

THE CAPITAL JOURNAL

(DAILY AND WEEKLY.)

BY HOFER BROTHERS.

MONDAY, JAN. 28, 1895.

UNDER WHAT LEADERSHIP?

Under an All-Wise Providence; not men's; that is the character of the anti-Dolph battle for the senatorship...

BASTARDS AND ANARCHISTS.

"A typical silver statesman." "An eminent anarchist from Marion county."

According to the eminent flashwife of the tall tower there would be nothing left for the people of this republic to do but all become bastards and anarchists.

MAKE HASTE SLOWLY.

Men who are really desirous of electing a new man for senator should not urge his claims at present.

A FAIR QUESTION.

I have received letters and telegrams from Lane county and my scores was colored in every one of them, except the one received by my friend, and neighbor in Junction City.

Representative Moorhead has the above explanation of his reasons for voting for Dolph.

The Douglas men in the legislature may still vote for Dolph as a matter of private conviction. But it is questionable if Douglas is solid for Dolph.

ANTI-DOLPH MASS MEETINGS.

Anti-Dolph demonstrations were the rule all over Oregon, Saturday night, wherever a member of the legislature could get home to his constituents.

In a speech the representative from Woodburn replied to the petitions and attacks of the opposition and showed himself able to take care of himself in his home town.

A prominent Republican at Aurora writes to express the sentiment of that sturdy Republican town: "I desire to mention the fact that you have the sympathy and good will of almost every voter in this section with your efforts to down a rule and goldbug monopoly and we earnestly hope that you will be successful in defeating Dolph for U. S. Senator."

The President of the Young Men's Republican Club at Gaston, Or., writes: "You are to be congratulated on the fight you are making against the machine candidate for Senator. Keep it up; the people are everywhere with you."

THE JOURNAL concedes the right of representatives to vote their honest convictions on the senatorship and will defend men to the last in exercising that right.

A business man at Zena writes: "We have not a single Dolph man in this vicinity, and regardless of party, all are anxious for the weather to get cold enough to freeze the old gentleman out."

"The People's Daily Journal" is the way this newspaper is addressed on scores of letters received at this office. They contain not a little silver and other circulating medium that has the Government stamp upon it.

The trinity, three-in-one, Oregonian-Dolph-Cleveland on Finance-Pensions-Corporations—their God—Wall Street, whom the people do not worship.

One for Dolph. Following is the only "Dolph" letter received from a JOURNAL subscriber: MORSON, Or., Jan. 24, 1895.

We were well pleased with the caucus nominee and sorry to see any bolt from its decisions; as it is a useless expense of the time of our legislators.

It is very questionable if silver enters very largely into the contest now waging at Salem. It is very likely to be gold. Mr. Dolph has not been a popular favorite for many years.

The young bloods of the house evidently feel the importance of their position, and they should be pardoned for giving a few extra gubler struts down the aisle and exploiting their oratorical gables during the first week of the session.

Notice to Subscribers.

By sending 25 cents, 50 cents, or $1.00 in silver with your postmaster and telling him to send in your name for "The Daily Capital Journal," you will receive the paper without further expense.

UNIT FOR SENATOR.

J. N. Dolph Doesn't Represent the People of Oregon.

ASHLAND, Jan. 25, 1895. EDITOR JOURNAL.—The position of the senatorial contest, now going on at Salem, is particularly gratifying to the people of Southern Oregon.

Long, loud and almost universal have been the expressions here, complimentary of the treatment by anti-machine Republicans of the attempted whipping in by the caucus of January 16.

Mr. Dolph Should Retire. CLYMER, Jan. 28, 1895.

EDITOR JOURNAL.—With the same intense feeling of anxiety, that enraptured the old soldier and poet, as he watched from the mast head the red glare that lit up the battle rockets;

If Mr. Dolph had the welfare of the Republican party at heart, he would wire his managers and friends to withdraw his name from the senatorial contest.

TOOK A WALK.

A Washington County Treasurer Short of Cash.

PORT ANGELES, Wash., Jan. 28.—M. J. Clump, ex-treasurer of Clallam county, was found short over $1300 when he turned over the office to his successor, A. R. Dorsey.

Protecting Colorado Girls. DENVER, Jan. 28.—The house today passed the bill raising the age of consent for girls from 16 to 21 years.

Russell Sage. No one knows better than this well-known financier the full value of a curative. He is not easily imposed upon once, and never twice.

New York City, Dec. 21, 1894. "For the last twenty years I have been using Alcock's Pectoral Plaster. They have repeatedly cured me of rheumatic pains and pains in my side and back."

What did he do? "Combined his hair."—Chicago Inter Ocean.

What did the Meant. "Chilly—What did she mean by saying I couldn't be any bigger drinking than I was?"

We sell Parke's Cough Syrup on a positive guarantee to cure all throat and lung troubles. It has stood the test for many years and today is the leading remedy for the cure of colds, consumption and all diseases of the throat and lungs.

PET CIGARETTES ARE THE BEST

CIGARETTE SMOKERS who care to pay a little more than the cost of ordinary trade cigarettes will find the PET CIGARETTES SUPERIOR TO ALL OTHERS.

How Parthey Laid the Groundwork for a Romance.

A sallow complexioned old lady, accompanied by a phenomenally unprepossessing daughter, recently walked into an Austin photograph gallery.

"I can touch it up with india ink." "What particular pose do you think best for Parthey's style of beauty, full circles or a side show?"

"I mean quarter view or profile?" "I guess I do. You see, the photograph is going to a young fellow who put an advertisement in the paper for correspondents, and Parthey's writin' in here."

"Certainly, madam, I'll do my best." "Well, all right, then. Jest go ahead and square them shoulders back just a trifle and bring down the nose, wipe off them freckles and tone down her ears and the hair! It won't be red in the picture, will it?"

"Oh, no; there will be no color shown but black." "That's a comfort! Gracious! Parthey, what would that young man think if you sent him an old paintin taken from life? Kin I stay in the room?"

"Oh, yes." "All right. Strike an attitude, Parthey, that won't give you away, and we'll rope in that young man as sure as you're a foot high."—Texas Siftings.

In a Position to Know. "Talk about hard times," said the fat man with the big diamond, "there are business men in this city of whom I have reason to believe that they are starving, or at least do not have enough to eat home."

"How do you figure that out?" "Well, you see, I ran a free lunch in connection with my bar."—Indianapolis Journal.

Mixed Proverbs. "How are you coming on with your music? Can you play Beethoven's symphonies?" asked Judge Paterly of a young Harlem lady who is learning to play on the piano.

"I've not got quite that far yet. You can't learn everything at once. You know Columbus' egg was not laid in a single day," was the reply.—Texas Siftings.

An Improvement Suggested. "What a beautiful animal that zebra is!" exclaimed the girl who was visiting the zoo.

"Ya-as," replied the young man who is always near her. "If it only had stripes running the other way, it would be quite a handsome pattern, wouldn't it?"—Washington Star.

Felt Lost. "Hi—What are you going to do with that old hair mattress?"

"Mrs. Hicks—Burn it in the stove by degrees." "Hi—What for?"

"Mrs. Hicks—I feel lost since you stopped smoking cigarettes."—New York World.

Encouragements. "How do you know that Billy Brown is afraid of the Smith boy?"

"Cause he went into the house and fixed himself on the Smith boy wouldn't know him?"

"What did he do?" "Combined his hair."—Chicago Inter Ocean.

What did the Meant. "Chilly—What did she mean by saying I couldn't be any bigger drinking than I was?"

ODDS AND ENDS.

The best evidence goes to show that the pyramids of Egypt were royal sepulchers.

The officials of Korea wear upon their hats the figures of various birds and animals.

Among the Turks the bodies of the dead are held in extreme reverence, though the cemeteries are used as picnic grounds.

There are, says a New York newspaper, about 10 Afro-American lawyers in New York, 13 in Boston and more than 25 in Chicago.

The English sovereign's sons and grandsons, when created peers, are entitled to seats in the house of lords at the left of the throne.

One of the conditions of membership of a New York club is that each member must give at least one hour a week to doing some good action.

It is estimated that there are fully 66,000 negroes in the young territory of Oklahoma. Most of them are in Blaine and Logan counties.

Evaporation is two or three times greater in the sunshine than in the shade and five or six times as great in summer as in winter, is greater during a breeze than in a calm and is greater from fields of melting snow than from an equal surface of the ocean.

RAILROAD JOTTINGS.

Berlin is to have an elevated railroad like New York, with the difference that electricity is to be used as the motive power.

The Lake Shore Electric Railway company has been incorporated, with a capital of $10,000,000. The new line will run from Chicago to Milwaukee.

The Monterey and Mexican Gulf Railroad company has arranged with the Mexican government to extend the road from Trevino to Sierra Mojada, and thence to Mazatlan, on the Pacific coast.

All the employees of the Lehigh Traction company at Hazleton, Pa., are insured by the company. This is done in order to protect the men in case of any injury, or perhaps death, that they might sustain in an accident.

OUR SILVER MINES.

Oregon must encourage the use of more silver. We must do all in our power to have capital invested in our thousands of undeveloped silver mining properties.
