COKERS STILL STRIKING.

Every Oven to Be Closed on Monday Next.

HAIL STORM AND WATERSPOUT
Devastating Kansas of Crops and Cattle.

SCOTSDALE, Pa., May 5.—The situation in the coke region today is quiet, although an outbreak is expected at any moment at the Moyer works, Rainy Coke company. There are 1,000 strikers in camp with a determination to bring all the men out. The strikers claim that every coke oven will be idle Monday. One thousand men marched on the St. Paul plant today frightening the workman, many of whom have fled. Deputies dispersed the mob.

The Storm.

EMPORIA, Kan., May 5.—At Reading, cattle were stampeded, and some killed last night by the storm. Marshall Welsh was caught out in the storm, and is missing. At Sebo the Baptist church and several dwellings were blown down. Houses were also demolished at West Wichita and Olivet. A water spout badly damaged the crops throughout Osage county.

The Kansas Storm.

TOPEKA, Kan., May 5.—Reports from Lyon and Osage counties show that the storm was not so bad as last night's dispatches indicated. At Olivet two freight cars were blown from the track. The hall was accompanied by a high wind. No fatalities are reported.

Hard Times Affect Kelly.

DES MOINES, May 5.—Kelly's industrial are disheartened. At breakfast the commissary officers reported 1000 loaves of bread on hand, but scarcely enough meat and coffee to supply the officers' mess. Kelly drew on the treasury for money to buy coffee and meat. Governor Jackson is still endeavoring to secure cheap rates to the river, but is not confident of success. To carry the men to the Mississippi full fare would cost $6500 and the railroads will accept nothing less. It is the general impression that Kelly will be starved out and the army dwindle to a corporal's guard before the river is reached.

Kelly to Float.

DES MOINES, May 5.—The proposition to float Kelly's army down the Mississippi on rafts, is under consideration. It is feared Kelly will not be able to take over 800 men out of the city with him, and 600 will be turned loose on the city. During the past week 100 men brought here by the army, have been jailed. The citizens' committee disbanded today, notifying the army that they can do nothing more.

What Coxey's Cost.

WASHINGTON, May 5.—The Coxey movement in the northwest is putting the government to heavy expense. The treasury department has submitted to the house an estimate of the prospective deficiency of $50,000, for United States marshals. Attorney General Olney says the expense in the state of Washington on this account, is $1000 a day.

Trial of Commonwealers.

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 5.—In the trial of the commonwealers today Judge Miller overruled the motion to dismiss the case on the ground of insufficient evidence. The court adjourned until Monday. Sec'y Herbert started for the Pacific coast today.

LONDON, May 5.—Samuel Smith, liberal for Flintshire, brought up the subject of bimetallism in the house of commons this evening with his motion: "In view of the continued depression of trade and agriculture and the restriction of exchanges between the gold and silver-using countries, it is desirable that a standard of exchange between silver and gold be established by international agreement."

While Edmund Versey Knox, anti-Parnellite for West Cavan, was speaking in favor of the motion, the house was counted out.

A CLOSE FISTED PLUTOCRAT.

Banker Bush Gets Back on Governor Penneyer.

From the Oregonian, May 5th: [TO THE EDITOR].—In Governor Penneyer's printed speech the following occurs: "Thirty-five years ago I taught school in a town situated in one of the most fertile counties in the upper Willamette valley. At that time a gentleman with a small basketful of type and a hand press was publishing a weekly newspaper. He then was not worth probably nearly as much as any one of a hundred farmers that lived about the village. Shortly afterward he sold his paper and went into the banking business. After the lapse of a third of a century, the farmers alluded to, after toiling and worrying the whole year round, year after year, in summer heat and winter rain, are worth no more now than then, while the banker, without such toil and worryment, has accumulated wealth sufficient to buy out the whole 100 farmers and have a large pile left. Is not a system of finance which thus allows the few to absorb the wealth of the many one that should be remedied by law?"

It is reported that a Salem gentleman remarked to Mr. Bush, of that city, that he was supposed to be the successful banker Governor Penneyer referred to in this paragraph. Mr. Bush replied he didn't know as to that, but that over 30 years ago he knew a young man who was teaching a small country school in Oregon who afterward unsuccessfully essayed farming, and then the practice of the law, and finally, after a failure in a newspaper enterprise, got into the sawmill business at Portland, from which, aided by the lumber combine, he accumulated and kept upward of half a million dollars; that this comfortable fortune, together with an ingeniously trebled salary as governor, rendered it unnecessary for him to bring luncheon and blankets from Portland when visiting the capital on official business, and enabled him to bestow dignity upon the executive office by boarding with the janitor in the state house basement at two-bits a meal and lodging in a neighboring attic at 25 cents a night.

BRECKENRIDGE CAMPAIGNING

The Moral Leper Has an Immense Following.

THE GEARY LAW IS IN FORCE.

A Dozen Torpedo Boats Wanted for Our Navy.

LEXINGTON, Ky., May 5.—Lexington is crowded today with partisans of W. C. P. Breckenridge, gathered to hear the opening of his canvass with a spectacular send-off. Col. Breckenridge's speech was mainly a review of his career in congress. The concluding portion of his speech was devoted to the Pollard scandal, and the opposition to his renomination on moral grounds. He denounced and defied his assailants, and said that time will confound those who seek to betray his usefulness. Responding to the charge of hypocrisy in taking a leading part in religious and moral movements while living a double life, he said he was making atonement for his secret sin, which he dared not confess, and doing everything in his power to keep others from following in his footsteps.

CONGRESSIONAL PROCEEDINGS.

Chinese Registration Act Has Been Generally Complied With.

WASHINGTON, D. C. May 5.—It has been considered probable that in course of this session of the house there would be an attempt made to attach on one of the appropriation bills an amendment providing for the repeal of the sugar county clause of the McKinley act. There has been hesitation about this matter among Democratic members, as it will be taken as an indication that they had some doubts about the passing of the tariff bill in the senate. Dockery introduced a resolution which was referred to committee on rules. It directs the committee on ways and means to prepare and report to the house for consideration in connection with the legislative, executive and judicial appropriation bill, an amendment providing for the repeal of that part of the McKinley act which authorizes the issue of licenses to producers of sugar from beets, sorghum or cane in the United States, or from maple sap produced within the United States.

Friday was the last day for registration of Chinese under the McCrea act. It is learned there has been a general compliance with the law in all parts of the country. The only notable exception to the rule, as far as learned, has been in the mountainous districts of Montana, where deep snows have prevented those living in the interior from reaching points where the registration books were open.

According to the census returns of '90 there were approximately 507,650 Chinese in the country and it is believed about this number have registered.

Under the recent opinion of the attorney general, Chinese merchants who have left the United States temporarily, prior to November 3, 1893, will be permitted to return within reasonable time providing their individual names appear in the firm designated. Members of firms whose individual names do not appear except in the general designation of "company" will not be permitted to return. While no ruling has yet been made on the point, it is believed that firm members who left the United States prior to November 3d, without knowing that as the law then stood, they would not be permitted to return, will be allowed to prove that they are bona fide members of firms, provided, however, that the firm name be at once changed so as to include their several names. It is the opinion of some officials if this distinction is literally and rigidly enforced fully 90 per cent. of all merchants who left this country prior to November 3d, will be debarred from returning.

Senator McPherson, chairman of the committee on naval affairs, favorably reported from that committee the amendment to the naval appropriation bill authorizing the construction of twelve torpedo boats. The amendment provides that the cost shall not exceed $200,000 and they shall be capable of making a speed of twenty-five knots per hour. A premium of $5,000 is to be added for speed in excess of twenty-five knots and a penalty of that amount in case the speed of the boat falls below twenty-five knots. Four of the boats are to be constructed on the Pacific coast.

Senator Vest offered amendments to the income tax feature of the tariff bill, the object of which is to relieve the individual investors in corporations and have the profits of the corporation taxed. Instead of compelling each individual to exhibit books and papers, the assessor may estimate the amount of the income and the persons so assessed may appear and prove he has been assessed too high, if such is the case. The changes in detail are: That there shall be levied and collected a tax of 2 per cent per annum on the profits or income of the ordinary working or operating expenses of all the banks, banking institutions, trust companies, savings institutions, fire marine, life and other insurance companies, railroads, canal, turnpike, canal navigation, slackwater, telephone, telegraph, electric light, gas, water, street railway companies, and all other corporations, companies or associations doing business for profit in the United States. A penalty is provided for failure to make a correct report of the income.

Highest of all in Leavening Power.—Latest U. S. Gov't Report.

Royal Baking Powder

without paying their bills, as was done recently at Mehama in this county. All such are public nuisances and often frauds into the bargain.

A worse nuisance because it comes nearer home, is a class of unemployed political mountebanks who prey upon political parties, very much as skunks do upon a chicken roost. Their depredations are carried on like the skunk's, by night. They are not candidates and sink below the level of the hired agitator, because they are not even paid for their labors but propose to bring in a bill for their services if the party they espouse happens to succeed. They will then demand an appointment to some paying position. These are the jackals that pick the boneway of politics, and lie in wait for clerkships and commissions, or any position that will enable them to live two years without labor, when they may go forth again to spew out anew the same retchings which they heave up in the service of half a dozen different political parties in as many different campaigns. They expect two years' pickings and stealings off the people for their two months' of state mouthings and political activity. They should be declared a public enemy as they are an unmitigated public nuisance.

MR. FLAGG'S CONSISTENCY.

Consistency is no part of a Democratic editor's jewelry. While upholding one denomination that also opposes some secret societies, the Democrat denounces a Republican candidate for the legislature, Rev. Henry Barkley, because his church does not believe in secret societies. If Barkley were a Democrat or an assistant Democrat no fault would be found. Flagg attacks the Republican nominee for state superintendent of schools because he was once a Methodist preacher, though he has years since been actively engaged in teaching, politics and public positions, when the Democratic party four years ago nominated a Baptist minister, Rev. Leroy, fresh from the pulpit for the same office.

In the eyes of such editors it is a crime for a Republican to even believe in future punishment, because it implies that some one might be held responsible for motiveless malignity in politics.

Sheep Trouble.

DEBEQUE, Col., May 5.—It is reported that 800 Colorado sheep in the battlement of Mesa reserve were slaughtered last night by Utah sheepmen, out of revenge for being kept out of the state. State Veterinarian Grosswell will turn back today 30,000 Utah sheep near here and 10,000 near Grand Junction will also be sent back.

Docking Congressmen.

WASHINGTON, May 5.—Congressional salaries for April became due yesterday, so the members had their first experience with the new procedure of docking for absenteeism. Up to last night 213 members had filed their certificates showing the number of days, if any, they had been absent. Today about 50 certificates were put in, leaving about 100 unaccounted for. The great majority of members certify they have not been absent at all, and most of those who certify to absence limit the period to one or two days. At this rate the total deductions will be small. Representatives are showing an uneasiness in making out certificates, as there is nothing behind their word of honor to show how many days they have been absent. They feel reluctant to surrender a part of their salaries, and yet are bound in honor to report the days for which deduction should be made.

Presidential Pap.

WASHINGTON, May 5.—The president today sent the following nominations to the senate: Seneca Haselton, of Vermont, envoy extraordinary and minister plenipotentiary to Venezuela, Joseph P. Williams, of Heppner, Oregon, Herman Wise, of Astoria, Oregon, and Howard T. Mallin, of Spokane, Wn., postmasters.

Relief for Indian Fighters.

WASHINGTON, D. C. May 5.—A bill for the relief of citizens of Oregon, Idaho and Washington who served in the war against the NezPerces and Bannock and Shoshone Indians and their heirs and those killed in that service, was passed by the senate today on motion of Shoup.

CAMPAIGN NUISANCES.

A canvass of four political parties as is now carried on by political orators in Oregon is a severe strain on the patience, and good will of the people. Generally it is borne with exceeding good nature. But there is a limit to all things.

Two campaign nuisances should be got rid of in political assemblages. One is the hired and paid propagandist or agitator who goes about at so much per night avowing that he speaks for no party but for the people. Merely to advocate discontent, how calamity or array as he calls it capital and labor. They have been conducting these socialistic campaigns until there is neither capital or labor to be had in our country.

These men as a rule are strangers, cast-off politicians and the aftermath of busted political schemes, rejected in other states, and plying their nefarious principles for gain, regardless of the result. To this class belong quite a series of Reverends, like "Rev." Rork, "Rev." Waldrop, the "Revs." who opened their services with song and prayer and roped in the Salem Prohibitionists for several hundred dollars last year, etc. They go anywhere, whether invited or not, responsible to no one, and announce themselves, harrange the multitude, take up a collection and disappear, often leaving the community
