Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Synder, of Silverton; F. Keasel, of Astoria; Mr. and Mrs. Jones, Portland; J. G. Dorrann, of Newberg; registered at the Cook Hotel Tuesday.

J. C. Randle, deputy sheriff at Grants Pass brought Junius Bartlett, aged 25, to the asylum for the insane. He was accompanied by H. F. Bartlett, the young man's father.

Squire Farrar went to Harrisburg to look after hop business. He says the demand is more active. Choice lots bring 6 cents and 6 1/2 has been offered. The outlook is more favorable.

Attorney Geo. W. Hazen, of Portland, and Dr. J. H. Moore, of Blackfoot, Ida., arrived today to visit the state insane asylum. They were received at the train by Supt. Paine, of the Oregon institution.

Hon. H. L. Barkley came up from Woodburn today and went to Independence with W. T. Bigdon to speak this evening. It will be the greatest hop picker's gathering, in the history of the Willamette valley.

Mrs. A. Mitchell, of Mt. Tabor, who has been visiting her brother, Geo. Emeret, will return home tomorrow. Mrs. Mitchell called at THE JOURNAL office today and expressed her appreciation of the stand for the people the JOURNAL had taken.

RIVER NEWS.

Steamer Ramona will arrive up from Portland tonight and return in the morning to Mission Landing where she will transfer freight and passengers to steamer Altona and return to Salem thus giving Salem people a daily boat to Portland.

The Altona has been laying in Portland for several weeks but owing to the amount of freight to be transported it was necessary to again place her on the regular run. The boats now have all they can do, being taxed to their utmost capacity on each trip. The boats will not run to Independence until the stage of the river will permit.

College Campaign Clubs

A large number of campaign clubs are being organized among the students of the leading colleges of the United States, for debating purposes.

The Bryan college boys of the Eugene State University have recently perfected an organization of which the Guard speaks as follows: "A first voters U. of O. Bryan club was organized in Villard Hall this afternoon with 32 charter members. It is expected that the total membership of first voters in the club will number fifty. Officers elected: L. M. Travis, president; Fred Fisk, vice president; J. N. McFadden, secretary; M. H. Day, treasurer. The club will meet Monday nights. The organization accepted a challenge from the U. of O. McKinley club for a debate, which will be arranged for in the near future."

A movement is on foot among the students of Willamette University for the organization of a Bryan club. While the admirers of the people's candidate are slightly in the minority at old Willamette, they are more forcibly impressed with the necessity of organizing.

WAGONETTE DAMAGED.—The four-horsed wagonette of A. J. Basy, was slightly damaged yesterday, when the loft floor, under which it was standing, suddenly gave way precipitating a large quantity of hay, etc. upon the rig, badly demolishing the top and seats thereto. The damage will probably amount to $50, which means the use of the wagonette at six Republican country school house rallies at 88 per night.

A "Catch" Bet.

There is apparently no end to the "catch bets" devised by the wary for benefit of the unwary. The latest in that line to reach Helena, says the Independent, was one that W. E. Phillips had, and one that came near filling takers at great odds.

"I will bet," said Mr. Phillips, "25 that I can name 25 states that McKinley will carry, and then I will bet $250 that he will carry half the remainder."

Thomas Cranhan is an ardent silver man and one who doesn't mind taking in a good thing when it comes his way, either. He heard the offer and had his money up to take the first part of it right away, and was going down for some more when a friend told him what he was running up against and he withdrew.

Of course the man who makes both wagers has more solicitude for the larger bet. He will name nearly all Bryan states in the first 25, expecting to lose some of them, and it is a "cinch" that out of those remaining McKinley will carry half.

The wager is ingenious, though, and the opinion of people who do not believe it is wrong to gamble is that the man who invented it is entitled to what he can make for his originality.

Junior Pythians Enjoy Themselves.

Last evening, at the conclusion of the work of the Rathbone Sisters and Knights of Pythias the doors were thrown open to the children of the members of the two lodges. After quiet had been restored, the following program of choice literary and musical numbers was carried out most acceptably by the young people:

Instrumental solo..... Anna Wiprat
Recitation..... Althea Irvine
Recitation..... Edna Hirschev
Solo..... Ruby Irvine
Recitation..... Emma Klein
Recitation..... Blanche Brown
Instrumental solo..... Cora Talkington

A delicious lunch followed, after which games and other amusements were participated in until a late hour, when they repaired to their homes, having enjoyed most fully the occasion, and are looking forward with pleasant anticipations to a repetition of last evening's affair.

AT MARION'S CAPITAL.

Sheriff F. T. Wrightman today turned over to Treasurer Brown $3,123.72 as delinquent taxes for 1895. The delinquent tax list is being gradually cancelled.

County School Superintendent G. W. Jones returned last evening from a visiting tour of the country schools in the north-end of the country and also in the Waldo Hills. He reports all schools being fairly well attended and the year's work being successfully taken up and prosecuted.

Hop picking being about over, the attendance at the country schools is not diminished on that account. Supt. Jones has just received a model spelling blank, compiled by Miss Agnes Stowell, of the training department of the Eastern Oregon Normal school, located at Weston, called the Pedagogical Spelling blank, and it is being placed before the different instructors for an examination as to the merits of its adoption into the public schools.

While simple in its construction yet it does away with a great deal of unpleasant work in correcting spelling lessons that a great many teachers have to contend with in our schools. The book is about twelve inches in length by four inches and in tablet form. About three inches from the binding the leaves are perforated so that the longer slip may be removed leaving a stub. The stub contains room for the name of the student and a list of the numbers of the misspelled words while the remaining space may be used in placing the grade of the pupil and any suggestions. The longer slip contains a place for the name of the student and also for twenty words, with a margin on which they are numbered. It is very highly spoken of by Dr. Winship, of Boston, who publishes an educational paper there, and also by numerous other instructors.

Six hop contracts, aggregating 56,000 pounds of the 1896-7 crops, were today filed with the county clerk. The hops are to be furnished to A. Lehman of Cincinnati, O. The growers, amount to be consigned and prices are as follows: Godfrey Dentel and wife of Butteville, 10,000 pounds, '96 crop at 8 cents, 34 cents picking money; Also 10,000 pounds, '96 crop at 7 cents, 4 cents picking money; Also 10,000 pounds '97 crop at 8 cents, 4 cent picking money; Fred Bentz and wife, Minnie B. Bentz and Wm. Bentz, 8000 pounds, '97 crops at 8 cents, also 8000 pounds at 7 cents, also for 10,000 pounds 1896 crops, 4 cents to be advanced as picking money in each of the last three contracts.

Only Three.

DALLAS, Sept. 29. In yours of 26th you give place to a statement from one Redewein, which is directly opposite to the truth. Among all the people in my hop yard this season, Redewein, the peddler and one Indian were the only McKinley men out of a total of eighty-five. That is about the ratio in Polk county. JIM MYER.

DIED.

GOODELL.—At the family residence on Chemeketa street, near Summer, at 12:30 p. m., September 29, 1896, of pneumonia, Mrs. M. E. Goodell, aged 52 years, 4 months and 19 days.

October 14, 1870, she was married to Mr. Goodell and to them were born four children, namely: Hugh, Frank, Edna and Manley, all of whom survive her. Her death is also mourned by a brother and two sisters—Frank B. Southwick, and Mrs. E. L. Briggs, of Salem, and Mrs. W. P. Johnson, of New Whatcom, Wash.

The Crippled.

Eugene Gibson, who so unfortunately broke his thigh five weeks since which time he has been an inmate of the Salem hospital, was yesterday removed to the residence of his father, D. W. Gibson, 158 Winter street. He was allowed to sit in a chair today, and in the course of two weeks will be able to be about, with the assistance of crutches.

Mrs. M. Fennell, proprietress of the Cook Hotel, who so badly wrenched her right limb about four weeks since, is able to be about, and can move about with the assistance of a crutch and a cane.

Fred Loose, who was so badly bruised up in the unfortunate runaway accident Monday night had so far recovered last evening as to be removed to his home. Although badly bruised and having sustained a fracture of the left cheek bone Mr. Loose will soon be around once more.

Joint Debate at Brooks.

A number of voters of Brooks precinct were in town today to try and make arrangements for a joint political debate between M. L. Jones and W. T. Rigdon in the near future. The date of the event will be given as soon as it is known.

Volunteers Needed

Hon. J. T. Cleeton is going to all the little school houses of Columbia county on horseback, making speeches for McKinley.

Volunteers are needed in Marion county to do school house work for Bryan. The Republicans are flooding the country with imported speakers, and have one hundred more to turn on in October. Those who can go out should report for appointment to the Bryan headquarters.
