The Alaska Boundary Troubles.

The Modus Vivendi Unsatisfactory.

King Milan's Assassin Was Hired By the King's Enemies.

By Associated Press to the Journal.
LONDON, July 7.—The officials of the foreign office confirm the dispatch from Washington acknowledging that the situation over the Alaskan boundary modus vivendi is more unsatisfactory than at any time since February. Ambassador Choate received this morning important dispatches from Washington regarding the negotiations.

Belgrade, July 7.—The man who attempted to assassinate former King Milan yesterday, is a fireman employed by the municipality. It is supposed that he was hired by an enemy of Milan.

MURDERERS EXONERATED

Acquitted on Grounds of Self Defence.

By Associated Press to the Journal.
MANILA, July 7.—The trial of Galu, the Filipino leader, is ended. The accused was acquitted on the ground of self-defence. The testimony that showed there was a conspiracy on the part of Luna and other officers to kill Aguinaldo and to make Luna the dictator. Luna's death seems to have strengthened Aguinaldo's leadership for a time.

MARION COUNTY MATTERS

Business Being Transacted at the Court House.

Friday the county commissioners examined a bridge near the poor farm and a hill near Silverton. The court will adjourn Saturday. Judge Terrell was out this forenoon examining a couple of bridges on Mission Bottom near the La Follett place. One a pile bridge, is on the road leading through the Bear's place. The other, nearly completed, is a fine stone bridge with a 60 foot span, on the road leading to the Wheatland Ferry.

POLITICIAN INTERVIEWED

About Fusion of Populists and Democrats.

By Associated Press to the Journal.
TERREHAUTE, Ind., July 7.—Mortimer Rankin, chairman of the Populist national central committee, has been interviewed in regard to whether Populists would form a fusion with Democrats for the coming campaign. Mr. Rankin said they would not. Populists will prepare their own platform and nominate their own candidates.

He said that if Democrats fight the policy of the administration in holding the Philippines until a suitable government has been formed they will find themselves snowed under far worse than in 1896.

WALLACE MINING.

Cases Not Yet Settled And May Be Continued.

By Associated Press to the Journal.
WALLACE, Ida., July 7.—This morning the defense in the Corcoran case filed a motion for the continuance of the case until the next term, alleging that under martial law a fair trial could not be secured, that jurors summoned to try Corcoran were biased against Corcoran and the judge denied the motion for the continuance. Defense then filed a formal challenge to the panel summoned by Sutherland, on account of bias on the part of Elisor. The court denied the challenge.

Reddy asked for an exception, asking to call Sutherland to the stand to prove his ground for a challenge and the court allowed Sutherland to be called.

FINE FOR BUYING WARRANTS.

The Law Being Enforced By Revenue Officials.

Considerable interest has grown out of the subject of the license fee being charged brokers under the new war revenue law. It seems that many have been purchasing city and county warrants in Salem for years past, and when the new revenue law went into effect failed to observe it. Thus they ignorantly violated a law of the general government for a short time and several such have since taken out required brokers' licenses while many have quit buying entirely.

Now private parties buying county or city warrants without a broker's license are liable to arrest and a fine under the war tax revenue law. A broker must pay a license of $50 a year, and the law construes "all" to be brokers who "negotiate purchases or sales for themselves or others."

With this information at hand all persons should take warning and protect themselves in this matter.

It is reported that several detectives or agents of the government are now in the towns of the valley spotting persons engaged in illicit purchase of this kind.

By Associated Press to the Journal.
ST. LOUIS, July 7.—A Post Dispatch special from Dallas says the Brazos river has fallen 8 inches during past 24 hours and while the highest estimates of the loss of life may be somewhat exaggerated, number is large and cannot be definitely known for several days. Relief measures are now under way but still hundreds of people are in a perilous position.

RICHMOND, TEXAS, July 7.—Business has practically been suspended and many plantations are under water. Provisions are running low and unless some relief is soon there will be suffering in a few days. There will be from five to seven thousand people to feed in this place within a week.
