

Salem Woolen Mills

Home Made Goods Best in the Market

SPECIALS--A very large line of cassimere suits for men and boys. All sizes of Boys' black hose our own brand, the Granite try them.

OVERCOATS--Kerseys in all shades and prices, also in Tan Coverts. Gray and black clays. Fancy Back Covert overcoats our own make, the swellest of all.

WOOLEN MILL STORE

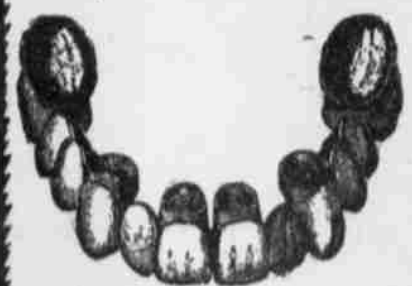

New and Late Styles

See our Ladies' Sorosis shoes, they are great, also our Queen Quality the best $3.00 shoe in the world. Men's late styles in Patent Leathers, Tan and Black goods all at the lowest prices.

KRAUSSE BROS

Our prices on first-class Dental work will remain as they are for a short time only.

Teeth $6.00 up. Gold filling $1.50 and up. G. & P. fillings $1.00.

SALEM DENTAL PARLORS

PHONE 2813.

COLESBURG IS NOT YET TAKEN

British Repulse a Boer Attack and Take Some Prisoners

BADEN POWELL SAID TO WIN AT MAFEKING

An Omenous Silence Leads to Expectations of a Big Battle Soon

Thought that Buller Will Again Attempt to Relieve Ladysmith -- Extraordinary Tenacity of the Boers -- Exaggerated Accounts of Colonel Pitcher's Ride

By Associated Press to the Journal. RENSBURG, Jan. 5.--Colesburg has not yet been occupied. The Boers unexpectedly attacked the British left at day-break this morning but were repulsed. They still hold the hills immediately surrounding the town, preventing the British from advancing along the railway.

The British loss today was light, while the Boers are reported to have lost 100, including 20 prisoners taken by the mounted infantry. The Boer attackers numbered 1,000 men. The Inniskilling dragoons cut their way through the Boers, who were forced to retreat by the heavy artillery and musketry fire.

LONDON, Jan. 5.--It is rumored at Cape Town that Gen. Baden-Powell has again defeated the Boers at Mafeking.

LONDON, Jan. 5.--A Cape Town dispatch says the prize court has released the British steamer Mashona, captured by the British gunboat Partridge in December with ammunition and flour, said to be intended for the Boers, on board, but ordered the cargo warehoused pending the trial of the case.

Ominous Silence. LONDON, Jan. 5.--The silence which has descended on Buller's huge force at Tugela river, is believed to be the prelude to another attempt to reach Ladysmith. The extraordinary tenacity which the Boers are displaying around Colesburg leads to detract from the success of General French.

The later news of Pitcher's raid shows that some accounts were considerably exaggerated, in its effect on Boers. Pitcher's immediate evacuation of Douglas seems to prove that he had information that there was a sufficient number of Boers in the neighborhood to make his position unsafe.

As soon as the cavalry returned to Modder river, Cronje's troops reoccupied Sunnyside.

According to advices from Sterkstroom the Boers have retired from the neighborhood of Molteno, but Gatacre does not appear to have pursued them, as his reinforcements from Sterkstroom have returned there.

Restless Zulus. PIETERMARITZBURG, Jan. 5.--The restlessness of the Zulus is increasing. Many are on the verge of starvation. It is feared the magistrates will not be able to restrain the warriors much longer. It is asserted that they are anxious to attack the Boers.

A Warlike Outlook. LONDON, Jan. 5.--(Friday, 5 a. m.)--This morning's news throws no further light upon the war situation. The exact position at Molteno and Cyphergat is not yet clear, but in any case these little engagements are of little importance beyond proving that the British forces are beginning to attain a great degree of mobility. It is fully expected that the next week will see a heavy battle on the Tugela river, which is now the real pivot of the campaign.

The Boers appear to be working incessantly with shovel and pick. Lord Methuen's cavalry scouting has developed the fact that the Boers' entrenchments extend for some 40 miles, far overlapping the British positions and making flank attacks exceedingly difficult. The military analysts affirm that the Boers' trenches confronting General Buller stretch away some 17 miles, and that work on them is pushed unremittingly.

While the advance is delayed, flank movements are rendered most difficult because long marches are not done with celerity, and it is hard to time an attack with certainty. The extent of the Dutch risings may now be measured by taking a line from Prieska, on the west, to Herschel or Barkly, on the east. Along the whole of this line, except at the points actually occupied by the British, the population seems for the most part hostile. New redoubts are being built at Kimberley, and seventeen miles of works now encompass the town.

The admiralty program embraces the stationing of small squadrons at Durban, Simons bay, Port Elizabeth, Lorenzo Marquez, St. Vincent, in the Cape Verde islands, and at Cape Town, and sending an additional ship or two to Aden. It is announced that Great Britain's agents and detectives are secretly watching all Italian ports.

British Officers Injured. LONDON, Jan. 5.--A dispatch from Rensberg says Major Harvey, of the tenth hussars was killed and Major Alexander wounded while pursuing the retreating Boers, after an attack on the British near Colesburg.

Some Army Positions. LONDON, Jan. 5.--It now appears that it is John Churchill, second son of Lady Randolph Churchill, and not Winston Churchill, who has been given command of a squadron of the South African light horse.

Lord Rosslyn has thrown up his engagement at the Court theater in order to join the yeomanry. The offer of Lord Iveagh to provide at his own expense a completely equipped hospital for use in South Africa has been accepted. The war office has invited Sir William Thompson to accept the post of chief surgeon to the forces in South Africa, instead of consulting surgeon.

horhood of Molteno, but Gatacre does not appear to have pursued them, as his reinforcements from Sterkstroom have returned there.

Restless Zulus. PIETERMARITZBURG, Jan. 5.--The restlessness of the Zulus is increasing. Many are on the verge of starvation. It is feared the magistrates will not be able to restrain the warriors much longer. It is asserted that they are anxious to attack the Boers.

A Warlike Outlook. LONDON, Jan. 5.--(Friday, 5 a. m.)--This morning's news throws no further light upon the war situation. The exact position at Molteno and Cyphergat is not yet clear, but in any case these little engagements are of little importance beyond proving that the British forces are beginning to attain a great degree of mobility. It is fully expected that the next week will see a heavy battle on the Tugela river, which is now the real pivot of the campaign.

The Boers appear to be working incessantly with shovel and pick. Lord Methuen's cavalry scouting has developed the fact that the Boers' entrenchments extend for some 40 miles, far overlapping the British positions and making flank attacks exceedingly difficult. The military analysts affirm that the Boers' trenches confronting General Buller stretch away some 17 miles, and that work on them is pushed unremittingly.

While the advance is delayed, flank movements are rendered most difficult because long marches are not done with celerity, and it is hard to time an attack with certainty. The extent of the Dutch risings may now be measured by taking a line from Prieska, on the west, to Herschel or Barkly, on the east. Along the whole of this line, except at the points actually occupied by the British, the population seems for the most part hostile. New redoubts are being built at Kimberley, and seventeen miles of works now encompass the town.

The admiralty program embraces the stationing of small squadrons at Durban, Simons bay, Port Elizabeth, Lorenzo Marquez, St. Vincent, in the Cape Verde islands, and at Cape Town, and sending an additional ship or two to Aden. It is announced that Great Britain's agents and detectives are secretly watching all Italian ports.

British Officers Injured. LONDON, Jan. 5.--A dispatch from Rensberg says Major Harvey, of the tenth hussars was killed and Major Alexander wounded while pursuing the retreating Boers, after an attack on the British near Colesburg.

Some Army Positions. LONDON, Jan. 5.--It now appears that it is John Churchill, second son of Lady Randolph Churchill, and not Winston Churchill, who has been given command of a squadron of the South African light horse.

Lord Rosslyn has thrown up his engagement at the Court theater in order to join the yeomanry. The offer of Lord Iveagh to provide at his own expense a completely equipped hospital for use in South Africa has been accepted. The war office has invited Sir William Thompson to accept the post of chief surgeon to the forces in South Africa, instead of consulting surgeon.

Around Coleskop. RENSBURG, Jan. 5.--The casualties of General French's force up to the afternoon of January 3 were five men killed and 24 wounded.

A detachment of 25 New Zealanders had a narrow escape. While advancing on Colesburg, they were directed to occupy a kopje, but were met with a hot reception from a concealed Boer force. Another body of British troops seeing their danger, doubled to the rescue of the New Zealanders, and their retreat was successfully accomplished under the cover of the guns on the hills westward.

Coleskop is now the principal scene of the fighting. The destruction of the wrecked train includes 22,000 rations and a supply of rum.

At the Boer Camp. PORTORICA, Jan. 5.--Since starting, the gnat here has costed 140,000 sovereigns. The machinery is now in full swing.

Vanzenberg reports from Denlepoort that the Kafir stations have been destroyed and the inhabitants are fleeing. Chief Lynche, with 3,000 Kafirs, attacked the Boer's laager, but the natives were dispersed.

A representative of the Associated Press who has been in Johannesburg for three days, says the utmost order prevails there. Looting is exceptional, and, where discovered, is heavily punished.

The sanitary condition is perfect, and sickness is rare. About 1200 British subjects are still in the Rand districts.

ALMOND-EYED MURDERER HUNG

Converted to the Catholic Faith Before Going to Gallows.

By Associated Press to the Journal. SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 5.--Go See, the Chinese murderer, was hanged today at San Quentin. A remarkable feature of the case was See's conversion to the Catholic faith.

Italy Favours an Open Door. WASHINGTON, Jan. 5.--Italy has returned a favorable response to the recent note of the state department, respecting the open door in China. Italy

Emperor to Queen. LONDON, Jan. 5.--The British foreign office has no knowledge of any private messenger having been sent by

AMERICAN PRISONERS

Cols Hare and Howse Re-Capture all the Men Taken By Insurgents

TROOPS TO BE SENT TO ALASKA IN THE SPRING

The Many Immigrants to Cape Nome to Be Given Some Kind of a Government

By Associated Press to the Journal. WASHINGTON, Jan. 5.--The war department has received the following: "Manila, Colonels Hare and Howse has just arrived at Vigan with all the American prisoners. Their successful pursuit was a remarkable achievement. Schwan and Wheaton are now out with separate columns in Cavite province. Affairs in Luzon, north of Manila, are greatly improved."

"Ortiz" WASHINGTON, Jan. 5.--At a cabinet meeting today it was definitely decided to send additional troops to Alaska in the spring. The point to which they will be sent has not yet been determined upon, except Cape Nome, where it is estimated there will be 30,000 people as soon as navigation opens. This place is now without government of any kind, and some sort of a force seems to be necessary to protect the community against lawbreakers in the mad rush of people in the spring.

Emperor William to Queen Victoria supposed to be connected with the seizure of German ships.

SHOT TO DEATH FOR ASSAULT

The Fate of a Ravisher at Newport News, Virginia.

By Associated Press to the Journal. NEWPORT NEWS, Va., Jan. 5.--W. W. Watt was taken from the station house this morning by a number of respectable citizens and shot to death for criminally assaulting Mrs. T. M. Simpson.

HOT TIMES IN CONGO.

By Associated Press to the Journal. LONDON, Jan. 5.--A special to the Times from Nashville, Tenn., says: The Southern Presbyterian board of missions has received letters from missionaries stationed at Luebe, Congo Free State, Africa, giving accounts of the burning of fourteen villages and killing of ninety natives by state troops. Some of the victims were eaten by cannibals.

Around Coleskop. RENSBURG, Jan. 5.--The casualties of General French's force up to the afternoon of January 3 were five men killed and 24 wounded.

A detachment of 25 New Zealanders had a narrow escape. While advancing on Colesburg, they were directed to occupy a kopje, but were met with a hot reception from a concealed Boer force. Another body of British troops seeing their danger, doubled to the rescue of the New Zealanders, and their retreat was successfully accomplished under the cover of the guns on the hills westward.

Coleskop is now the principal scene of the fighting. The destruction of the wrecked train includes 22,000 rations and a supply of rum.

At the Boer Camp. PORTORICA, Jan. 5.--Since starting, the gnat here has costed 140,000 sovereigns. The machinery is now in full swing.

We can supply you with anything in the Optical line! If not so clearly as with your eyes of former years, something is wrong with those delicate orbs of vision. Don't hesitate to have them examined. Will candidly tell their condition for nothing. A pair of our rimless spectacles or eyeglasses will add dignity to your appearance, give you a learned look, and really improve your face.

HERMAN W. BARR, 15 STATE ST. SCIENTIFIC OPTICIAN

GEN. WOOD'S CONFERENCE

Trouble Expected Over Restricted Franchise in Puerto Rico.

By Associated Press to the Journal. SANTIAGO DE CUBA, Jan. 4.--The news of the conference at Havana between Governor-General Wood and the Cuban leaders, including General Jose Miro, of this province, has provoked considerable excitement here. This evening the clubs and cafes are crowded with politicians, discussing the situation with more or less violence, and declaring their devotion to General Miro.

The Americans and Europeans, especially the Spaniards, express great satisfaction at the attitude taken by General Wood in favor of restricting the franchise to intelligent and responsible citizens, and the wealthy Cubans share in this feeling. The Cuba Libre publishes a dispatch from Havana summarizing General Wood's statement on this subject and announces that it will deal with the matter editorially tomorrow.

The violent Cuban partisans say a crisis is imminent which will decide whether Cuba is to be American or Cuban, but the possibility of any serious trouble is ridiculed by the American officials and by the foreigners.

Italy Favours an Open Door. WASHINGTON, Jan. 5.--Italy has returned a favorable response to the recent note of the state department, respecting the open door in China. Italy

Emperor to Queen. LONDON, Jan. 5.--The British foreign office has no knowledge of any private messenger having been sent by meeting today it was definitely decided to send additional troops to Alaska in the spring. The point to which they will be sent has not yet been determined upon, except Cape Nome, where it is estimated there will be 30,000 people as soon as navigation opens. This place is now without government of any kind, and some sort of a force seems to be necessary to protect the community against lawbreakers in the mad rush of people in the spring.

Emperor William to Queen Victoria supposed to be connected with the seizure of German ships.

SHOT TO DEATH FOR ASSAULT

The Fate of a Ravisher at Newport News, Virginia.

By Associated Press to the Journal. NEWPORT NEWS, Va., Jan. 5.--W. W. Watt was taken from the station house this morning by a number of respectable citizens and shot to death for criminally assaulting Mrs. T. M. Simpson.

HOT TIMES IN CONGO.

By Associated Press to the Journal. LONDON, Jan. 5.--A special to the Times from Nashville, Tenn., says: The Southern Presbyterian board of missions has received letters from missionaries stationed at Luebe, Congo Free State, Africa, giving accounts of the burning of fourteen villages and killing of ninety natives by state troops. Some of the victims were eaten by cannibals.

Around Coleskop. RENSBURG, Jan. 5.--The casualties of General French's force up to the afternoon of January 3 were five men killed and 24 wounded.

A detachment of 25 New Zealanders had a narrow escape. While advancing on Colesburg, they were directed to occupy a kopje, but were met with a hot reception from a concealed Boer force. Another body of British troops seeing their danger, doubled to the rescue of the New Zealanders, and their retreat was successfully accomplished under the cover of the guns on the hills westward.

Coleskop is now the principal scene of the fighting. The destruction of the wrecked train includes 22,000 rations and a supply of rum.

At the Boer Camp. PORTORICA, Jan. 5.--Since starting, the gnat here has costed 140,000 sovereigns. The machinery is now in full swing.

We can supply you with anything in the Optical line! If not so clearly as with your eyes of former years, something is wrong with those delicate orbs of vision. Don't hesitate to have them examined. Will candidly tell their condition for nothing. A pair of our rimless spectacles or eyeglasses will add dignity to your appearance, give you a learned look, and really improve your face.

HERMAN W. BARR, 15 STATE ST. SCIENTIFIC OPTICIAN

TRIED FOR BRIBERY

Senator Clark's Case Has Gone to the Committee

SENATOR MAT S QUAY'S CAKE IS DOUGH

Senate Committee Agrees Upon an Adverse Report in His Case By a Vote of Four to Three

By Associated Press to the Journal. WASHINGTON, Jan. 5.--The senate committee on privileges and elections today began an investigation of the charges of bribery in connection with the election of Senator Clark of Montana. Senator Clark was present with his counsel, the former Senator Faulkener. Ex-Senator Edmunds appeared as the leading counsel for the complainants.

Mr. Edmunds said the complainants expected to prove all the charges made, and to show that Clark's election was obtained by a liberal use of money. He also stated that he would enter quite thoroughly the Whiteside libel case, showing that when Clark had an opportunity to oppose in the court he had refused to answer the material questions.

Ex-Senator Faulkner made a formal statement on behalf of Clark. He reviewed politics in Montana, referring to the "Daly gang," and the Clark faction in the Democratic politics of the state. It would be shown that notwithstanding the charges of bribery against fifty persons, including members of the legislature, there had been no proceedings against any men thus involved in any Montana courts. After the hearing of the preliminary statements the committee adjourned without action. The hearing of testimony will begin tomorrow.

The Quay Case. WASHINGTON, Jan. 5.--The senate committee on privileges and elections has decided by a vote of four to three to make an adverse report upon the resolution to seat Quay.

ROBERTS CASE BEING ARGUED

WASHINGTON, Jan. 5.--Congressman Roberts began his argument today. He dwelt with special emphasis on the right of the constituency to determine on the moral character of a member.

WHEAT MARKET

CHICAGO, January 5.--May 68 1/2, 68 1/2, 68 1/2. SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 5.--Cash 100.

Frank Kellogg, late of the legal firm of Holmes & Kellogg, has closed his law office, sold his library and will take up farming in the near future.

The Musical Courier of New York says:--The Harp used by the Wilder-Harp and String Quartette possess superlative beauty of outline and proportion. In form of construction and detail it has attained a perfection of art and it occasions no surprise when one is told that its value is $1000.00

WHEAT MARKET

CHICAGO, January 5.--May 68 1/2, 68 1/2, 68 1/2. SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 5.--Cash 100.

Advertisement for Jos. Meyers & Sons, Salem's Greatest Store. Includes text: 'Did you ever', 'Read About', 'Turn About', 'Selling at cost. Going out of business', 'How About', 'Buy About', 'Look About', 'We're About', 'Think About', 'You're About'. Also features an illustration of a pair of eyes and a pair of glasses.

Advertisement for Buren & Hamilton, The Low Price Furniture House. Includes text: 'Garpet GARPETS Garpet', 'We now have the FINEST LINE OF GARPETS ever shown in Salem, and our Prices are below any other dealer in the valley.', 'For Quality, Price, and Choice of Patterns We are in the lead.', 'BUREN & HAMILTON 248 COMMERCIAL ST.'