M. P. BALDWIN,

Agent, Salem.

From Quartzville.

S. Annet of Rosedale returned from Quartzville today. He has been in there since Tuesday, and reports times lively there and at Gates. The latter town is building up very fast. A new road has been surveyed from Gates to the Silver Dollar mine. A petition will be in the county court to open the road. He says they make a clean-up at the Lawler mine every 24 hours, and at the rate of $50 a ton, and grind 60 tons of quartz a day. Another mill will go up on Canal creek when Lawler returns.

Justice Court.

Mr. Krebs has brought suit against Phil Neis & Co. for $43.80 commission money. Owing to absence of part of the witnesses the case was continued until Saturday before Justice H. A. Johnson, Jr. However the testimony of several witnesses were taken. W. H. Holmes appeared for the defendant and P. H. D'Arcy for the plaintiff.

A NEW PAPER.—"The Modern Student" is the name of a neat little quarto paper published in Salem by Murray L. Wade. The editor, it seems, is an artist not with the brush alone, but in the world of letters as well. He will make the Modern Student an organ of the schools, and hopes to make it a medium of information between the teachers and parents.

THAT GREEN FLAG.—The green streamer that floated from the Willamette university flag staff last Tuesday has caused considerable comment. It has since been learned that some members of the sophomore class hoisted the flag without the knowledge of the faculty. President Hawley did not discover the flag until the day following, otherwise it should not have been hoisted.

CAME FROM MILWAUKEE.—One of the finest table delicacies known is Savelaine summer sausage, superior to anything of its kind. If you would try it, call at Sonnenmann's State street grocery, the only place where it is kept in Salem.

Orchestral concert tomorrow night Mrs. McDowell and other skilled vocalists will sing. Miss Ethel Hughes will recite. Come early the opening overture will be worth the entire admission.

A NEAT LUMP.—County Treasurer Jap Minto today received a check for $7866.73, in payment of the Oregon Pacific railway taxes for 1899-1902-93. This is a good lift, and will pay a large list of stamped warrants.

FREE LECTURE.—Rev. F. W. Fisher, the missionary, who has recently returned from Japan will deliver a free lecture on Japan at the East Salem Evangelical church tonight. All are invited.

SECRET SERVICE.—Prompt delivery of notes and packages. Lockwood Messenger System. Blue boxes or telephone 40.

GOOD OATS.—The farmers are getting 20 cents a bushel for good oats at Salem.

OLD MANURE.—And plenty of it. Salem Truck & Dray Co. 3-16-31*

REARSLLEY-READ WEDDINGS.

Sunday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock occurred the marriage of Miss Jessie M. Beardsley to John J. Read, both of Salem. The ceremony was performed by Rev. P. S. Knight, at the home of Mrs. S. J. Woodruff, and in the presence of only a few relatives and friends. The parlor had been beautifully decorated in Oregon grape and floral tributes by the young lady friends. The bride was dressed in a handsome traveling costume and the groom in conventional black. All present concurred in the belief that they were one of the handsomest couples ever wedded in Salem, as well as one of the most deserving. After hearty congratulations by those present and best wishes for a pleasant journey, the contracting parties took the afternoon train for a short visit in Portland and points north. Upon their return they will take up their home in Salem. The bride is a native of Salem and known to hosts of friends as an exceptionally bright young woman. After holding business positions of trust, she has during the past year most acceptably performed the duties of local and society reporter on the CAPITAL JOURNAL. Her literary work in addition to this has made her known to thousands of readers, and given her a warm place in their esteem. The groom, whose former home was at Spokane, holds the responsible position of traveling salesman for the Salem woolen mills, and has charge of pushing their extensive business into all the Pacific coast states.

Those present at the wedding were: Mr. and Mrs. O. P. Beardsley, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin L. Smith, of Silverton, (uncle and aunt) Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Bishop, Mr. and Mrs. E. Hofer, Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Hofer, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Chamberlain, Mrs. S. J. Woodruff, Mrs. D. F. Wagner, Misses Alice and Rose Woodruff, M. E. Sperry, Lucy Williams, Gertrude Roberts, Elma Weller, Beatrice Shelton, Cora Littlefield and Adda Davenport; Messrs. Will Babcock, J. M. Woodruff, Carey Martin and Chas. Weller.

Many fine presents were received. Tomorrow night the grand concert at the Baptist church. Don't fail to attend. The opening overture will be worth the price charged for admission.

The U. S. Gov't Reports show Royal Baking Powder superior to all others.

REPUBLICANS GATHER

The County Convention Is Almost Assembled

IN STREETS AND LOBBIES

Meets In Reed's Opera House on Tuesday at 10 a. m.

The Marion county Republican convention meets at Reed's opera house, Tuesday, March 24, at 10 a. m. E. M. Croisan, chairman of the Marion county Republican central committee, will call to order, and is a candidate for temporary chairman. F. B. Meridith is secretary of the committee. Out of 247 delegates from 36 precincts it will take 127 delegates to nominate a candidate.

AMONG THE CANDIDATES.

The Woodburn delegation of 13 members arrived at 11 a. m. and took up headquarters at Hotel Willamette. Assessor is an office that is not going begging. Bent Patton, of Macleay, Chas. Strain, of Abiqua, Phil Fetz, J. A. Van Eaton and W. T. Rigdon of Salem, M. J. Courier and Ben Gesner of East Salem, Wesley Smith, of Turner, Chas. Cannon, of Yew Park, J. W. Hobart, of Garfield, Wm. Hilleary, of Turner, and L. Hobson, of Stayton.

Samuel Kerr, of St. Paul, is one of the candidates from the north end of the county. He is out for county commissioner and will develop considerable strength. He is after a very undesirable but very important office to the farmers.

Webb Smith, of Howell, is mentioned for county commissioner. He is said to have the solid support of J. Frank Anderson's precinct. That gentleman wishes to succeed himself, and has a good following in the county among the men who want their tax receipt to show just as small an amount as possible.

Elder Barkley and Wm. Waldo are named as Mitchell men for chairman of the convention. Either would make a good presiding officer.

McKinley Mitchell has made a pronounced fight for John H. Mitchell for United States senator. He has been with him in adversity and in prosperity, and is with him now as in the past. He is a man of positive views and not afraid to state them in the most public manner. He has been fought by the bosses in the past and they have no love for him now but he will get there just the same.

W. T. Grimm, better known as "Will" Grimm, of Hubbard, is a leading candidate for county judge. He served as county commissioner acceptably and faithfully from 1888 to 1892. Mr. Grimm is a native son of Marion county, born in 1850, one of the first white children born in Oregon. He is a farmer and taxpayer, and an enterprising man in his town.

Green B. Cornelius, of Turner, is mentioned as one of the legislative possibilities. It is proposed by some of J. S. Graham's friends that he is as much entitled to a third term as D. W. Yoder. Both hail from the same region.

The Discovery Saved His Life

Mr. G. C. Caillotte, Druggist, Beaverville, Ill., says: "To Dr. King's New Discovery I owe my life. Was taken with La Grippe and tried all the physicians for miles about, but of no avail and was given up and told I could not live. Having Dr. King's New Discovery in my store I sent for a bottle and began its use and from the first dose began to get better and after using three bottles was up and about again. It is worth its weight in gold. We won't keep store or house without it." Get a free trial at Fred A. Legg's Drug Store.

Linn County Politics.

EDITOR JOURNAL.—Thinking likely the readers of your paper would like to hear how politics in this part of Oregon is moving along, I will try and give you a few items. Candidates for most all of the county offices on the Republican ticket are numerous and we expect a hot fight in the convention. The Republican county convention will be held April 2, and 215 delegates will compose the convention. There are only a few names mentioned for representatives, and much concern is felt as to how most of them feel toward the reelection of Mitchell for senator.

This is a very important question and the people should watch very closely or there will be jobs put up by the schemers to defeat their will and wish.

The ring proposition says, don't bring up the senatorial question in this campaign, as it might divide the party, and at the same time they are using their utmost endeavors to get men on the ticket who will work directly against the will of the people.

We, of Linn county, want men who will stand firm against all rings and cliques, and work for the interest of the majority at all times. There is a fair show of the entire Republican

Thousands of farmers from all over this state have learned that FRY'S SQUIRREL POISON at 25 cents is as good or better than more expensive foreign brands of uncertain strength. ticket being elected in this county, if there is harmonious action. But if harmony does not prevail there may be a chance for defeat. The Populists have put up a weak ticket which cannot be elected only by a large majority which they have not got. I know of very few gains they have made and I think their losses are quite heavy in many places. The Democrats are trying to get up a little enthusiasm, but it grows very slowly.

Many of them feel exceedingly blue over their prospects of success.

Linn county wants Hermann re-nominated for congress, as we have no one who is aspiring for that position. We expect a large crowd in Albany on the day of the district convention, and there is likely to be quite a strong pull made by the many aspirants for that honorable position.

All but one are doomed to defeat, and we hope will be manly and work for the success of the Republican ticket.
