DO THE VETERANS JUSTICE.
Loehren's Fee-Grabbing Scheme and the Insult to Soldiers he has Robbed.
Washington special: Commissioner of pensions Loehren in his annual report recommends the creation of a civil pension list. He believes the old clerks in the government service should be pensioned, when they become unable to perform clerical duty. This recommendation will receive no endorsement from the people. The clerks in the government offices receive salaries ranging from $720 to $1,800 per annum. The higher salaried officials are outside of the civil service classification. The plain people will not endorse a proposition to pay pensions to people who have drawn salaries for years, which are away above the incomes earned by our working men and women in private life. The majority of these clerks receive $1200 each per annum. All who have been in office ten years or more receive that much compensation. A man or a woman who draws $100 per month ought not to need a pension in old age; because, with ordinary care and economy, money can be saved and a home provided for the rainy day that comes to all.

The people would rather have received from Commissioner Loehren a recommendation for liberal and at least decent treatment of the veterans of the civil war. The people have never objected to granting pensions to the old soldiers who saved this Republic from Democratic riot, rebellion and anarchy. The people would have said amen to a recommendation for liberal appropriations for the veterans. But, the commissioner of pensions has made no such recommendation. The Democratic administration has no love for the old soldiers. On the contrary they have been persecuted and hounded by investigations, snap judgments and decrease in their allowance.

With the aid of thousands of fools in the northern states, those southern Democrats have captured the government which they failed to destroy; and they have assailed the Union veterans at every point since Cleveland was inaugurated. But things are different now. The people of the north have suffered for their folly, and they will not again endorse the party of retrogression, rebellion and sectional hatred. Forgiveness is a good thing. It is cardinal Christian virtue; but it was wasted on traitors.

We do not need a civil pension list, and we will not have it. We do need a soldier pension list, and we will pay taxes with cheerful minds and liberal hands, in order that the boys in blue in their old age shall not suffer. In a speech at Keokuk in October, 1885, three months before his death, General Logan said: "When our boys marched past the capitol building in grand review in May, 1865, we read upon a large banner, in large letters, on the south front of the marble building: The country will never forget and can never repay its debt of gratitude to the Union soldiers." General Logan said that only twenty years had passed away, and yet the Democrats of the North have already forgotten the debt, while the Democrats of the South were determined that that debt should never be paid. But the sons of veterans are now doing some voting and party managing in northern states, and they will see to it that their fathers are cared for, respected, honored and rewarded at least in some degree, by the country which owes them so much.

No Mr. Commissioner, we do not need and we will not have a civil pension list. But we will have a Republican administration, and a Republican congress, and we will take care of our military pension list as honorable and patriotic citizens ought to do. We will have a Republican commissioner of pensions, and he will not fret his gizzard about a civil pension list. He will look after Union veterans and their worthy dependents.

Mrs. Buffum, an Oregon pioneer of 1845, died at Amity, Or., November 3. She was born in Ohio in 1813, being in her 82nd year at the time of her death. Her husband, Wm. G. Buffum, to whom she was married in 1828, survives her, being now in his 92nd year. The aged couple have always been of a kind and hospitable disposition toward all in need of charity and were universally beloved.

THE SANTIAM MINES.
Profitable and Successful Mining Industry at Quartzville.
Hank Smith, the veteran mining man, known throughout the Northwest as thoroughly posted on the value of mines, now superintendent of the Santiam mines at Quartzville, under the management of Mr. W. B. Lawler, returned to Quartzville yesterday after a stay of a few days in Albany. He did not wish to be interviewed at present on the outlook of these mines. The company is just getting their new mining machinery taken into the mines, and are laying in supplies for the winter. It was to look after this business personally that Mr. Smith was here. They expect to have their big quartz mill in readiness for operation by the time snow flies, and then some developments in the Santiam mines may be looked for which will astonish those who have been skeptical as to their real value.

About 100 men are at work there now, and work will be continued all winter. The representatives of the syndicate which has recently taken hold of these mines are not saying much, but they are expending many thousands of dollars in preparing for the systematic working of the mines.

Every indication points to gratifying results, and the belief that a profitable and successful mining industry will soon be an accomplished fact at Quartzville.—Albany Herald.

VALLEY LOCAL NEWS.
North Howell Prairie.
Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Stevens visited Portland and the exposition not long since.

Dr. Jessup has been summoned to the home of Mr. and Mrs. B. Welsner, wait on their daughter, Miss Ofa, who is very sick with typhoid fever.

Miss Sadie Dyer has been visiting for some time with her sister, Mrs. Cline, of Portland, and has visited the exposition during her stay.

Mrs. T. J. Clark, of the Kaiser neighborhood, in company with her daughter, Myrtle, spent a part of last Saturday and Sunday visiting with Mrs. W. Keater and Mary Swegle.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Melvain, who formerly had charge of the California bakery at Salem, are living in this neighborhood at present.

Public school has been in session for two weeks. The building has been enlarged, and will accommodate 60 or more pupils. There is quite a large class of older pupils in attendance, and with two teachers in charge, the North Howell school takes on a look of educational activity and begin's the year's work with a promise of more than usual advancement.

Not long since two wagons rolled out of this place with camping utensils and fixtures for a number of hunters under the guidance and leadership of Wilmot Keater and Willard Jefferson. The party were bound for the head waters of the Molalla, where they succeeded in gratifying their desires for shooting deer as well as for climbing the zigzag slopes of the primeval Cascades. The author of these lines was remembered in a share of the spoils on their return although he did not have the pleasure of being with them on the journey. His thanks hitherto unexpressed are hereby tendered to the generous company.

and those about to become mothers, should know that Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription robs childbirth of its torture, terrors and dangers to both mother and child, by aiding Nature in preparing the system for parturition. Thereby "labor" and also the period of confinement are greatly shortened. It also promotes an abundant secretion of nourishment for the child. During pregnancy, it prevents "morning sickness" and those distressing nervous symptoms from which so many suffer.

A MOTHER'S EXPERIENCE.
Mrs. W. C. Baker, Buffalo, N. Y.
"Dear Sir—I began taking your 'Favorite Prescription' the first month of pregnancy, and have continued taking it since confinement. I did not experience the nausea or any of the ailments due to pregnancy, after I began taking your 'Prescription.' I was only in labor a short time, and the physician said I got along unusually well. We think it saved me a great deal of suffering. I was troubled a great deal with hemorrhage also, and it has done a world of good for me. Yours truly, MRS. W. C. BAKER."
