Friday was a perfect spring day—bright but cool. Forecast for Sunday probably fair.

PERSONAL AND LOCAL.

Miss Daisy Bills, of Spokane, is a guest of Miss Winnie McCarty at her home, corner Eighteenth and Hill street.

Mrs. S. E. Day and little daughter Jeanne went to Corvallis today, called by a telegram that Mrs. H. J. Keller, a married daughter, had been seriously injured by falling down stairs.

Word has just been received from Mr. Holverson, the Salem merchant who is with Mrs. Holverson at Battle Creek, Mich., to the effect that the latter is now fully out of danger. Mr. Holverson will return to Salem about April 1, but does not expect Mrs. H. to return until a little later in the spring.

WORDS OF REV. HERRON.

Editorial of A. D. Hale in the Albany People's Press.

One by one the brave men and self-sacrificing women who love humanity, and have caught the spirit of the song which we sing in our Sunday schools,

"Dare! Dare! Dare!!! to do right, Dare! Dare! Dare!!! to be true," have gone down before the relentless sickle of plutocracy; some of them with their spirits crushed, never again to rise, and others only to rise and shine in greater splendor in other spheres.

America boasts of her free schools; and the stars and stripes (the emblem of liberty) proudly floats from the flag-staff on nearly every institution of learning in our land; but alas! it now seems that we must fight our battles all over, or lose all the liberties gained by the struggles of our brave forefathers.

Millions have been amassed, and aggregated into the hands of a few men, nearly every dollar of which has been unmercifully wrung from the toilers; and under the pretense of philanthropy a few of these millions have been given to found colleges, or endow chairs in those already founded. But in nearly every instance a "thus far and no farther shalt thou go" policy (so far as political, social or religious liberty goes) has been adopted by the would-be philanthropists, as rules governing the professors and teachers.

Pres. Andrews dared to express his honest opinions on the financial question, and was promptly told by King Rockefeller that he must close his mouth or resign his position. Prof. Bemis shared the same fate. Rev. Myron W. Reed dared to speak the truth as he saw it, to his wealthy Denver congregation, and that settled his pastorate over that church; and scores of other professors and preachers of note, and hundreds of lesser lights, have shared the same fate.

The greatest thorn in the side of plutocracy of late has been Prof. Geo. D. Herron, who occupies the chair of Applied Christianity in Iowa College, at Grinnell, Iowa. Prof. Herron has been lecturing and preaching, "Christianity as Christ taught it," and daring to say to Silylock: "Woe unto ye scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites," and the money power has tried in vain to close his mouth by threatening him with expulsion from his chair, but Prof. Herron has been brave, fearless and unflinching. While he may lose his chair, he is endeavoring his name to the toilers of the world, and surely "living up for himself treasures in Heaven."

Below are Prof. Herron's own words as given in answer to a letter from the editor of "The Social Gospel" and printed in that paper. We say long live and God bless Prof. Herron.

Editor Social Gospel: You ask me to say a word about the Iowa College controversy. Personally, I am not interested in this struggle. I have no personal interest in what happens to me. I am utterly indifferent as to whether I stay in college or not. In some ways I should be freer to do my public work if I were not in the college. But the principle involved is so tremendous, that I shall fight the battle to the finish. I make no self-defense. But I shall defend the liberty of the truth to be spoken and heard. This is the only important college in America that has not been passed under the direct or indirect control and intimidation of money. If this college passes under the yoke, then the last citadel of free teaching is gone. For my brethren's sake I will not submit to this kind and brutal force of money—not for a moment. I will not resign. If I go, the trustees must put me out, and the people will know why. If I must die institutionally, I will die with my back to the wall, standing for the freedom of the truth to the last breath. I will not alter nor retract one word at the bidding of sheer financial might. Between this materialism, that holds the world in tyranny and darkness, and spiritual liberty, there is war to the death. I will exhaust my life in doing what I can to arouse the people to destroy the spirit of materialism, and emancipate their souls and bodies. There will be no truce between us. The battle is on, and I am as serene and happy as a child on its mother's breast. I am not alone, for God and the people are with me, and that is because the word I speak is the word of their liberty. GEORGE D. HERRON. Grinnell, Ia., Feb. 15, 1889.

A Little Menagerie. Chastee Hughes, the P. O. candy man, has on exhibition at his place a fine specimen of a California black bear, as natural as life. He also has a California bat under cover which excites considerable curiosity, especially among the young people.

The Woodburn Charter. There will be a motion filed Monday by Messrs. Holmes and McNary for a rehearing in the above case; in the event that it is not granted, a notice of appeal to the supreme court will be filed.

Expensive Dog Killing. E. Sily, who was arrested on a charge of carrying concealed weapons, plead guilty before Justice Johnson this morning, and was fined $10 and costs. This prosecution arose from Sily's shooting John Bayne's dog. The matter may be carried further.

Amputation Resopened. The Boston Emporium is now open and ready for business our goods are of good quality and prices low. Call and be convinced.

Chair Cars Between Portland and Albany. Comfortable upholstered revolving chairs, observation ends, attractive smoking rooms, first class in every particular, 25 cents Portland to Salem, 50 cents Portland to Albany. Car on each end of train. These cars will be run through the session of the legislature. 1-17-1d.

There will be a fast game of ball tonight at the Y. M. C. A.

About Laces and Things. We are doing a good business at our new and extraordinary counter these days. We have one of those nice imitation Turebon Thread Laces about two inches wide, at 5 cents, besides the very cheap imitation Turebons much less. These fine imitation Turebon are big sellers for underwear. Our Knobbydory lines run from 25 cents up and the patterns are very choice. Some 5 cent lines are neat as a pin, with excellent edges. The Belt stock is full of great values in fresh new lines. A splendid patent leather for the. These new things, too, in leather and spangles are quite the thing.

For prices on all these goods are lower than others. We sell everything at lowest racket prices for cash, and have no bother with book accounts for anybody. No harm for you to look. We want you to come as often as you like.

The family has the sympathy of the community in their great loss. The funeral services will be held Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Christian church.

WOODBURN CELEBRATES.

Council Meets and Calls for a City Election.

A Woodburn special says: To a majority of Woodburn's people, the news from Salem that Judge Boise had sustained all points in the Woodburn charter case favorable to the city and the dissolution of the injunction met with demonstrations of joyful approval. At 8 o'clock this evening guns were fired and fireworks set off. The city council met and made arrangements for the special election on the license question to be held on Tuesday, March 28. It also ordered notices for the regular annual election to be held on the first Monday in April, under the new charter, to be posted. The following officers will be elected:

Mayor, recorder, four councilmen, treasurer and marshal. The important feature of the meeting was the decision of the council to at once institute suit for damages against B. A. Cathry, M. D. plaintiff in the late injunction suit, and his bonds men, Charles Scott and Perry L. Kenney, to reimburse the city for the expenditures made in defense of the city under the new charter. Carson & Bingham, of Salem, are retained by the city in this case.
