JOURNAL "X" RAYS.

Directed Upon Persons and Things by the Good Natured Man.

The Republican party has gone fishing.

E. P. McCormack reports the silver talk as less plentiful in Portland.

No one has asked Jonathan Bourne to resign for over a week. What's the matter.

A New York insurance manager says New York will go for McKinley. That settles it.

Salem may be honored with the presidency at the next Oregon senate, in the person of Hon. I. L. Patterson.

There is no question now, as to who the real calamity howlers are. They are all clamoring for the single gold standard.

The Labor Exchange ball will be the midsummer social event. Will B. J. Sharpe or R. R. Ryan lead the grand march.

Even the anarchists are for McKinley. Herr Most and Mons. Ickelheimer say his platform must prevail or the country is gone to Hades.

When the money lenders begin to withdraw loans for political purposes, possibly the depositors with whose money they are doing business, will do some withdrawing. That score won't work.

The railroads running from Washington to New York refused silver men at the Capitol City a reduced rate for a special excursion to the latter city today. The big corporations don't propose to give Bryan's cause a fair show.

Silver men must not be frightened by the threats and bull-dozing methods of the millionaire insurance syndicates. Where they control one vote the mutual farmers' insurance companies can control ten. Let the bluff go on.

The Statesman said that about 100 people attended the silver meeting at Silverton Saturday evening. This is about on a par with that paper's claim that twenty thousand attended the late McKinley ratification in Salem. Several hundred were turned away from the Silverton meeting for want of standing room. Try again.

R. G. Dun & Co., whose business it is to pry into everybody's business, and let no one know about their own, ask THE JOURNAL for a statement as usual. Here it is: We have no use for you, as you probably have no use for us. If we needed your assistance you would be against us, and we assume that you will not volunteer us and help otherwise. We discount our bills and want no credit. Your ilk call our ilk anarchists. Good-bye.

THE JOURNAL supports home industries. Its work is done by Salem people. It is printed on paper made in the Willamette valley, and the only item for which it sends money abroad is type and ink. Its money paid out for telegrams supports an extra operator in Salem. Its large eastern advertising patronage brings thousands of dollars to Salem, all of which is spent among our own business people.

Miss Bates, who has been state superintendent in North Dakota, and just nominated, for the second time, by the Republican state convention, has bolted the ticket and prefers to run independent rather than swallow the golden platform in toto. Some of the seven-by-nine editors of the G. O. P. in that state, are now calling Miss Bates "old girl" and "antiquated bunch of skirts" and such names. But they will find that Miss Bates has no Russian thistles on her skirts.

The Examiner gives a list of the Union League Club's committee to raise funds for the purpose of fighting free silver. The name of John D. Rockefeller, head of the Standard Oil trust, is worth $125,000,000; next, Cornelius Vanderbilt is worth $60,000,000; C. P. Huntington, manager of the S. P. R. R. Co., $60,000,000; J. Pierpont Morgan, head of the bond syndicate, $25,000,000; Andrew Carnegie, the steel manufacturer, $20,000,000; the wealth of the first twenty-six named aggregating $550,000,000. Then come twenty-four, each worth over a million a piece; next twelve worth $250,000 a piece, and the remainder of the committee are all men of wealth. No wonder Hanna has little trouble in raising a campaign fund of $10,000,000 in Wall Street alone.

Wanted—All girls to know that "Hoe Cake" will not make their hands red like common soap. Save the wrappers. They are worth a cent a piece. 19 tf

To the Taxpayers of Marion County. The county board of equalization will convene at 9 o'clock a. m., August 31, 1896, and will be in session six consecutive days. D. D. Coffey, county assessor.

Notice to Bridge Contractors. Notice is hereby given that no warrants will be drawn for construction of county bridges until contractors for the same shall have furnished to the county court certified receipts showing that all labor and materials entering into the construction of such bridges have been paid for. G. P. TERRELL, County Judge. 7-3-d&wf

The dealer who says, "I have no Hoe Cake soap," practically admits that he does not sell first quality goods. If he says he has something "just as good" you will know at once that he is trying to sell you an inferior article. There is more clothing destroyed by poor soap than by actual wear, as the free alkali rots the cloth. Hoe Cake contains neither free alkali nor worthless filling.

When baby was sick, we gave her Castoria. When she was a child, she cried for Castoria. When she became a girl, she clung to Castoria. When she had children, she gave them Castoria.

Another Prophecy Fulfilled

General Logan's Words Come True Today.

Concerning the demonetization of silver in 1873, Gen. John A. Logan, America's great soldier, who was Blaine's running mate in 1884, and a true citizen, made the following statement, which is taken from the July Arena:

I, for one, can see benefit only to the money-holder and those who receive interest and have fixed incomes. I can see, as a result of this legislation, our business operations crippled and wages for labor reduced to a mere pittance. I can see the beautiful prairies of my own state and of the great west, which are blooming as gardens, with cheerful homes rising like white towers along the pathway of improvement, again sinking back to idleness. I can see mortgage fiends at their hellish work. I can see the hopes of the industrious farmers blasted as they burn corn for fuel because its price will not pay the cost of transportation and dividends on millions of dollars of fictitious railway stocks and bonds. I can see our people of the west groaning and burdened under taxation to pay debts of states, counties, and cities incurred when money was more abundant and wages for labor reduced to a mere pittance. I can see the beautiful prairies of my own state and of the great west, which are blooming as gardens, with cheerful homes rising like white towers along the pathway of improvement, again sinking back to idleness. I can see mortgage fiends at their hellish work. I can see the hopes of the industrious farmers blasted as they burn corn for fuel because its price will not pay the cost of transportation and dividends on millions of dollars of fictitious railway stocks and bonds. I can see our people of the west groaning and burdened under taxation to pay debts of states, counties, and cities incurred when money was more abundant and wages for labor reduced to a mere pittance. I can see the beautiful prairies of my own state and of the great west, which are blooming as gardens, with cheerful homes rising like white towers along the pathway of improvement, again sinking back to idleness.
