The wedding march was played by Miss Maud Froman. Thy bride looked lovely in a handsome brown serge coustume. Her the "the Rise and Fall of the Slave flowers were rare for December, violets and pansies.

AGREEABLY SURPRISED.

Rev and Mrs. H. A. Denton, of the First Christian church, were most agreeably surprised Wednesday evening by a "call" from the members of the church and congregation. The party was loaded down with "good things" which were left by way of re- men Circle the following officers were membrance. Elder Wm. Manning in a few happy remarks, stated the object for which the party had assembled. This was responded to by R ev. Denton who in a few well chosen remarks expressed his appreciation of the affair. During the evening a program consistsing of songs and reci. tations was presented.

OPEN MEETING.

One of the most pleasant events in the student's life at Willamette university is the "open meeting" that is given at the middle and at the close of each school term. Last Wednesday evening the Philodosian literary society entertained its friends in a very acceptable manner. As per previous announcement a musical and literary program concluding with a laughable dialogue entitled "The Top Landing," was presented in the chapel. The violin solo by Miss Nellie Brown was skillfully executed and the song by little Miss Ruth Damon was nicely given. Miss Georgia Davenport sang very sweetly. The papers by the various members of the newspaper staff were greatly appreciated and afforded much amusement. The papers were replete with innocent jokes that evidently hurt no one's

The audience was kept in almost a continual laughter during the presentation of the dialogue, entitled the "Top Landing." Each sustained his part very acceptably and the play was presented in all its serious predicaments. Roy Ohmart as the glong lost brother and Miss Minnie Ireton, as Aunt Isabelle were exceptionally good. Misses Eva Geer and D. Gans made model young housekeepers as well as lovers. R. A. Watson and Rex W. Davis, as the hero who rescued an old man from a runaway team! and the successful dramatic author respectively could not have been mproved upon. Selections by the orchestra formed a pleasant feature of the evening's entertainment.

A PRACTICAL LESSON. The topic of the Sunday school lesson two weeks since was "temper-

An earnest Christian woman, who teaches a class of young men in one of Salem's largest Sunday schools, gave a short but pointed talk on the evils of intemperance and at its conclusion stated she would be pleased to have the boys sign the pledge. A number signified their willingness to do so providing the pledge did not forbid the use of cider as a beverage or for cooking. The boys clamed that it was necessary to have eider to make good mince pies but the good Christian woman contended that she could make excellent mince ples without using either elder or brandy. The boys suggested that they be given an faculty of the University at Forest They were not a little surprised last Wednesday to receive several mince day afternoon for Forest Grove where ples from their teacher. It is said ing the pledge since the ples were certainly delicious.

PROF. HERITAGE SURPRISED. In view of the fact that Prof. R. A. Heritage would leave Salem Thursday evening for Chattanooga, Tennessee, the Salem Choral society planned a surprise and farewell party that was successfully carried out Wednesday evening. While engaged in directing warden; John M. Albert, treasurer; the last rehersal of the Sunday school F. A. Turner, recorder; M. L. Myers, children for the Christmas cantata, the professor was ordered to attend a special business meeting at the music college. He was greeted by the entire ried Dec. 23 to Miss M. E. Atkens of singing society. After a few moments Fern Ridge, Rev. Mr. L. Rose of of social conversation Dr. C. H. Hall ficiating in the presence of 100 guests. on behalf of the Choral society presented the Professor with a large, handsome photograph of that body of singers, numbering forty. Prof. Herlitage responded in grateful terms.

THE "DEESTRICK SKULE." As presented in the First Congregational church, Wednesday evening, fection and afforded not a little their new home on East Tenth street. while John Roberts, as the committee A notable Linn county wedding took man, assumed great dignity. Miss misery that crushes mankind,—and womankind.

The trouble with most of the so-called dyspepsia-cures, is that they don't cure.
They give only temporary relief. Indigestion usually extends all through the digestive tract, from the stomach clear down to the large intestine; the liver too is frequently involved in the trouble being torpid and inactive. For a thorough, radical, permanent cure you must have the whole digestive organism set right.—Not violently stirred up, but regulated. Doctor Pierce's Pleasant Pellets will do it. They stimulate the digestive juices of the stomach; invigorate the liver and help it to actively secrete the bile; and act gently on the bowels to promote a regular healthy movement. This means a complete and lasting cure of digestive troubles.

The "Pellets" are not a severe cathartic.
They act on the bowels naturally and comfortably though surely. The dose can be regulated to your needs, and when the "Pellets" have done their work they can be discontinued. You don't become a slave to their use, as with other pills. If the druggist suggest some griping pill that gives him more profit, think what will profit you most.
