VOLUNTEERS' RECEPTION

Salem Committees Enlarged and a Program Has Been Mapped Out.

Grand Oration, Banquet, Blowout and Ball in Preparation for the brave Oregonians.

There was a well-attended meeting Saturday at the G. A. R. hall to make further arrangements to receive the Oregon volunteers. Rev. W. E. Copeland presided, and there were reports from all the committees and a full discussion of program. As now completed following are:

THE RECEPTION COMMITTEES.
 Finance—Arthur Welch, D. C. Sherman, C. B. Irvine, Fred Stensloff, J. Q. Barnes.
 Reception—E. Hofer, N. J. Judah, T. B. Wait, George Litchfield.
 Program—Mrs. O. S. England, Frank Davey, Geo. H. Burnett, F. T. Wrightman, Fred Wiggins.
 Banquet—Mrs. A. N. Gilbert, Mrs. Lizzie Smith, Mrs. J. J. Murphy, Robt. A. Crossan, E. C. Cross.
 Decoration—Miss Kittle Harbord, Mrs. E. H. Flagg, Mrs. Frank Willman, Frank A. Moore, Squire Johnson, Mrs. E. C. Bailey.

Moved and carried that a banquet be given at Marion square to the returning volunteers and all old soldiers who had ever enlisted to serve their country in time of war.

The program for the day as discussed is planned to have the reception begin on the arrival of the troops at Salem by train, march to the grand banquet under the escort of the veterans of the Grand Army where a formal reception program will be carried out. The boys would then have their afternoon to themselves. In the evening there is to be a further program at the opera house, with speeches from the officers, telling their experiences on the field of battle where they so proudly distinguished themselves, all to be followed by a grand military ball.

The program may be changed by the committee, but the above is the way it was mapped out in the talks on Saturday. The committees will meet again next Saturday at 3 o'clock to complete their work as far as possible.

The ladies of the Relief and Emergency Corps deserve great credit for going ahead in the matter of the reception and will be heartily supported.

The most perfect spirit of harmony and enthusiasm prevails and all patriotic citizens will unite in showing every Oregon volunteer, whether it be Company K, or the whole regiment, that comes to Salem, all the honors that are due them and that means all that Salem people are capable of bestowing upon them.

Economy.

A publisher can make 40,000 books for two-thirds the price he can make 10,000 such of four different kinds. It is just so in bicycle building. The Overman wheel company are this year lending every energy to produce only one model and that the best model they have ever made. Nothing but the highest grade of material and workmanship is used, and more wheels are being built of this one model than have ever been built by them in any single year of all models combined. Where Victors are known this is fully appreciated, as their unprecedented sale this season confirms. "99 Victors or Victorias" are fully $50 value and you can get them now for $40. Spindler chainless $75. H. S. Gile & Co., agents.

Fourth of July.

All members of the Fourth of July celebration committees, and all interested in the subject, are urged to be present at the city hall this evening.

Mr. J. T. McGregor, who had charge of a large force of men on the Horst Bros., hop ranch putting up the new trellis work on the Beak farm has completed his job and this morning returned to San Francisco. Mr. McGregor will return this fall and put up wire trellis on 400 acres more for Horst Brothers.

State Supt. Ackerman and daughter Miss Carrie Ackerman went on their wheels Sunday to visit some old friends at Shaw. They were caught in the rain coming home and were brought in from the reform school in a hack.

A. M. Crawford, a leading attorney of Roseburg, an ex-member of the legislature, ex-federal office holder, a staunch Republican, but a good fellow in spite of all, is in the city on business before the supreme court.

Miss Louisa Carter, of the Sam Shaw Company, has so far recovered as to be able to join them at Albany in a few days. The company went to Albany Sunday, where they play this week.

Rev. P. S. Knight and family expect soon to move from the Mute school, and to occupy their cottage on East State street, where H. B. Thielsen and family now reside.

Geo. Hughes, the well-known Salem business man, who has been confined at home some weeks with an injured limb is again on our business streets.

Miss Frances Morrow, whose father is Missionary at the Warm Spring Indian Reservation, is the guest of Mrs. C. A. Park on Cottage street.

Mrs. A. Muir, of Portland, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Chas. P. Bishop, went to Brownsville today for a visit.

Mrs. A. H. Freerkens, of Albany, who has been the guest of Mrs. F. B. Southwick, over Sunday, went to Albany today.

Miss Della Darby returned Sunday to her home in this city from teaching school at Arlington, Eastern Oregon.

Mrs. J. M. Bennett, who has been visiting Mrs. John Parsons left today for Detroit, Ore.

Mildred Bagley returned home on Saturday from a visit with her cousins in Independence.

Sheriff Durbin made two sales of realty, upon judgments issued out of the circuit court Saturday. The first was in the name of L. W. Edmister vs. H. G. Koonce et al., and lots 17 and 18 in block 1 in State Street Annex to Salem were sold to satisfy a judgment of $319.80, and bid in by plaintiff. In the case of Solon Baker et al. vs. M. Baker et al. 200.70 acres of land in the Wm. H. Baker, d. l. c. were sold to satisfy a judgment of $1818.42, and bid in by plaintiffs.

PROBATE.
 J. W. Labaree, J. H. Riches and J. M. Brown, appraisers of the estate of C. J. Mulkey, deceased, yesterday filed their report in the office of the county clerk. The estate is appraised at $4,745.39 consisting of real and personal property in Marion county.

In the matter of the estate of Andrew Marple, deceased, Elizabeth E. Van Wagoner, yesterday petitioned the probate court for letters of administration, as the executrix of the last will and testament of the deceased, has since died, leaving the estate undistributed, upon. The estate is valued at $4,000, and Judge Terrell appointed the petitioner, fixing her bond at $9,100.

W. C. Hubbard, administrator of the estate of Oscar Hubbard, deceased, filed his final account in the probate court, and Judge Terrell fixed the time for hearing the same at 11 o'clock on Saturday, July 29th.

W. C. Hubbard, administrator of the estate of Seth R. Hammer, deceased, has filed an answer to the petition of Joseph Fishburn, denying the allegations in said petition.
