ON THE WILLAMETTE.
Difficulty Experienced in Navigating Portions of the Lower River.

Steamer Ramona continues to make tri-weekly trips to Portland, going down at 7:45 a. m. Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays, returning on the following days.

Steamer Gypsy arrived up from Portland last night for the first time since its accident. She has been thoroughly repaired by competent workmen and upon observing the craft, one would be unable to discern any indication of the injury received in the accident. She is practically as good as ever and will be operated between Salem and Portland in conjunction with the steamer Ruth during the remainder of the summer season. In all probability she will again resume work on the upper river during the winter season.

The Altona continues to run between Oregon City and Portland in competition with the Suburban Railway Company. Commencing on Wednesday of next week the O. C. T., Company will place a new schedule in operation by which its boat will leave Salem for Portland at 7 a. m. instead of 7:45 a. m. as at present. This company expects to place another boat on the river in about ten days, to run with the Ramona and thus furnish the general public a daily service between Salem and the metropolis.

The steamboats plying on the Willamette between this city and the metropolis are experiencing considerable difficulty in navigating portions of the river below Salem, on account of the low stage of water and the width of the river channel. At one point particularly do the boats have a great deal of difficulty in passing. It is known as Lambert's Bend and is about twenty miles north of this city. At this point in the river there are three channels, thus dividing the volume of the water, there not being a sufficient quantity in either channel to permit of successful navigation. It requires fully an hour for a steamboat to pass this point on the river. First, a number of stumps that have lodged there, have to be removed and then the boat crew has to "line over" the place referred to. The condition of the river could be temporarily remedied, at least, by felling trees in the smaller channels and thus bring the river into one channel which would make navigation, especially at this point, much easier than it is at present. The new government snagboat Mathioma in a day's work could greatly improve the existing conditions and make steamboat navigation at this point much easier, and permit of the boats running nearer schedule time. As it is the snagboat spends its time loosening stumps from the bed of the river, falling to remove them from the river bed, thus allowing them to float whither they will, lodging in some shallow place in the river bed, thus proving a severe obstruction to river navigation.

chute jump by Prof. F. P. Haecel, the prince of parachute jumpers, at the 14, 1897. Fun and amusement. Novelty races, bicycle race, 100 yard foot race, egg race for little girls under 14 years, wheelbarrow race and sack race.

"STOP THIEF"
Cries the Great Salem Organ It Throws Dust at the Innocent to Screen the Culprit.

In this morning's issue the Statesman has what purports to be a bold exposure of crooked work in regard to keeping the county records, and upon inquiry at the County Clerk's office Mr. Ehlen, made the following statement:

In reference to the article contained in this morning's Statesman, in which they insinuate that a certain order was entered on the county commissioner's journal, not authorized by the journal, I beg to say that said order was written in open court by my Deputy, F. A. Turner. The Statesman in this acts in its usual cowardly manner, by attacking Mr. Turner, when they are well aware that he is absent on his vacation. Mr. Hendricks also knows well that no one in this office now, ever has made or will make a false entry.

L. V. EBLEN,
County Clerk.

In regard to this "exposure" it is only necessary to state that the Statesman never was known to make a bona fide exposure of anything. This is done for the purpose of persecuting Mr. Ehlen, who, although a relative of Mr. Hendricks, who wrote up the alleged exposure, will not submit to the constant demands of that avaricious sheet at all times and under all circumstances.

In the Republican county conventions Mr. Hendricks nominated Mr.
Ehlen for clerk, with a fulsome eulogy of his ability and integrity, and now thinks the clerk ought to be his, body and soul, and submit to all the unprincipled demands of Mr. Hendricks for a corrupt gang of politicians.

He has learned that Mr. Ehlen proposes to be his own master, and now turns upon him all his low-lived venom in order to besmirch the character of a man whom he can't "handle."

It is gratifying to learn, provided the claims of the Statesman are not fabrications, that Commissioners Watson and Davis have taken a stand on public matters. Up to this time the people have been unable to locate these men on any proposition of reform.

If Judge Terrell has signed up some records that are "falsified," why not show him up, instead of traducing the deputy clerk who has simply kept the record under the orders of the court?
But that would not suit the purposes of the grasping Statesman. It simply wants to injure one man who will not stand it with its schemes, but the judge who perpetrates the jobs it does not see fit to censure.

In regard to the specifications for the court house job being "lost," it is a plain lie, as a JOURNAL reporter today asked Clerk Ehlen to see them and they were forthwith produced.
These papers are on file and open for the examination of anyone wishing to see them. Yet this charge of its being "lost," is just about as truthful as the balance of the attack.

A Serious Difficulty.
"I suffered for three years with salt rheum. The humor was on my hand and I was obliged to keep a covering on them most of the time. The stinging and burning were very severe.
Nothing did me any good until I took

GOES TO JAIL.
Elma Barrett Pleads Guilty to Petty Larceny and Receives 25 Days.

Elma Barrett, the 16-year-old girl who was arrested at Salem Tuesday afternoon by Acting Chief of Police D. W. Gibson, on a charge of horse stealing, was arraigned before Justice Schubel at Oregon City, Thursday afternoon. The complaint charged her with petty larceny, the alleged value of the horse being $25. She pleaded guilty and was sent to jail for twenty-five days.

The county jail, not being properly arranged for the accommodation of such a prisoner, the girl will serve her sentence in the city jail. Notwithstanding they had been notified, no relatives of the girl were in attendance at the trial, even her parents failing to put in an appearance.

It is quite likely the lesson will prove a valuable one to the girl whose fondness to gain possession of certain articles not her own, have caused her to act criminally.

JOURNAL "X-RAYS"

Holman, the great Democratic ob-jector, was elected by 800 majority in his Ohio district last fall. Now his Democratic successor is elected by 1500, and 600 Populist votes to spare.

True prosperity, unlike promises, comes by the sweat of the brow. Any man can have it by working like a horse.

Again, if people want to see those fraudulent prosperity dispatches and the made-to-order editorial notes published in the Statesman every week, the original "copy" is on exhibition at THE JOURNAL office, direct from Mark Hanna.

Where does the dog tax benefit come in? Several hundred dollars have been levied, and the city has to pay extra to meet the expense.

If the Statesman lady bird who said the Nebraska capitol building at Lincoln is a "wooden shack in imitation of stone," will ask Wm. Feldt she will learn that it is genuine stuff.
Mr. Feldt was there when the stone blocks were sawed out, and knows what he is talking about. Furthermore, he is an honest man.

Our beautiful streets have all kinds, sizes and lengths of poles erected in them in place, and out, and they are fast being decorated with stately painted boxes that constantly remind us of our eternal resting places in some cemetery.

That women are as liable to be stricken with Klondicitis as men is demonstrated by the large number now enroute to the great gold fields of the Yukon.

Does the Statesman make its attack on the county clerk to cover up its double charge for county printing?

The man of "paw" wants to go to the senate awfully bad, and proposes to make the city pay his campaign if possible.

Hanged.
JACKSONVILLE, Fla., Aug. 13.—A special to the citizen from Key West, with late Havana advices, states that a Spanish spy, Miguel Besta, was hanged without trial by Almeré Acosta, a prominent Cuban leader.
Besta had been employed by Weyer to visit Acosta's camp and assassinate him. News of his mission preceded him however, and on reaching the camp his execution was ordered.

Badly Burned.
Three-year-old son of A. L. Frazier, while playing with matches Thursday afternoon at the home on Sixteenth street, between Trade and Mill street, set fire to his clothing and before the flames were extinguished, was severely burned. Enveloped in flames the boy rushed from the barn towards the house, near which he met his mother, who with wonderful presence of mind, seized the youngster and with an apron smothered the flames.
Dr. S. R. Jessup was summoned when it was found the boy was quite severely burned on the breast and the stomach and under both arms. The wounds were dressed and the little sufferer was made as comfortable as possible.
