was allowed $300 for extra services as superintendent of the grounds.

The claim of the fruit palace committee of the Marion County Horticultural society for $32.85 actually expended in labor on the exhibit was not allowed at this session out of the $100 appropriated for that purpose. President-Elect Galloway, John G. Wright and others favored it, but the men so narrow between the eyes that they can't see anything in a state fair but a race horse, spoke against it. The horticulturists are not bragging on their show last year at all. Owing to the rail and late season the fruit could not be got in but their bill was a just one and ought to be paid.

THE NEW PRESIDENT.

Judge Wm. Galloway of McMinnville is elected president of the State Board of Agriculture to succeed J. T. Apperson. He is serving since five years as a member of the State Board and is the present county judge of Yamhill county. He served in the legislatures of 1874, 1878 and 1880, as Democratic member from that county. He is at present one of the leading horticulturists of the Willamette valley, having an orchard of 180 acres under cultivation. He is also a grower of trotting horses, having raised some of the best Altamont colts in this state. He has enjoyed the confidence of his fellow members on the board to an unusual degree and probably would have been elected president before but for the fact that he was just then badly crippled by a runaway horse at Portland. He was chosen president at this meeting on the first ballot and it was made unanimous in a hearty manner by his associates; receiving the warmest congratulations of his predecessor.

STATE FAIR FINANCES.

Judge Galloway talked to a JOURNAL representative today about the fair and stated that its present financial condition was good. "There is still a debt on the lands of $10,000, which consist of 160 acres, were deeded to the state and with the improvements, worth easily $50,000. The board at this meeting paid all its bills, all interest due to date has no outstanding warrants but such as have never been presented for payment, and has about $600 on hand, the legislature makes an annual appropriation of $5000, for premiums, no part to go toward payment of race premiums."

The fair has no other source of revenue except gate receipts. "As to the future," Judge Galloway said, "the next meeting of the Board will be in

AFTER THE TRIALS.

Coquille Herald: Will the people never learn what the legal practice is at the present day, both in the courts and as counsel, after the many instances which have come to light. The New York World makes the following statement about U. S. Attorney-General Olney and the sugar trust—as if his opinions were not to be made on the law as a law, and upon the principles of justice and equity therein, but only for the fee, as a stake to be played for, or a commodity for sale to either party that will pay the price, and to both parties sometimes. Here is the World's say: "Mr. Olney is carrying on a legal proceeding against the sugar trust in Philadelphia.

"The proceeding is under the anti-trust law. When Mr. Olney was the paid attorney of a leading trust he put himself on record to the effect that the anti-trust law is, in his opinion, unconstitutional, null and void. But he has reasonable ground for hoping that the courts may not agree with him in that hired opinion, and that he may succeed against the sugar trust as an organization."

"What was done for Oregon at the world's fair I believe can be done for our state fair. We need enthusiasm, organization and specialization in the various departments of Oregon products and then we shall have a state fair in 1894 worthy of the best patronage of the people of this state. We intend to do all in our power as a board to assist in a proper representation of Oregon at the Midwinter Fair. We have a magnificent collection based up ready to take there with valuable additions and Oregon will take no second place in any such display."

Cordage Trust Reorganized.

NEW YORK, Nov. 22.—At a meeting of the executive board of the reorganization of the cordage trust arrangements were made to resume operations. The meeting was secret, but it is understood that a complete report of the proceedings will be given out today. The reorganized trust will have a capital of $5,000,000 in cash and $5,000,000 in collateral secured by New York and New England bonds. Among the executive officers there are several of the old members of the trust, but the balance of power is held by the banks. The creditors of the old trust have offered a settlement. The terms they are recommended to accept are 10 per cent in 90 days and the remainder in bonds of the new company, not subject to mortgage or foreclosure.

WORLD'S FAIR JURY.

Grant's Highest Award to Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder.

CHICAGO, Nov. 22.—On the analysis and recommendation of Dr. Wiley, Chief United States Government Chemist at Washington, and greatest living authority on food products, the World's Fair jury today gave the highest award to Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder for strength, purity and excellence. This conclusively settles the question of superiority. Dr. Wiley rejected the alum powder, stating to the World's Fair jury that he considered them unwholesome.

Preparing His Message.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 22.—President Cleveland spends a large share of his time preparing his annual message to congress. It is said the Hawaiian matter will be presented in the regular message. The probabilities are the message will be a long one, owing to the entrance of several subjects to be discussed not only on the Hawaiian matter but on the tariff.

Lehigh Switchmen Strike.

JERSEY CITY, Nov. 22.—All the Lehigh Valley switchmen here, except three, struck this morning, completely paralyzing the freight traffic.

A $1,000,000 Discrepancy.

CLEVELAND, O., Nov. 22.—A discrepancy is discovered of $1,000,000 between the figures given by the local national banks to the comptroller of the treasury May 31, and to the auditor May 31, '93, for taxation. No explanation is given, except the difference of one day in dates.

FINANCIAL AFFAIRS.

Free Silver-Carlisle Aims His Gold Buggery.

NEW YORK, Nov. 22.—The 125th annual banquet of the chamber of commerce took place last night, 300 prominent business men were present. Charles S. Smith, president of the chamber, presided and at the table Hon. John G. Carlisle, secretary of the treasury, occupied the post of honor. Among others present were Hon. William Walter Phelps, Whitehall, N. Y.; Carl Schurz, Murat Halstead, William G. Horablower. In opening the speech making the president took special pains to commend the character of the New York banks and their attitude towards the country during the recent financial crisis.

Hon. John G. Carlisle, secretary of the treasury, responded to the first toast of the evening which was "Commerce demands, and the honor of the country requires that the obligations of the United States shall be paid in coin current in any market of the world and the question shall be settled for all time and beyond controversy." He said in part: "Gold is the only international money. It is useless for the advocates of different systems to insist this ought not to be so. It is so and we cannot change it in fact. I never have been able to understand what is meant by double standard value and have never found any one who could tell me. To my mind it seems as absurd to contend that there should be two different standards as it would be to insist upon having two yard sticks of different lengths or two gallons of different dimensions. If the two standards are not equal in value it is evident one of them must be a false measure and if they are equal in value it is evident, no matter what law might declare, there will be in fact but one standard. This does not imply that silver is to have no place in our monetary system. What is to be the ultimate state of that metal is one of the problems which time and events can solve."
