FLAG PRESENTATION.

By J. W. Geary Post At Eugene, to St. Mary's School.

J. W. Geary Post, W. R. C. I. of G. A. R., and Sons of Veterans, met at G. A. R. hall, 9th street, at 2 o'clock p. m., Saturday, July 1st, and formed the line of march, bearing their colors, the Catholic school, and formed a hollow square around the magnificent flagstaff which had been erected at 10 o'clock a. m. by the G. A. R.

The donors of the flagstaff are as follows: The upper portion is of fir and was cut and furnished on the ground by the young Mr. Griple and was hauled 7 or 8 miles; the lower portion is of cedar, sawed eight square and was planed by the Cedar Flat saw and planing mill, some 13 miles away. E. F. Chapman made the bands and flag swivel and it was spliced by him with the assistance of Henry Chilson and some of the comrades. The ball and weather vane were made by Mr. Aya, and is very accurate and sensitive to the wind. The ball, spear and cannon were laid with gold leaf by the Sons of Veterans and is beautiful.

The flag is magnificent and is of the government standard and wool bunting. It was furnished by Father Przybyski, also the cord; the Sister Superior sewed the flag to the cord. The exercises began by Commander Chapman reading a short but appropriate address. Presentation to the school by Commander Chapman was responded to by Father Przybyski in very able and well selected remarks, and was very impressive to the old veterans and the pupils.

Then the stars and stripes were raised heavenward by the assistance of Father Przybyski, the Sister Superior, the president of the W. R. C. Ladies of the G. A. R. president of the Red Cross the president of the Ladies Republican club, the past captain of the Sons of Veterans and the commander of the Post. The flag was then dedicated by 12 little girls each bearing a bunch of flowers, after singing the Star Spangled Banner and then saluting Old Glory, and was responded to by a salute from the Grand Army. The girls then followed by depositing the flowers around the flag staff, saying: "We dedicate this flag in behalf of the Grand Army, to St. Mary's Convent of Mercy."

A good attendance was present and everybody was well pleased. Mrs. McElroy President of Women's Republican club read a very fine and appropriate composition on patriotism and loyalty. Father Przybyski pronounced the benediction all departed feeling well pleased.—Eugene Guard.

CAPITAL CITY'S CORDIAL WELCOME

and to show them as much of our city and the surrounding trimmings of God's green earth as the limited time will permit.

Marion square with its noble forest of firs has been cleaned up underfoot and overhead, all trash being taken off the ground and the lower branches of the trees trimmed off, so that the cool breezes may fan the fair faces of their escorts.

Ten long tables have been constructed, and these will be loaded down with an abundance of good things to eat. D. E. Kenworthy will furnish the food and deliver it at the grounds, and each table will be in charge of two ladies, who will have ten young lady assistants, insuring that the guests will receive every attention.

There will be a short address of welcome by Justice F. A. Moore of the supreme court, and there will probably be some informal after dinner talk from the distinguished visitors, among whom it is needless to say are some of the brightest men in the Union.

After the conclusion of the gastronomic exercises the visitors will be given carriage rides to the right lions' point for scenery and the choicest cherry trees.

Preparations have been made to entertain about 500 people, as it is expected that number will come. There will be 350 on the trains, which will arrive from Eugene in two sections at 11:20. These went south Sunday on the west side, going as far as Roseburg. Today they go to Ashland and back to Roseburg, coming to Eugene during the night. Tomorrow morning they will take breakfast at Eugene on Skinner's Butte, then come to Salem.

Word has been received that 150 members of the association will come up from Portland and join the others here.

Oregon has never before had such a chance to distinguish herself in the eyes of the very people of all other western good will may do her some good. It will be a long time before she has another such chance. Let Salem people and the farmers and fruit growers of this section put forth their best efforts to give these gentlemen and ladies a rousing welcome. Especially is every one who has a "rig" urged to be on hand with it and to devote a few hours to the showing as much as possible of the finest part of the great Willamette valley, to these people who come from every section of the union and who are people of standing and influence at their homes.

IN CHARGE OF THE TABLES.
The managing committee having the banquet in charge consists of Mrs. Geo. H. Burnett, Mr. E. M. Latore and Miss Calista Moore, and the ladies having direct charge of the tables are as follows, two for each of the ten tables:

Pierce; Ida Babcock, Wm. Savage; J. J. Murphy, F. W. Stensloff; Wm. England, W. H. Ackerman; E. P. McCormick and Miss Lena Bryeman.

Friedman's New Racket.

Celebrated the Fourth and so did all the rest of the people who purchased clothing at Friedman's New Racket, for they saved enough money in the bargains they got at Friedman's New Racket that they had money to blow in at the Fourth. And you could see by their faces where they bought the goods. All those who looked pleasant and smiling and patronized the restaurants, peanut and lemonade stands were the ones who purchased their wares at Friedman's New Racket. The few dejected looking people, who went without their dinner and refreshments on the Fourth, bought their goods elsewhere. And now Friedman's New Racket is preparing for the Fall trade; and down goes prices still lower in order to make room, prices go down still lower, and those who are in need of clothing, hats, gents' and ladies' furnishings goods, staple and fancy Dry Goods, blankets, countertops, lace, ribbons and embroideries, handkerchiefs, towels and notions, trunks, valises, etc., will find that it will pay them to make their purchases at Friedman's New Racket.
