WILLAMETTE UNIVERSITY.

Social Events and Personals Noted by a Student.

Rev. G. W. Granis was a chapel visitor Monday morning.

Phil Metelhan Jr. returned to school Monday morning after a week's absence on account of the little mishap that befell him two weeks since. Phil is a great friend of the students who welcomed him into their midst again.

Harry Olinger returned to school again this week having been absent for about two weeks owing to a sprained ankle. He is now able to navigate without the assistance of a cane.

C. J. Atwood favored the students and faculty with an oration in chapel Monday morning, entitled "Daniel O'Connell." The character and life of the great anti-slavery orator were ably presented to the audience by William ette's successful young elocutionist.

The social and reception tendered the State university football team, of Eugene at the society hall last Saturday night, was equally enjoyed by the defeated as well as the victors. President Hawley, in a few brief remarks, made the visiting team welcome which was responded by Prof. Wetherbee in behalf of the Eugene team. The recitations by Miss Ethel Hughes and Miss Mabel Carter were nicely given as was also the vocal solo by Miss Adda Davenport. Clinton R. Morse, Willamette's most popular coach, favored the assembly with one of his beautiful vocal solos, in which his rich tenor voice was at its best. About 10:30 the Eugene boys had to proceed to the depot in order to take the 11 o'clock south bound overland for home. The event will be long remembered by those who were present.

Miss Edna Knight was a chapel visitor Tuesday morning.

Tuesday morning Miss Pearl Apple-gate read an essay in chapel entitled "The Face" It was an able production and was ably delivered.

Pupils entering the university since November 1st, are: Arthur J. Wilson, Mable Crighton, Adda L. Davenport, Don W. Truitt, Ed. R. Carter, R. W. Holman, Luke L. Lynn and Ethel Frizzell. There are at present over 600 pupils registered in all the different departments of the Willamette university which is the largest number of pupils enrolled at one time in the history of the school. There are over 400 pupils alone registered in the musical department under the efficient management of Prof. Heritage and Winkler. The literary department of "Old Willamette" has an enrollment of 162.

The boys play football on the campus every afternoon, commencing at 4:15 o'clock, to which the public is cordially invited. These practice games are quite interesting and tend to strengthen Willamette football team in every respect.

Miss Josie Balsley recited a beautiful selection in chapel Wednesday morning.

Floyd Field and sister Miss Hatlie left Tuesday morning for Braintree, Mass to attend school.

Rev. Jno. Parsons, financial agent of the University, and Miss Ethel Hughes were chapel visitors Wednesday morning.

RECORD OF CRIME.

Chicago Police Have Found Another Holmes.

CHICAGO, Nov. 7 - A special from Rockford, Ill., says: The police believe they have unearthed another Holmes in John C. Bennett, who was sent to Joliet from here for stealing a watch at the Huffman house. Bennett pleaded guilty and threw himself on the mercy of the court. He is 60 years old and apparently in the last stages of consumption.

Since he was escorted to Joliet a few days ago, his wife, Mrs. S. J. Snyder, of Boyd, Ill., has been heard from. In a letter to the chief of police here she says Bennett when a young man murdered his wife in England and escaped to this country. He went to the copper mines of Michigan and from there to Galena, Ill., where he was married to a woman who was possessed of some property. She was shot at through the windows of her home, and several accused Bennett of trying to kill her. He is alleged to have caused the death of his own two babies, and the wife, who dared not tell his infamy for fear of being killed, obtained a divorce and went to Helena, Mont., where she died a few months ago.

Bennet then married Mrs. Emma Stevenson, of Galena. He had been married to her four months when he made an attempt on the life of his wife. She escaped from a window one night and caused his arrest and conviction for burglary, the stolen goods being found in the cellar. He was sent to Joliet for three years on this charge.

On his release he went to Lockport, Ill., where he married Mrs. Sarah Price, a woman of considerable means. Shortly after the wedding the son of his bride escorted Bennett out of the city with a shotgun, and he was not heard from until identified with a gang of Chicago sand-baggers. He was suspected of being implicated in the death of Miss Amelia Olsen, fastened upon him.

He next went to Rock Island, Ill., where he served a long sentence in 1888. On his release he went across to Davenport, Ia., where he was caught in the act of highway robbery and sent to the Anamosa penitentiary for six months.

In Union county, Illinois, after his release, he married another rich widow, now known as Mrs. Snyder. The latter says Bennett talked in his sleep and disclosed a plan for murdering her and that upon being aware that his secret was found out he attempted to kill her. He was sent to Chester for a term of seven years, and had been released but a few months when captured in Rockford.
