Palo Alto Times, Aug. 4:

Ella B. McDowell of salem, Oregon, an aunt of Ernest Wilson, arrived here Wednesday evening for a visit with her sister Mrs. Wilson and family.

Victoria, B. C., Times, Aug. 12:

-Rev. W. E. Copeland, of Salem, Oregon, is in the city representing a new fraternal organization called the Co-operative Brotherhood, which combines assurance. The co-operators, who have long sought an outlet to the sea. She found, I a town on Barley creek, on the aspires to be an amphibious monster, as west side of the sound, between Tacoma and Seattle, at the extremity of Henderson Bay, claim to be pioneers in the coming civilization which will unite the worker, the machine and the land, giv-ing to the laborer the full result of his toil. Instead of paying money to the family after the insured had died, a home is provid 1 and work furnish 1 to those members who are prevented by sickness or accident from pursuing thier o'dlna.v avocations, and in case of their deata the family of the insur 1 is furnsshed with a house and employment. The Brotherhood proposes to found settle-ments all over North America, and to introduce an order of civilizatian out-lined in Edward Bellamy's "Looking Backward." Rev. Mr. Copeland will give a free lecture in Sir Wm. Wallace Hall on Monday evening, August 14, at 8 o'clock, subject, "The Man with the Hoe or White Slavery, and How it can be Ended," in which he will explain the purposes and methods of the Co-operative Brotherhood.

The Chicago Times-Herald, which the Literary Digest calls "one of the most uncompromising Republican papers in the country," goes out of its way to pay a tribute to Bryan. Among other things it says:

"Mr. Bryan has character, sincerity, a winning personality, intellectual brilliancy, eloquence, and the elements are so mixed in him as to produce the best possible effect."

The Atlenta Constitution, a corpora-tion Democratic paper, says it feels "no hesitancy in saying equally as much for he personal character and qualifications of Mr. McKinley." It seems almost a settled fact now that McKinley and Bryan will be pitted against each other again, says the Pacific Monthly, and udging from the above exchange of ourtesies perhaps it will be a campaign f bouquets.
