Open Door in China.
By Associated Press to the Journal. London, Nov. 9.—The morning Post publishes the following dispatch from Washington saying: "Negotiations in London have resulted in an agreement between Great Britain, China and the United States to maintain the open door in China, which power will undertake to develop both British and American trade."

English Comment on Election.
By Associated Press to the Journal. London, Nov. 9.—The newspapers unanimously regard Mr. McKinley's election to a second presidential term as assured. The Daily Chronicle, commenting upon the president's "bold development of imperialistic policy in China," says: "This is the sort of courage which commands success. In those circumstances, it seems almost inconceivable that he should fail to secure reelection."

The Daily News says it believes Mr. Bryan has no chance for the presidency, and that Mr. McKinley has every reason to hope for a second term. "President McKinley," it declares, will now have a free hand in the Philippines. Nevertheless he had better make haste to win. He has obtained a sort of renewed lease of public confidence, but nothing more."

Troops to Come Home.
By Associated Press to the Journal. By Associated Press to the Journal. New York, Nov. 9.—The Tribune's Paris correspondent writes: An Anglo-phobia epidemic is raging in the French press. It is daily becoming more acute. KENTUCKY IN DOUBT

Claimed By Both Parties By Very Small Majorities

Kentucky Close.
By Associated Press to the Journal. LOUISVILLE, Ky., Nov. 9.—The situation in Kentucky is unchanged. Both democrats and republicans are claiming the election this morning. Charges of attempted fraud are made by both parties. Senator DeLoe and prominent republicans say Taylor's majority will not fall below 5,000. Advice from ex-Senator Blackburn at Frankfort say Goebel has carried the state by four thousand plurality.

It will take an official count to determine the result. Chairman Long, of the republican committee said: "We have carried Kentucky by a safe plurality, but an attempt is being made to steal it."
