FIRES, FIRES, FIRES.

Drouth in the East Causes Fierce Flames.

WALL OF FLAMES 3 MILES WIDE.

OH Wells Burning and Several Towns Wiped Out.

FREDERICKSBURG, Va., June 4.—The worst fire ever known here occurred this morning. The Kingsley factory, excelsior mill and six dwellings are burned. William Deshaso, engineer of the excelsior mill was burned to death.

FIRE THREE MILES WIDE.

BRADFORD, Pa., June 4.—A fire at Russell City last night drove terror to the hearts of five hundred inhabitants. At 10 o'clock, a brisk west wind fanned the burning under brush and hemlock timber into a solid mass of fire, covering three miles in width. The flames spread so rapidly that people had to leave everything and run to the clearing, two miles distant at Highland Corners. Women with children in their arms, shrieking and bemoaning their sad fate, ran and stumbled as they escaped from the fire. Many women fell exhausted and were trampled on, but reached Highland in safety.

Nothing is left of a once bustling little place. The fire is still burning fiercely among the oil wells. The Northern oil company have twenty oil wells and a number of tanks burning at those places now, and there is no abatement to the fury of the flames. It is impossible to estimate the loss. The woods leading to Clark's Mills are a mass of flames on both sides of the road. How the people who live along the road could have escaped is beyond comprehension. There is no communication of any description with this place and no news obtainable from there, but there is no doubt of everything having been burned in the path of the fire. Every available man is fighting fire and there is not half enough. There is fire in every direction and all efforts to check its progress seem futile. Cool run, three miles from Russell City, which was wiped out yesterday afternoon, was entirely obliterated. The place consisted of 27 buildings, a pump station, school house and saw mill.

WORSE AND WORSE

BRADFORD, Pa., June 4.—The fire at Ormsby is raging more ferociously than ever this forenoon. The place is without water protection and the flames are devouring a large area of standing timber. Saw mills and a number of houses have been consumed. A stiff breeze is blowing and there is no telling what the outcome will be. The fire at West Kane is under control. The fire at Knapp Creek is still raging and has done a large amount of damage. The fire has spread to Holes Camp and thirty-five oil wells are burning. Reports from Duke Center state that the entire valley is on fire. The loss to lumber and oil will be enormous. Kansas Branch, Bradford, Davis City, Summit City, Dallas City, Oil Valley, Limestone, State Line, Derrick City and Red Hook are all in it and unless rain falls soon, will be destroyed. Men are still fighting fire at Degolis and apparently have it under control. Nothing has been learned from West Branch, where a brisk fire is burning. Every thing at Sugar Run, including saw mills and dwellings, is burned and nothing remains of the place. The fire at Brookstone is still burning ferociously and there is no prospect of checking the spread of the flames. It is impossible to get men, consequently the fires are making rapid progress.

Woodburn News.

WOODBURN, June 4.—J. B. Wheeler, formerly of East Portland, was kicked to the face Monday by horse that he was driving to a sled. He had just finished cultivating his garden and had loaded the cultivator on the sled and had started down the road on the sled when in some way he was thrown forward. His face was cut open from the forehead down around the left eye, and the cheek was cut wide open. No one saw the accident, but a little girl reported that a man was lying in the road. He was immediately taken to his home and two doctors sent for. He was unconscious and was unable to tell how the accident occurred. As the plow was found beside him, it is now supposed he must have fallen upon the plow with great force. The horse made a bee-line for home where it was caught. It is thought Mr. Wheeler will pull through all right but may lose his eye. He is an old soldier.

W. L. Tooze caused the arrest of S. Tomlinson for violating the fire ordinance. At the trial City Attorney Manning moved to dismiss the case, but Tooze opposed this motion. The recorder took the matter under advisement. Tomlinson is one of the city councilmen.

The case of Brown vs. Prevost will be tried today.

Hill of the Great Northern.

PORTLAND, June 4.—President Hill of the Great Northern was asked today: "Has the free coinage of silver agitation hurt this country?" "Decidedly. It has impaired credit. Our credits are not very good now, and if there is ever danger of a free coinage bill being passed by congress, there will be a financial panic."

"Don't you know the silver mine owners will suffer as much as anyone else," exclaimed Mr. Hill. "If they get free coinage? All the gold in the country would be driven out of the market, and silver would eventually be worth nothing. The Great Northern railroad system would be benefited more than any individual or corporation in the country by free coinage. Our line runs through the great silver belt and we would haul most of the silver ore. But free coinage would ruin the country, and I don't want it."

Mr. Hill will leave today for the South. They may return before they proceed eastward.

Whole Family Crazed.

CLEVELAND, June 4.—An entire family of seven were taken into custody here charged with insanity. It consists of Henry Buchwald, the father; Charlotte Buchwald, his wife; two grown daughters, Eva and Emma, and three small children. All of the family are strong believers in the spiritualistic faith, and have been locked up in their home for over a week holding wildly insane spiritualistic seances. One of the daughters is laboring under the hallucination that she is a spirit, and another member of the family that she must die. The spirit was perfectly willing to be sacrificed, but the timely arrival of the sheriff prevented them from carrying out their insane ideas.

No Secretary Yet.

WASHINGTON, June 4.—The cabinet officers, after the meeting, today, say that no appointment has yet been made to fill the vacancy in the office of Secretary of State. Senator Gray, of Delaware, came over from Wilmington today and went directly to the White House. It was thought his visit had connection with the vacant cabinet office. Gray was the most earnest champion of the administration in the senate, and as a member of the committee on Foreign Relations, has become familiar with the duties of secretary of state.

Great Heat in East.

PITTSBURGH, June 4.—The hot waves continue without sign of abatement. As noon the mercury reached 95 in the shade, the highest point yet touched at that hour. There were many additional prostrations but only one death up to 1 o'clock.

THE NEXT SECRETARY

To Succeed Walter Q. Gresham in the Cabinet.

IT WILL BE RICHARD OLNEY.

The Attorney-General to Be Made Secretary of State.

NEW YORK, June 4.—A special to a local paper from Washington says: The Hon. Richard Olney, of Mass., the attorney-general of the United States, will be the successor to the late W. Q. Gresham, in the office of secretary of state. It has not been determined who will be chosen to fill the vacancy in the attorney-generalship caused by Mr. Olney's transfer. The Hon. Edwin Uhl, of Mich., continues assistant secretary of state.

There has been much speculation in Washington as to who would be Gresham's successor. The death of the late secretary was unexpected, and it is doubtful if Mr. Cleveland ever permitted himself to think of a possible successor. When the reality of General Gresham's death came upon the president he was stunned.

It was not until late last night that executive consideration was given the subject of filling the vacancy. Secretary Carlisle and Secretary Lamont were invited to the White House after the president's arrival there from Woodly. There is reason to believe that the president conferred with the two secretaries named upon the subject of the succession in the state department.

Olney Will Get It.

WASHINGTON, June 4.—There is no longer any reasonable doubt but that the president was fully determined to ask Attorney General Olney to accept the state department follo. There is a report current that the office of attorney general will be tended to Don. M. Dickinson.

Death Saved Him.

OAKLAND, June 4.—Ex-Senator L. W. Buck, injured by being thrown from a cart Saturday, while driving to conference with the chief of police, being under arrest for the murder of his friend, Miss Nellie Harrington, died this morning.

Very Bad Business.

WHEELING, W. Va., June 4.—Five hundred striking miners from Dillonville attacked the non-union men of the Gaylor coal company's works which resumed this morning, and beat twenty terribly. One will die.

Peace With Spain.

WASHINGTON, June 4.—Allanous incident was closed today by the receipt of Spain's final answer, which is entirely satisfactory to this government.

Oscar Wilde Crazy.

LONDON, June 4.—It is reported that Oscar Wilde has become insane in prison.

THE MARKETS.

CHICAGO, June 4.—Wheat, cash 75; July 77.

PORTLAND, June 4.—Wheat Valley 54; Walls Wells 51 @ 52.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 4.—Wheat, 52; Lead, $1.07.

A High Feast. Without doubt the musical event that entertained society most last week was the concert given by the students of Stanford and University of California at Schen's auditorium on Friday evening. The concert was well attended, there being no vacant seats in the entire building. All society turned out to greet this clever combination and were well rewarded.—San Francisco Examiner, March 31, 1895.

Brandon & Co. have, so far, led the berry trade, especially on quality, and they do not take a back seat on other lines of goods. Family groceries are their lust, and every customer goes away well pleased.

Justice to the Boys.

SALEM, Or., June 4. ED. JOURNAL.—After the burning of Mrs. Baker's barn the Statesman implicated Johnny Patterson. When we heard of it and looked it up and saw the parties they agreed to correct the statement which they so far, have failed to do. I wish the public to know that neither Johnny nor little George were in that part of the city at the time the fire must have been kindled and set. George came home from the East school that evening in company with boys older than himself and played on State street until after the fire was extinguished. The parties who have made these false statements about the children were strangers to me before the fire. I wish to state that after seeing and hearing of them what I have, so far as taking their word without further evidence, I would take the children's still farther. My children have no acquaintances over there and have never been in that part of the city.

MRS. JOHN PATTERSON.

At Albany.

Shakespeare would not have complained at the splendid treatment he received at the hands of the Ladies Auxiliary yesterday afternoon. A large number were present at the Y. M. C. A. rooms to do honor to the immortal William. Dr. Mrs. Beers read a bright biographical sketch of Shakespeare; Miss Lucy Gard gave the soliloquy on sleep in Henry IV. Mrs. C. F. Howland presented an estimate of Shakespeare's literary work from a recent lecture. The court scene from the Merchant of Venice was presented with splendid effect by Mrs. L. E. Hamilton as Portia, Miss Alice Porter, Shylock, Miss Flora Mason as Antoula and Miss Olga Hewitt as Bassanio. The program closed with every one present giving a quotation from the author.—Albany Democrat.

Insane Asylum Report.

THE ONE CENT DAILY.

THE DAILY JOURNAL by mail is distinctively the Farmers' Daily. At $3 a year any farmer living within reach of a stage line can have the DAILY JOURNAL delivered to him by mail daily and all his other mail, for 50 cts. per quarter of three months. That makes THE ONE CENT DAILY cost you $5 a year and all your other mail free.

That is still $1 less than any Associated Press daily in the state. Farmers, let the light of a daily mail with the outside world, shine in upon your homes.

Blames the Legislature.

The difficulties of conducting an office for which no appropriation has been made is now being experienced by State Land Agent T. W. Davenport. Mr. Davenport has had printed and will send out to those portions of the state where unclaimed lands are supposed to lie, large posters, addressed "To the People of Oregon." These circulars charge the last legislature with failure to appropriate money for the selection of lands in lieu of the 16th and 35th sections of the forest reserve, and Mr. Davenport anticipates that within the next two years the best land that is now available will be taken under homestead and timber-land acts. He appeals to the patriotism of those who have knowledge of such lands to forward a description of the same. There remains an obstacle to the state acquiring lands after the selections have been made. A fee of $2 for every quarter section is required to list lands in the United States land office, and, unless the board of land commissioners will assume a legislative function and find money for this purpose, the work of selecting the lands is effectually blocked.

Brownell and the Ministers.

Oregon City held a good-citizenship meeting the other day, and cards were signed by a large number and returned to the chairman to enable him to determine how many voters are in favor of good government. The card contains the following pledge: "The undersigned hereby declares that he holds no man to be fit for public office who is not free from dissipated or immoral habits and not unmistakably committed to order and morality, and is of unimpeachable personal character." Hon. George C. Brownell, state senator from Clackamas county, made a speech at the meeting, which was presided over by the president of the local ministerial association. The fact that a man of high standing and good moral character like Senator Brownell, takes an interest in the success of the movement.—Portland Sun.

College Will Be Here.

The Oregon State Agricultural College will send a display of flowers to the Salem Rose Show.

Prof. Geo. Coote, of the department of horticulture, says, in a letter received this afternoon:

"We have decided to send you a collection of cut flowers. That will make a good display. I am sorry to say that I shall not be able to come down. My assistant has taken sick. I will do all I can for you. If I send flowers on Friday noon train, will they be early enough? Let me know."

Married.

BURFORD—CALLICOTT.—At the home of the bride's parents, June 4, 1895, Miss Katie Burford, of Salem, to Mr. J. G. Callicott, of Mississippi; Rev. H. A. Danton of the Christian church, officiating. The ceremony was witnessed by the bride's family. The bride is the highly esteemed daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Burford, and has been for some time a teacher of the Woodburn schools. Mr. Callicott arrived on the morning overland from his home, and took his bride with him on the 1:30 local for Portland. They will take the southern Pacific train for home Wednesday evening.

New Incorporations.

Articles were filed today with the secretary of state, as follows:
California Co-operative Sewing and Lumbering Co.; stock, $10,000; A. B. Dimmock, F. Distenbacher, W. H. Leonard, incorporators.
The Sulphur Gold and Silver Mining Co. of Alaska and the Island of Malakka; stock, $200,000; J. H. Mitchell, Dak Emmons and Hiram E. Mitchell, incorporators.
