ASYLUM CHANGES

Dr. J. F. Calbreath, the New Superintendent is Handicapped.

Necessity for an Inventory at Present is Greater Than Ever.

Increased Circulation.
THE JOURNAL is not only sending out a large list of WEEKLY of sample copies, but has published three hoggrowers editions of the DAILY the past two weeks. Friday by special arrangement with the Hoggrowers Association a sample copy will go to every hoggrower in Oregon. Our advertisers get the benefit of this without extra cost.

Hurrah for Bishop.
It is learned that Mayor Bishop has offered the hop farmers free office room at the city hall for the use as the headquarters of the Hoggrowers' Association. President Jones was delighted at this showing of appreciation on the part of a Salem business man. It will probably be accepted. THE JOURNAL says hurrah for Bishop.

Visiting the Schools.
Director Thos. Davidson has put in several days visiting the schools of the city. He finds them all in good order and the children happy. In some of the schools Uncle Tommy made the boys and girls a practical talk that seemed to please them. Tommy can talk horse sense when he tries.

17,000 Bales.
More than 17,000 bales of hops have been secured from growers by the Oregon Hoggrowers' Association. Contracts for 8000 additional bales may, it is expected, easily be made.

Col. Alley, who sprung Hermann's name for senator just at the right moment to ensure Dolph's defeat in 1895, says:

"We have a letter in our possession from Hon. Binger Hermann, commissioner of the general land office, at Washington. Mr. Hermann has not given any information to the Associated Press nor to anybody that he is pledged to support Senator McBride for re-election nor has he pledged his support any one for that office. Those who know Mr. Hermann best, did not believe any such stuff, as he is the most careful public man to make pledges who ever lived in Oregon. Democratic papers are handling this false report with much delight, as they think the foolish story will injure Mr. Hermann.

W. J. D'Arcy deputy district grand president of the order of Native Sons of Oregon went to Silverton Wednesday where he installed the officers of the local cabin of the order. On Tuesday evening he performed a similar service for the cabin at Jefferson.

Senator Mulkey, of Monmouth, was in this city today.

Dr. Calbreath is a man of high character in his profession, as a public man and a gentleman, and it is more than likely he will make an effort to hold the reins of Oregon's biggest institution firmly and wisely for the state as well as the unfortunate in his keeping.

Reduction in Boys' Pants.
The New York Racket has made quite a reduction on some lines of children's knee pants suits, and young men's suits which they wish to close out. Now is a good time to buy for your boys. Please call. 21-21

Eugene has $10,128 11 outstanding in warrants, with $1634 99 cash on hand.

To Please a Friend.
What would please a friend more than to receive for a present a fine photograph album. The New York Racket has a large supply of them, in the latest styles, at racket prices. Don't fail to call and see them. 21 21

AT FRIEDMAN'S NEW RACKET

The salesman and women were kept on a rush since the announcement of the great reduction sale for the purpose of making room for the spring stock. It does not take the Salem public long to find out a genuine sale. It is astonishing to see how many jackets the ladies took away and capes at almost half their value. The only thing that Friedman's New Racket had to purchase was trunks and valises as invariably the customers would pack the trunks and valises full of goods before leaving the store. This great reduction sale will continue until we go out for the spring purchase. Meantime we must empty our shelves and counters. Those in want of clothing come in and hear what our suit says to you, hear what our overcoat talk, see what our nice, see our ladies' furnishing goods department, look at our prices on men's furnishings, hear our towels talk to you, our ladies' and men's neckties will say, take them away. Our notion department will show you that we mean business. Come while the assortment is good. You will find that Friedman's New Racket is the bargain house of Salem.

Sonnemann's Auction Sale

Of Elegant China and Bohemian Ware.

A rare opportunity to Purchase Elegant

Crockery, Glassware, Jardiniers,

H. G. Sonneman has an immense grocery trade and hasn't room enough to carry all the lines of goods. He has concluded to dispose of the crockery and glassware and therefore will sell them at Auction at his place of business on State street, next to Liberty. Sale commences and continues daily at 2 and 7 P. M. until all the above mentioned stock is disposed of.

Tuesday, December 19 at 2 P. M.

and continues daily at 2 and 7 P. M. until all the above mentioned stock is disposed of.

Busy? Well, Yes!

The biggest Holiday trade thus far we've ever had and every day gets bigger.

You find what we advertise. That accounts for the constant growth in trade. We hear many compliments for our stock, and the extra good values. You can prove things for yourself by coming down morning, noon or night. There's a force of 13 clerks, you won't have to wait long, neither will you be bored to death importuning you to buy.

Kid body dolls, 20c up.
China dolls, 5c up.
Purses, 5c up.
Misses' wool mittens, 10c up.

Story books, 1c up
Games, 5c up.
Photo albums, 50c up.

Silk mittens, 48c up.
Ladies' Linen hemstitched handkerchiefs, 6 1-4c up.
Men's ditto, 14c up.
Harmonicas, 5c up.

I have the cheapest line of dolls I've ever seen. Take my 21 china doll at 40c and you can't beat it in the county.

And my 14 inch one for 10c is what always sells for 30c. The 3c ones are like others say 10c for.

Watch our windows closely. It pays.

In bibles and Testaments I have four splendid numbers, and four only.

A beautiful testament in black seal, flexible, pocket size 60c. compare it with other 75c ones.

My Bibles run 75c, $1.15, $1.40 and $1.90 all black seal, teachers bibles and about a fourth less than you'll find.

Miss Welch has a large line of the popular religious literature on sale here, from the popular 5c line of David C. Cook up to the very best that's to be had. Come and look them over.
