Progressive.

Col. J. Olmstead, proprietor of the Salem Steam Laundry, informs us that, as an experiment he will, for the month of June, laundry plain white shirts for 10 cents each, guaranteeing no deterioration from the excellent quality of work heretofore done on the same class of goods at that well known and justly celebrated cleaning establishment. He also informs us that, by their new patent soap and ammonia process he is handling colored goods and hannels in a manner not excelled by any laundry. This laundry has become famous for the excellent manner in which it turns out work to its patrons throughout the entire Willamette valley, Southern Oregon and Northern California, the snowy whiteness of its handiwork being a marvel to all beholders.

SPECIAL MEETING.

The exempt firemen of Salem will hold a special meeting at the council chamber this (Monday) evening. Firemen are invited to be present and discuss matters pertaining to the celebration of July 4.

NEW DIRECTOR.—Prof. Z. M. Parvin, for more than twelve years the musical director of Willamette University, has tendered his resignation to the board of trustees, which has been accepted. The trustees have elected Prof. R. A. Heritage, formerly of Valparaiso, Indiana Normal school conservatory of music, well-known as an able director, to fill the vacancy. Prof. Heritage will enter upon the discharge of his duties at the opening of the next year. The wide circle of friends Prof. Parvin has in the valley will regret to hear of his withdrawal from the university.

TURNER THE PLACE.—The special committee of the Marion County People's Party, at its meeting in Salem, Saturday, decided on Turner as a suitable place to hold the proposed picnic and celebration for the Fourth of July under the auspices of that organization. A committee on speakers and general arrangements was selected with directions to report progress at the next meeting of the party. It is to be regretted that the great orator who is to speak at Turner cannot be, his silver tongue over our smooth and wily Thos. H. Tongue.

BARRELL.—A nine composed of class No. 12 of the M. E. Sunday school and a team captained by Catherine McElroy played a match game of baseball in East Salem Saturday afternoon which resulted in a victory for the former team, the score being 17 to 24 in their favor.—The game was been played in Woodburn Saturday afternoon between a nine from that city and the Salem Juniors did not materialize owing to the death of the grandfather of the captain of the Woodburn team. The game will probably be played Saturday, June 2.

A Strong Firm.

There is no stronger remedy of house-hold in Salem than the business.

Lee Steiner, who has been sole proprietor of the Red Corner drugstore the past year and a half, has associated with him his two cousins, Armitage T. and Albert H. Steiner, under the firm name of the Steiner Drug company.

All are well known young business men, well versed in the drug trade and accommodating to a high degree. Lee has been at his present stand as clerk and proprietor nearly ten years; Armitage something like seven years and Albert the past six months, so that they will not be at all strange to the numerous customers who make the Red Corner their depot of reliable medicine supplies. There is practically no change in the popular management, only that a strong firm is made stronger.

United Shops.

The two barber shops of Jack Fowler and Geo. W. Foster have united and are better able to serve their numerous patrons than before. Business will be conducted on State street near Clough's undertaking establishment.

Ice Cream.

The Young People's Society of the German Baptist church is having an ice cream social tonight for the benefit of the Sunday school.

Knee Deep.

McCall Bros., successors to Joe Clark in the Court street grocery, have been best of everything, and consequently enjoy the best of trade.
