Mail Carrier Chas. Cosper, of the Salem Post Office Department, has just recovered from a severe illness of La Grippe, and will go on duty again Saturday morning. J. Allison has been acting vs substitute for Mr. Cosper during his illness.

Lester Leland, one of the printers in the printing department at the O. A. C., received a letter through the mail, from the chief of the railway mail service bureau of the postoffice department of the United States, and it informed him that his name stood next in line of acceptance for a place in the service in the Pacific coast division R. M. S.

Jas. A. Waymire, said to be booked for a place in McKinley's cabinet, is an Yamhiller, like Scott and Dr. Watts. His appointment as a Californian will be next thing to the appointment of an Oregonian and would no doubt be a satisfactory way of having the coast represented. He is a son of Senator Waymire, one of the members of the constitutional convention.

Independent for Marshal.

J. E. Baker, the independent nominee for marshal of Salem, is 36 years old. He came to Salem from Eugene six years ago with his family to take charge of the Goodale Lumber Co. as manager, retiring last year and has since built him a house on Twelfth street. Mr. Baker has considerable invested in this city, is a man of good appearance and gentlemanly behavior. As a business man he is prompt, reliable and responsible and would make a fine officer. Mr. Baker realizes that he has a strong man in the field against him, but he will make a hard fight for the place.

AT STAYTON.

In the election at Stayton on Monday, Nicholas Friday was elected mayor to serve the unexpired term of ex-mayor L. Green. The statement in Thursday's JOURNAL to the effect that J. F. Robertson was elected was a mistake. Of the 52 votes cast, Mr. Friday received 28 which is a majority.

SHERIFF'S SALE.

The sale of property on which the taxes of 1894 have not yet been paid, was commenced this morning at 10 a. m. by Sheriff F. T. Wrightman. By the noon hour, about fifty sales had been conducted, there being bidders in each instance. In only a few cases however, did the amount bid on the property exceed the taxes and costs there on. The sale will be continued tomorrow.

A POPULAR CANDIDATE.

Wylie A. Moore, the citizens' candidate for recorder is a popular young man, and will make an efficient officer if elected.

CITIZENS' TICKET NOMINATED.

Dr. Richardson Endorsed With Baker, Moores and Baumgartner.

At the citizens' convention last evening the business of nominating a city ticket was dispatched with good business ability.

In the absence of Chairman Bishop, W. T. Rigdon was called to the chair and Dr. W. S. Mott acted as secretary.

As a committee on order of business the chairman named A. F. McAtee, A. White, A. B. Buren, who reported the following nominations: candidates for mayor, recorder, marshal and treasurer. A. W. Dennis and J. W. Lehman acted as tellers.

The following named gentlemen were nominated for mayor: Dr. J. A. Richardson, Jeff Meyers, W. H. Holmes, C. Marsh, C. P. Bishop, T. B. Wait, W. S. Mott, O. West, G. W. Grannis, J. P. Frizzell, P. H. Raymond, A. Bush, George Griswold and J. M. Payne. The third ballot gave the nomination to Dr. Richardson, the Republican nominee—a high compliment to a worthy man. This very pleasantly takes the majority out of the fight, and will give Salem a good administration.

The first ballot for marshal developed the following results: J. E. Baker, 29; A. J. Coss, 3; A. C. Dilley, 1. Mr. Baker was declared the nominee, and he will prove a credit to the men who nominated him.

For city recorder the result on the third ballot stood: Wylie A. Moore, 20; R. H. Leabo, 12; J. M. Payne, 3; G. W. Grannis, 1.

For city treasurer E. J. Swafford and Jos. Baumgartner were nominated, and the vote gave Mr. Baumgartner 28, and Mr. Swafford 7.

The four Republican candidates for aldermen were practically endorsed.

The following named gentlemen were appointed central committee:

First ward—J. M. Payne.

Second ward—J. P. Frizzell.

Third ward—J. L. Freeland.

Fourth ward—A. F. McAtee.

Committees of poll workers were also appointed as follows:

First ward—A. White, J. M. Payne, H. D. LaFollett.

Second ward—E. S. Lull, I. L. Kimber, A. W. Dennis.

Third ward—J. L. Freeland, D. W. Fraser, G. W. Grannis.

Fourth ward—Geo. Croisan, D. H. Watson, Alt Olinger.

For City Marshal.

Addison Dilley, city marshal and chief of police, of Salem, is the Republican nominee for a second term. He is 44 years of age, came to this city when a young man, worked at his trade as painter and paper hanger, worked on a ranch for several years, was on the Salem police force for three years and has been in his present office two years.

"Ad. Dilley," as he is popularly known among the boys, has been an obliging and accommodating city official. He has given the people a good government so far as lay in the power of his department with the police force given him. He has been economical and has made no needless expense to the city. Captain Dilley has no promises to make if re-elected but to continue to give good service, for which he is well qualified in every respect.

Quite Irregular.

It was only a week ago that the town clock seemed to desire to keep up a continual striking, but now on contrary it will not even announce the arrival of the first hour after noon. It is no doubt taking a vacation in hopes of recuperating from the over-exertion occasioned by so much striking last week. Jeweler J. H. Haas will no doubt soon remedy the present indisposition on the part of the clock and it will soon be running smoothly again. The dust, etc, that has accumulated in the past few years has materially interfered with the operation of the clock.

A Smooth Worker.

The forger, Chas. Fryer, of Rossland, B. C., as he registered at Salem showed a forged check on the bank of Oregon City, and got $35. At Salem he got a letter of introduction of Rev. Kantner, of the First Congregational church, and raised $20 on a check at Ladd & Bush's bank. The Salem police got word today that he is industriously working his way south Salem has been remarkably free from such criminals as are holding people up any night at Portland and the Puget Sound cities.

BIRCHARD

Placed Under $10,000 Bond.

Suggestions Drawn From This Unparalleled Crime.

The people of Oregon have a lesson to learn from the awful crime revealed in the case of the State vs. Birchard as reported in THE JOURNAL Thursday. It is a credit to Oregon that this man is not properly speaking an Oregonian.

District Attorney S. L. Hayden deserves credit for his thorough work on the Birchard case—the man who debauched his four daughters from childhood.

Willard Birchard was promptly bound over Thursday after a short but searching preliminary examination.

He was committed to jail where he will be until the next term of department No. 2, circuit court, which will be convened on the second Monday of February.

The accused owns a farm bordering the south side of the county road about three miles above Stayton. He has resided there about six years.

Section 1734 of the Oregon laws says: "A person convicted of rape upon his sister of the whole or half blood, or upon his daughter or the daughter of his wife, shall be punished by imprisonment in the penitentiary not less than twenty years or during the life of such person."

Birchard is not a German as was first published in a paper in this county. His four daughters and sons-in-law deserve credit for performing a most painful and humiliating duty to society in binding over such a monster.

It is argued, why did these women wait so long before informing on this man whose nature made their father? The family are poor, not mingling much in society, with but little education. Who could these girls go to? They confided their terrible secret to one another and to their mother. Who else could they go to? It was a case where the confessional of a church would have been a protection and a godsend.

What does this awful revelation of crime teach? That education is defective; that the rights of childhood and women are not protected as they should be; that even the churches do

FOR TREASURER.

The Independents have put up Joseph Baumgartner, a young Democrat who is cashier in Ladd & Bush's bank, for city treasurer against E. J. Swafford.

One of Swafford's bondsmen is Ju. Baker, an officer of the Williams & England Banking Co. Mr. Baker is one of the men who paid up his shares of stock in that bank and is responsible for the bank's closing down and bringing the Williams' to an accounting.

Mr. Swafford and Mr. Baker should make a statement to the people of this city as to the present status of the city funds deposited by Mr. Swafford as city treasurer in that bank, and the prospect of the city ever obtaining the money.

Will the city receive that money in a reasonable time from Mr. Swafford, or the Bank, or the bondsmen?

It would seem to be no more than respectful to the taxpayers to make a statement before re-electing Mr. Swafford.

As THE JOURNAL has said, it has no desire to impugn the personal integrity or honorable motives of Mr. Swafford personally. But a decent respect for the public interest demands that the city be protected in future from losses of any kind whatever.

Ed. N. Edes for Recorder.

The Republican candidate for City Recorder has been an efficient and accommodating official for four years past. He has filled the office to the satisfaction of all concerned and is prepared to do so in future. His records are open to the public, and his friends can safely challenge any public office to show better kept books.

not fully protect the families that belong to them against immorality and beastiality. Without schools and churches society would be infinitely worse off. But still we must admit we need higher ideals and achievements in education and religion.

Women's clubs are needed in every community to take an intelligent, humane and friendly interest in the rights of women and children. What are the women of Salem and of Stayton doing to prevent such crimes as these? Is it not time all felt a higher interest in the life and morality of the community? Do we love our neighbors as ourselves, and are we taking a helpful, unselfish interest in our fellowman?

Cruel Treatment of Dumb Animals. Complaint has been made of the treatment a teamster, living in East Salem, has been inflicting upon his horses. During the recent high water the horses were obliged to remain in the barn standing in two feet of water. The man works the animals very hard, and does not feed them sufficiently. One day this week the man led the horses into a ditch for drinking purposes, and one of the animals, in attempting to get out of the ditch fell, and in trying to pull the animal from out the ditch, using the other horse as a motive power; it was likewise thrown from its feet. They were so weak as to not be able to carry themselves around. Such treatment of dumb animals merits severe punishment.
