DELIGHTFUL BOAT RIDE.

Another one of those enjoyable boating parties was given on the Willamette last evening. The little Alice A had been chartered and carried the party to Independence leaving Salem at 7 o'clock. The upper river city was reached about 10 o'clock and after a short stop the party left on the return trip, reaching Salem at midnight. Those forming the party were: Misses Cora Litchfield, Bessie Shepard, Bessie Burkhardt, Bertha Jones, Laura Whitman, Roxie Thompson, Minnie Ireton, Gertrude Stahley, Marguerite Alderson, Lou Starrett, Ella McNary, Olive Curran, Margaret Lockley, and Messrs G. W. Aschenbrenner, J. G. Callison, G. C. Miller, I. P. Callison, Louis Smieck of Albany, Roy Ohmart, W. J. Shepard, Rex Davis, P. L. Brown, A. F. Bittner, Fred Emmett of McCoy, R. B. Wilkins, C. J. Atwood.

AN EXPLANATION.

On Monday morning I was informed the Methodist church had been offered for all the exercises of the week excepting the musical alumni which was assigned the university chapel. Feeling anxious about pianos (our program demanding two) I saw the president in regard to the matter. He said he thought there would be one piano in the chapel, but was not certain. Tuesday morning I saw the financial agent and he agreed to see what could be done. I told him I must know that evening. I received no information whatever from them, when our program was withdrawn. Wednesday morning at the close of the exercises the president announced that "time was certain though place was still uncertain" for the entertainment of the musical alumni, but that he believed the church or chapel was open to them. I, president of the alumni, have not been tendered the use of the church.

MRS. J. R. SHARP, Pres.

MARRIED.

FORREST-BOWERSOX. - At the home of the bride's parents, Mrs. J. J. B. Forrest, at Hillcrest, near Wheatland, at 8 o'clock, Wednesday, June 24, 1896, Miss Acta Forrest, to Mr. A. W. Bowersox of Corvallis, Rev. C. C. Poling of Portland officiating.

The house was decorated throughout with the most beautiful flowers and the choicest ferns. The ceremony was performed in a most impressive manner by Rev. C. C. Poling of Portland, the happy couple standing beneath a large bell, formed of lovely roses and wild bellflowers. Master Merle Forrest acted as page, and little Edene Briedewell was maid of honor. The bride wore a beautiful cream satin dress, with laces and ribbons to match, and carried a bouquet of white roses. The bridegroom wore the conventional black.

The bride is the accomplished daughter of J. B. Forrest, a highly respected farmer of Polk county. The bridegroom is the second son of Rev. and Mrs. J. Bowersox of this city. He is a trustworthy employe in Benton county Flouring mills of Corvallis, being bookkeeper of that enterprise. The newly wedded couple will reside in Corvallis.

A great many beautiful and valuable presents were received. At the conclusion of the ceremony, the party repaired to the lawn, where a delicious wedding supper was partaken of.

Those present at the wedding were: Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Bowersox, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Forrest, Rev. and Mrs. J. Bowersox, Rev. and Mrs. C. C. Poling of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Allen of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. Hendricks of Amity, Mr. and Mrs. Briedewell of McMinnville, Mr. and Mrs. Watt of Amity, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis of Lafayette, Mr. and Mrs. Parvin of Salem, Mr. and Mrs. Ball of Wheatland, Mr. and Mrs. Gilkey and Mr. and Mrs. Clemens of Dayton, Mr. and Mrs. Michiel of Wheatland, Misses Ella Hendricks of Amity, Bessie Michiel of Wheatland, Miss Howe of Dallas, Messrs. Fred. R. Bowersox of Salem and Daniel Michiel of Wheatland.

BROWN-SAVAGE. - At the residence of Mr. and Mrs. John Savage Sr., on Liberty street, Salem, Or., June 25, 1896, at 1:15 p. m., Miss Sara N. Brown to Mark Savage, both of Salem.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. G. W. Grannis in the presence of the family and faculty of Willamette university. Mr. and Mrs. Savage took the boat this afternoon to Newport for a short stay. They will make their home in this city.

WINTERS-CULBERTSON. - At the home of the bride's parents, in Salem, Oregon, at 9 o'clock p. m., on Wednesday, June 24, 1896, Miss Lura E. Winters to Charles A. Culbertson; Rev. G. W. Grannis officiating.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. G. W. Grannis in the presence of the family and faculty of Willamette university. Mr. and Mrs. Savage took the boat this afternoon to Newport for a short stay. They will make their home in this city.

DAVIE-HOGAN. - In Salem, June 23, 1896, City Recorder N. Edes officiating, Miss M. E. Davie to Wm. Hogan.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. G. W. Grannis in the presence of the family and faculty of Willamette university. Mr. and Mrs. Savage took the boat this afternoon to Newport for a short stay. They will make their home in this city.

GEER-GILLAM. - At the Marion county court house, Salem, Wednesday, June 24, 1896, Miss Dolbe Geer to W. R. Gillam.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. G. W. Grannis in the presence of the family and faculty of Willamette university. Mr. and Mrs. Savage took the boat this afternoon to Newport for a short stay. They will make their home in this city.

STRAWBERRIES FOR THE EAST. - The fruit raisers about Salem today loaded a large refrigerator car with choice strawberries. The car is billed for Lincoln, Nebraska, notice of which appeared in Monday's JOURNAL. The car was attached to the north bound local this afternoon and will leave Portland tonight for the east. The outcome of this enterprise will be watched with interest since it will demonstrate whether berries can be shipped to the east with a profit to the grower.

TO FISH. - A party consisting of John Chase, E. Woodin, Dennis Flagg, August Krantz, and Clifford Fones left Wednesday for Butte creek about thirty miles from Salem, where they will fish for the next four days.

Y. M. C. A. joined the party last night, going via the bicycle route. The party will return home Saturday.

THE MYSTERY SOLVED. - The woman, who gave her baggage to Louis Reasoner, Tuesday evening, and then failed to call for it, put in an appearance late last evening, and claimed the baggage.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Address: F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O. THE STATESMAN-MCKINNEY SUIT

Details of Testimony Letters of Irvine - Case Goes to the Jury.

MCKINNEY'S TESTIMONY.

The Statesman had about 640 subscribers when quit. When it came into my hands it had about 550. Letters of Irvine were introduced offering to renew for six months, but stating that the renewal clause would be struck out. Another letter to same effect was read as notice to McKinney to quit. But he declined to quit on such terms as he had paid $550 for the routes on account of the privilege of renewal, without which he could not sell to anyone. McKinney said he went to the Statesman office with Mayor Gateh, and asked to renew contract before it had expired. Irvine offered to renew for a year, if the renewal clause could be struck out. On the 18th of May he went in again, and they refused renewal at any terms. Irvine by all his conduct acknowledged the validity of the contract between McKinney and Brown.

McKinney said he went to the Statesman and offered them there settlements. They wanted time to consider the matter, but sent him word that they could not entertain any of them. The three carriers employed by McKinney continued to go on carrying as before, with his pouches until June 20th, when they refused to give the carriers any papers. There was no complaint at his service. The price of the Statesman per month was 65 cents.

Cross ex: Had paid David for carrying papers. He was still in his employ. McKinney got papers up to the 20th—for Baker, Harrager and David and had paid them.

SOME FUN.

Hayden: As a matter of fact, you never liked this work of soliciting subscribers for the Statesman?

McKinney: I seem to like it well enough to want to hang onto it. [Laughter.]

Q. Did you ever get a single subscriber to the paper?

A. Yes! I got A. Dilley. [Laughter.]

Q. Did you not tell two carriers about January that you had not and would not canvass for subscribers?

A. I did not. I was soliciting all the time, from house to house.

Q. Were you not a delegate to the county convention?

A. I was.

Q. Did you not spend a great deal of time at Turner the past year?

A. I have not been at Turner the past year.

Q. Did you not agree to canvass half the town if Mr. Irvine would have a man canvass the other half?

A. I did but the man they hired got only twenty names and I lost money on them. They did not pay.

Juror C. P. Bishop: Did the Statesman Pub. Co. ever present a bill for anything due after May 17?

McKinney: No sir, they did not.

Q. Did the Statesman Pub. Co. acquiesce in your manner of collecting and paying your bills?

A. Always. The bills were rendered and settled by me in a satisfactory manner.

Q. How many new subscribers have you got since the 17th of May last?

A. Five or six, I think, who ordered it stopped, renewed it again. No others.

Brown: Had 640 subscribers when I turned it over to McKinney. I had 800 during the legislature of 1893.

Q. What part of the money that McKinney paid you for the route was turned over to the Statesman?

Objected to. Holmes maintained they had a right to show that the Statesman got a consideration out of them now sought to bulldoze McKinney out of it. They had a double indictment to rob McKinney of something which he made valuable.

McNary said Brown's contract was not in question. The only question here was this: Is any money due from Dilley to the Statesman.

The objection was sustained. Defense rested.

Frank Barrager: Carried papers for McKinney up to May 17.

Q. Have you been employed by him since that time?

Objected to. Overruled.

A. No. Was employed by the Statesman and paid by Irvine. Might have told McKinney I could not do liver for him, as I would lose my job. Have sued McKinney for my pay. Delivered papers to Tyler and Klein for McKinney since May 17. Admitted the same on cross examination.

Wm. Welch: Take care of papers that came out of folder. After May 17 delivered no papers to McKinney, but to Morrison, or rather to the boys under Morrison as above stated.

Barrager recalled: McKinney stated in presence of Morrison that he had not and would not solicit subscribers for the Statesman. Morrison introduced the conversation. McKinney said he would not solicit. They knew where the office was and soliciting did not pay.

Frank Morrison: Our present route agent. Was then collector and solicitor of mail route. Handed McKinney

IRVINE'S LETTERS.

Following letters were introduced in evidence and read to the jury:

SALEM, May 7, 1896.

John W. McKinney, Salem, Or:

You are hereby notified that the contract between yourself and the Statesman Publishing Co., of Salem, Or., hearing date of May 17, 1895, at its expiration will be renewed for only six months and that in the renewed contract no provision for further renewals will be inserted. This contract is the one for the delivery of the Daily Statesman newspaper to its subscribers in the city of Salem and its suburbs.

STATESMAN PUB. CO., C. B. IRVINE, Manager.

SALEM, May 16, 1896.

To John W. McKinney, Salem, Or:

This is in notification that the Statesman Publishing Co., adheres to its notice given you in writing on May 7, 1896, in relation to proposed renewal of contract for delivery of the Daily Statesman.

SALEM, May 18, 1896.

To John W. McKinney, Salem, Or:

You have failed to comply with the provisions of a certain contract (for the delivery of the Daily Statesman) between the Statesman Publishing Co. and yourself. I now under the terms of that contract demand that you this day deliver up to the above company, and to me as manager of said company, the lists of all subscribers, with their addresses, also the office keys.

C. B. IRVINE, Manager.

About 8 o'clock Wednesday evening the jury rendered a verdict for plaintiff, deciding that the Statesman was the proper party to collect subscriptions on and after May 17th.

Sure to Win.

The people recognize and appreciate real merit. That is why Hood's Sarsaparilla has the largest sales in the world. Merit in medicine means the power to cure. Hood's Sarsaparilla cures—absolutely, permanently—It is the One True Blood Purifier. Its superiority is an established fact, and merit wins.

Hood's Pills are easy to take, easy to operate. Cure indigestion, headache.

Wanted—All girls to know that "Hoe Cake" will not make their hands red like common soap. Save the wrappers. They are worth a cent apiece.

There's more clothing destroyed by poor soap than by actual wear. "Hoe Cake" soap contains no free alkali and will not injure the finest lace. Try it and notice the difference in quality. John Hughes.
