THE SIMON DOWNFALL.

The Republican state convention, following the first and second district conventions, were both direct slaps at the Dolph-Simon faction. Tongue triumphed at Albany, Fulton in the second district and Judge Carey at the state convention. From the primaries to the state convention the battle has raged within the party for the control of the party machinery and the Dolph-Simon faction that has held sway for twenty years has gone down before the newer and better blood of the party every time. Indeed much of the best blood in the Republican party of Oregon has allied itself with the new deal element.

While Mr. Simon has been the central figure in the ring constellation, their stars have set to rise no more. It is the decree of the rank and file of the Republican party that cleaner methods prevail and that the party extricate itself from the degrading influences of bossism and corrupt centralization of power at Portland in the hands of a few men. The party is going to be big enough to hold all classes in its ranks and admit not alone a select circle with a peculiar type of circumcision to its councils. The next legislature will not waste the people's time combatting a corrupt ring, but will be able to attend to the people's business because the people have now attended to their own business and made reforms possible.

Mr. Simon will never regain his standing, prestige and influence with the Republicans of Oregon. He will probably break his vengeance on the party as he has done in the past, by defeating part of the ticket; but that game is nearly blocked. A straight Mitchell legislative ticket and an anti-Simon, anti-Dolph ticket will be named at Portland, and it will be elected. Three-fourths of the Republicans and seven-eighths of the people are behind the anti-Dolph-Simon movement that was started in the last legislature, and that is now bearing fruit all over the state. The day of better politics and better men has arrived in Oregon. The day of bossism and private party plunder is about over.

WHEN THE WAR IS OVER.

[BY A BYSTANDER]
Farewell, Dolph and Simon.

Jo Simon got the double shake.
General George H. Williams is a peach.
T. T. Geer's loyalty has won him recognition at last.

The Oregonian is not running the Republican party.

Harvey Scott has profound editorial silence on state politics.

The Republican platform is the one Mr. Dolph did not stand upon.

Harvey Scott did not write the Oregonian platform this time.

Mr. Hermann and his friends will be found solidly supporting Tom Tongue.

The "tariff for revenue only" is the weak spot of the Democratic state platform.

Isn't it about time for intelligent people to quit taking that lying sheet, the Oregonian?

Tom Tongue is a McKinley tariff man, and McKinley seems to be a Tom Tongue silver man.

Claud Gatch had the courage of his convictions on the money question, against free coinage.

The platform of 1892 is good enough. It endorses the principle of bi-metalism against one-metalism.

The little $800,000 loss is no more. In the next Senate he will next time take his seat on the floor.

Charley Fulton and Tom Tongue deserve the thanks of the state for helping down the Simon faction.

The Statesman claims it was on only one side of the congressional fight. It didn't try to spring a dark horse?

The Marion delegation stood fully two thirds, if not more for Charley Fulton and condemnation of the rotten primaries.

The Marion delegation at the Republican state convention voted almost solidly against the Simon-Scott-Dolph delegation.

Tom Bruce was one of the hardest workers at the Republican state convention, against seating the Simon-Dolph faction.

Dairymple, of Albany, pop. Carson, of Salem, rep. Hayden, of Salem, Dem., are the three candidates for district attorney.

For chairman of the state central committee—Hon Sol Hirsch of Portland—anti-Dolph, anti-Simon, and for John H. Mitchell.

The friends of Phil Metschan and Chas. Fulton were already talking up their favorites for governor at the state convention.

Rev. Chas. Collin and wife will preach at a Salem church Sunday. That is right. If a minister has a wife he should take her with him.

It was another nail in the coffin of the Simon Dolph combination and Fulton drove it home and was the hero of the hour. Charley Fulton will yet be Governor.

Judge William Waldo says he voted "yes" on seating the anti-Simon delegates on equal terms with the Simon delegates; and he did right.

For the first time in the history of the state the Multnomah delegation did not run the state convention. The two factions simply sat opposite each other and said nothing.

Judge Mallory continued so long after he was through that no one could remember what he had said at the beginning. He tired the delegates all out of voting for him.

"As you all know, I am out of politics," said General Williams, when his name was proposed for delegate-at-large. The Simon delegates thought he was decidedly in it.

Mr. Mallory of Dolph, Simon and Mallory had the temerity to slur Burke Brown and Ellis in his speech on the Portland primaries. Of course he reads nothing but the Oregonian.

It is understood Gatch of Marion and Dawson of Lion came near submitting a fourth report favoring throwing out both Multnomah delegations. As it was they supported the majority report for Simon's.

Charley Fulton made a noble stand for purity of the ballot and against corrupt politics, in his speech against seating the Simon delegation; and he carried the convention with him two to one.

In 1890 the lower house of the Oregon legislature had only two lady clerks. The plan of employing all the surplus population of the state about the legislature had not yet then been originated.

Mayor Gatch of Salem, who was a member of the committee on credentials, is reported to have said: "It was an awful dirty mess, those Portland primaries. If I had it to do over again I would sign a report to throw out both delegations."

"What county is he from?" asked Judge Williams, when Lawyer Mallory arose to speak for the Simon delegates at Portland. The convention had refused to hear him as a contestant, and he then asked to be heard on a proxy from Grant county. It raised a hard laugh at the expense of the Simonites.

After going almost crazy getting up "sound money" resolutions for the Oregonian, and running his legs off for the old ring, Max Pracht got wild at last for being left off the ticket for delegate-at-large. He was in a towering rage, and fiercely said: "Senator Dolph, you've got me to fight from this on. This turning of me down is a cold-blooded outrage. Jo Simon, you've not got through with me yet." Dolph and Simon are to be forgiven many sins if they really sat on Pracht.

In the caucus of Multnomah's divided delegates, the following colloquy took place:
Jo. Simon—We cast 23 votes for Harvey Scott.
D. P. Thompson—We cast 23 votes for Sol Hirsch.

Gen. Williams—How do you vote, Mr. Hirsch?
Mr. Hirsch—I leave the decision to the chairman.

Gen. Williams—As he wags on both tickets, I vote for Sol Hirsch!

Ten ballots were taken on the third judicial district prosecuting attorneyship at the Republican state convention. On the first ballot it stood McCain 21, Wyatt 10, Carson 18; 23 to elect. Second ballot, Wyatt 10, McCain 21, Carson 18. Third, McCain 21, Wyatt 11, Carson 17. Fourth, McCain 21, Wyatt 10, Carson 18. Fifth, McCain 20, Wyatt 10, Carson 20. Sixth, McCain 20, Wyatt 8, Carson 20. Seventh, McCain 19, Wyatt 8, Carson 21. Eighth, Wyatt 10, McCain 16, Carson 23. Ninth, McCain 15, Wyatt 10, Carson 23. Tenth, Wyatt 1, McCain 15, Carson 31. Carson had the solid support of Marion county and conducted a clean canvass against able opponents.

In 1880 Z. F. Moody was speaker and T. T. Geer was a member. The sessions were held in the room now used for the state library. The legislature met in September, when the weather was warm. There was only one lobbyist in attendance and he put in most of his time lying stretched on the wooden benches at the rear of the members seats listening closely to what was said. His name was J. N. Dolph. It was in that legislature a gag law was passed to shut off the endless talking of one of the members who then got off the following conundrum: What was the difference between the legislature and God Almighty? The answer was, it took the legislature to gag him but God Almighty had gagged the rest of them. They couldn't talk five minutes to save their lives.

SAY! mister! you've dropped your BattleAx PLUG

The largest piece of GOOD tobacco ever sold for 10 cents

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease, and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, proved catarrh to be a constitutional disease, and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a tablespoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer $100 for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials. Address, F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O. Sold by Druggists, 75 cents.
