SILVER IN THE SENATE.

Sherman Wants to Refer Bland's Bill

HATCH ANTI-OPTION BILL

Senator Voorhees Has Hopes and a Belief

THAT THE WILSON TARIFF BILL WILL

Be Reported from the Committee in a Week.

The Silver Debate.

WASHINGTON, March 7.—Harris of Tennessee, opened the silver fight by moving to second the reading of the Bland seigniorage bill, and gave notice that when the bill was read the second time he would move to take it up for consideration.

Voorhees, in the course of a speech later, said, he had hopes and a belief that the tariff bill will be reported to the full committee within a few hours. I would remain in the committee at least a week.

DELAYING THE TARIFF.

Senators McPherson and Vest made personal explanations denying statements in the New York World this morning, charging them with stock jobbing, while delaying the tariff bill. The senate then entered on consideration of the seigniorage bill, and Sherman's motion to refer was defeated by vote of 6 to 50. Affirmative votes: Davis, Gallinger, Morrill, Palmer, Sherman, Vilas.

Morrill, Sherman and Allison spoke in opposition to the seigniorage bill, then the senate adjourned. It is not believed that the seigniorage bill can be interposed very long to obstruct the tariff bill. In fact, but for dilatory motion it would have been passed this afternoon.

TARIFF BILL POSTPONED.

The anxiety of sugar advocates an uncertainty as to what disposition the senate would make of the Bland seigniorage bill combined today to cause Democratic members of the Senate Finance committee to again postpone reporting the tariff bill to a full committee.

The Option Bill.

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 7.—At the hearing before the Agricultural committee, by boards of trade on the Hatch anti-option bill continued today, there developed a better feeling on the part of Hatch than had been manifested hitherto. He informed the board of trade men that he did not seek in the bill to prevent legitimate trading in futures, but only sought to suppress bucket shops and dealing in puts and calls.

In the Senate.

WASHINGTON, March 7.—Sherman moved that the Bland seigniorage silver bill be referred to finance committee. This precipitated a vigorous discussion in which Sherman advocated his motion. Hill and Cookrell opposed.

WASHINGTON, Mar. 7.—The house bill, appropriating $45,000 for the rescue of the armament and wreck of the Kearsarge, passed. Morgan presented a resolution calling on the President for information as to whether Great Britain occupied Bluefields or any other part of Nicaragua, the size of the force landed, and any claim of authority under which the landing was made. Morgan said he wanted to know whether the Clayton-Bulwer treaty of 1850 was being violated. The resolution was agreed to.

IN THE HOUSE.

The bill ordering General O. O. Howard to accept from France the decoration of commander of the Legion of Honor, passed.

More of Hawaii.

WASHINGTON, March 6.—The president today sent to congress the latest correspondence from Minister Willis, at Honolulu. It brings the matter down to February 15th, but contains nothing of interest, beyond the preparation on the part of the provisional government to change by enlarging the executive council and making it representative. When this fact was promulgated, the Chinese on the Islands, held a mass meeting, protesting against the move.

PROTECTING THE SEALS.

Great Britain Not Satisfied With the Decision of the Court.

WASHINGTON, March 7.—It is understood there is a hitch in the negotiations between this country and Great Britain looking to an enforcement of the decree of the Paris trial relating to the protection of seals in Behring sea. It is learned that the British government is dissatisfied with the regulations adopted by the Paris arbitrators, and is now seeking to secure their modifications. The season begins May 1, and it is important that some agreement should be soon reached as to the instructions to be given to commanders of United States and British ships which will cruise in Behring sea from that date to July 31. Unless the British government shows a more prompt desire to execute the findings of the Paris arbitrators than it has shown up to the present time, there may be some delay in getting the patrol vessels to the sealing grounds in due season.

Sir Julian Pauncefote, the British ambassador, is understood to contend that the regulations suggested by the Paris tribunal are unduly severe in prescribing the length of closed seas and the extent of the prohibited zone. With respect to the construction of regulations, there is no immediate prospect of an agreement being reached between Secretary Gresham and Sir Julian Pauncefote. Relative to the claim of Great Britain that the duration of the closed season is too great and the territory in which poachers are prohibited from entering is too large, the state department officials contend that the matter is not one for discussion, as the restrictions imposed were framed by the arbitrators to whom, by the mutual agreement of the United States and England, the whole question of the rights of both countries was submitted. It is urged on Sir Julian Pauncefote's part that strict enforcement of the arbitrator's regulations will seriously injure the Canadian sealers' interests, also that a reduction in the seal catch will have a depressing effect on an important industry in England, namely the preparation of sealskins for the market. Whether or not Sir Julian's diplomacy will win Secretary Gresham to the English point of view remains to be seen. It was said at the state department today that so far no concession requested by England had been granted and no action looking to such an end was contemplated.

Fears For the Militia.

CHARLESTON, W. Va., March 7.—No violence has been attempted today by strikers at Eagle, but the presence of Pinkertons, and the fact that Colonel Wyant is not confined at Fayetteville, as was supposed, adds to the excitement of the strikers. Fears are expressed for the safety of Wyant and the militia.

Gov. Waite's Latest.

DENVER, Col., Mar. 7.—Gov. Waite today issued an executive order dismissing Jackson and D. J. Martin from the office of police commissioners of this city. He charges malfeasance in office in recognizing and protecting gambling houses. The commissioners will not obey the order. Serious trouble is expected before they are disposed.

Blackman Goes in Next Week

SAN FRANCISCO, March 7.—It is announced here that on the 14th inst. Revenue Agent McGlavin will transfer the office of Collector of Internal Revenue at Portland from Weidier to Blackman.

Opium Seizure.

PORTLAND, March 7.—Custom officers today seized 160 cans of unstamped opium.

Sheriff Kelley has filed a bond for half a million, as tax collector.

Governor Penoyer is not interested in the good roads reform. The road to fame is the only one he deigns to travel.

MUNICIPAL ELECTIONS.

Republicans Win Everywhere - Democrats Resort to A. F. A. Tactics.

SEATTLE, March 7.—In the municipal election the Republicans swept the city, electing the entire ticket. Phelps, Republican, for mayor, will have a majority over all. There were six tickets in the field, Republican, Democratic, Populist, Citizens, Prohibition, and Single Tax. Seventeen precincts out of forty-five complete give Phelps, rep., 1,255; Durie, Dem., 456; Chapin, Citizens, 178; Piper, Populist, 391; Dunlap, Prohi., 43; Jordan, Single Tax, 8. At the last minute the Democrats sprung the A. P. A. dodge, but it would not work.

IN NEW YORK.

NEW YORK, March 7.—Election returns from the various counties in the state show large Republican gains. In Geneva every one of the Republican candidates were elected. In Rochester the Republican candidate for mayor was elected by a majority of 3,000. In Little Falls not a single Democrat was elected. Every town in Wayne county shows Republican gains. In Governorville the board of aldermen is entirely Republican. Returns from Rockland, Washington, Essex, Clinton, and Green counties, show the Republicans have either held their own or made large gains. Lansingburg elected an entire Republican ticket by over 1,300 majority. Saratoga county went Republican by increased majorities.

WAR ON THE JESUITS.

They May Be Expelled From the Republic of Mexico.

HIDALGO, March 7.—The expulsion of the Jesuits from Mexico is causing much serious thought among those having the welfare of the republic at heart. The first blow was struck by the expulsion of the Jesuits in a college of this city by Bishop Montes de Oca, and today the Jesuits are out of power in San Louis Potosi, and have been ordered to leave at once. Bishop de Oca has assigned no official reason for the action. Matters have been in an ominous state many months. Many efforts have been made to bring peace again in the divided ranks of Catholicism, but have been unavailing. Just how this will effect the Jesuits and their interests in the remainder of Mexico is hard to foretell. It is freely predicted that it is the beginning of the trouble, and that this is the first outbreak of a deeply-seated growing opposition to Jesuit domination which is felt in all parts of the republic. It is thought the action of Bishop de Oca will be the sign for an uprising in many parts of the country against the Jesuits, and that if they are not expelled from the republic they will at least be shorn of a large part of their power.

Murdered for Money.

LIMA, Ohio, March 7.—J. M. Archer, a rich stock dealer, has been murdered by highwaymen, near North Baltimore, and robbed of three thousand dollars, while on his way home after selling a large drove of hogs. The murderers are unknown.

The Old Man Ill.

LONDON, March 7.—Ex-Premier Wm. Everett Gladstone is seriously ill, as a result of a chill.

Later: Gladstone is somewhat better this afternoon.

PENYOYER A FREE TRADER.

Report of His Address at Seattle Saturday Night.

Governor Penoyer made a speech for the Populist city ticket at Seattle. From the report in the Telegraph we take the following:

"We are passing through hard times," he said, "and republicans attribute these times to the change in the tariff policy, and as the direct act of the present national administration. But these times have been with the people for years."

The fault was not with the tariff policy of this government, but was to be found in the contraction of the currency. If the streets were filled with idle men and women and children cried for bread it was due to that cause. The Wilson bill was largely protective, although the democrats in their national convention had declared against protection.

Governor Penoyer believed that the Republicans were responsible for the present conditions. They wanted to protect the producer, but he would go further and protect the consumer as well, while the Republicans protected the consumer by making him pay an extra price for that protection. (Great cheering.)

"The only way," he continued, "to really protect the consumer is to remove all protection and allow him to buy wherever he can do so at the cheapest prices."

Governor Penoyer addressed himself to John Sherman, who, he said, on a salary of $5000 per year and spending $6000, had managed to accumulate a fortune of $2,000,000.

He referred to the demonetization of silver, went into the history of money from the days of Solomon to the present time, and declared that the only sound money system was one which recognized those of both gold and silver, with paper as a legal tender.

The redeeming feature of the Wilson bill was the income tax, and he believed if it once passed congress it will remain forever on the statute books of the country.

Eruption of the Skin Cured.

Ed. Venney, Brockville, Ontario, Canada, says:

"I have used Brandreth's Pills for the past fifteen years, and think them the best cathartic and anti-bilious remedy known. For some five years I suffered with eruption of the skin that gave me great pain and annoyance. I tried different blood remedies, but although gaining strength the itching was unrelieved. I finally concluded to take a thorough course of Brandreth's Pills. I took six each night for four nights, then five, four, three, two, lessing each time by one, and then for one month took one every night, with the happy result that now my skin is perfectly clear and has been so ever since."

WILSON BILL KILLED.

The resolution offered Tuesday by Senator Hill, of New York, instructing the finance committee of the senate to amend the Wilson bill as make up the "double deficit" by tariffing importations instead of increasing internal taxation, is the deathblow of that measure. At one blow the Democratic senator from the empire state lays low the whole revenue reform fabric and virtually emphasizes the correctness of the Republican position on the tariff. It is doubtful if the Wilson bill will ever be heard of again in the senate. So far as the country is concerned, it has already denounced it as a patchwork of protection, a piecemeal compromise with trusts, and worthy only of contempt from intelligent Americans of any party. Hill has unceremoniously, but in a masterly manner, pricked the rotten pumpkin of revenue reform. He makes any further progress impossible in the crusade toward a free trade basis that was so honey-combed with protection jobbery that it could no longer stand upright. The country owes him a vote of thanks for perforating the swindle at the right moment.
