Willamette University.

The same story of good prospects is told here. The formal opening was last Wednesday, and the attendance is said to be as large now as at any time last year. Many old students have signified their intention of coming but have not yet arrived, and several new ones are expected.

Prof. Baker's English Class.

The English seminary will have its first regular meeting next Tuesday afternoon, at 3:30 and will meet at the same place as last year, the Philodorian society hall on the third floor. Its meetings afterward will be once a week, Tuesday at the same hour. This class was attended last year by Salem ladies who were not otherwise connected with the university. Some contributed papers and took part in the conversations, while others did only the readings from week to week. This year members will be

SALEM'S EDUCATIONAL INSTITUTIONS

Public Schools Opened This Morning.

Other Schools of the City All Opening With Prospects of Large Attendance.

The city schools opened this morning with a good attendance for the first day. A meeting of the school teachers of the city was held at the east school Saturday afternoon, and they received their instructions from Supt. Yoder. The Teachers' Association was re-organized and Miss Minnetta Mager and Miss Bertha Byrd were elected president and vice-president, respectively.

Pupils were classified and enrolled at the different school buildings this morning. Each pupil was furnished with a list of books he or she will require, and dismissed until Tuesday morning, when school will commence in earnest. No collections were made today for the school savings bank but they will be commencing again next Monday.

At 1 o'clock the principals met at the East Salem school and reported to city Supt. Yoder, bringing in the enrollment at the different schools.

The total enrollment this morning, as reported to City Supt. Yoder at 1 o'clock, was as follows:

East School..... 452
Park School..... 291
Lincoln School..... 211
Central School..... 138
The principal of the North School had not yet reported.

This morning's enrollment cannot be taken as an indication of the probable attendance, as it is impossible to get the children to all come in and register the first day. It is probable that the number of pupils at each school by the last of the week will be 15 to 20 per cent larger than the figures above given.

Sacred Heart Academy.

This well known institution opened on Sept. 6th, which has proved to be rather too early, as the hop and fruit picking having interfered with the attendance. Now, that these crops are gathered the attendance is increasing rapidly. The enrollment is now about 75 and will be much higher. The prospects for the season are of the brightest.

Capital Business College.

The attendance is better than it ever has been before at this time of year and Professor Staley feels much gratified at the outlook. The short hand department has been running all summer, the commercial and business department opened two weeks ago, and all other departments of the school commence work today. The new home of the college occupying the entire second floor of the new brick recently built by P. S. Knight, on Court Street is a great improvement over the old, and the prospects for the year are bright.

Y. M. C. A.

The night school of the Y. M. C. A. will open this evening with a literary and musical program at the rooms in the Hughes block, when Mayor Bishop and A. T. Gilbert are expected to make short addresses. These evening classes have been well patronized heretofore, and the prospects indicate a large attendance this winter.

Following are the dates of the openings of the several departments:

Opening evening educational classes—Tuesday, October 23, 7:30 p.m.
Opening of Sunday afternoon meeting—Sunday, October 28, 4 p.m.
Opening of young men's gymnasium classes—Monday, October 29, 8 p.m.
Opening of business men's gymnasium classes—Tuesday, October 30, 8:15 p.m.
Opening of boys' gymnasium classes—Wednesday, October 31, 4 p.m.
The N. W. School and Business College. Professor Garland, the principal has had his quarters in the Murphy block newly kalsomined and renovated and the school is pleasantly located.

A PLAIN TALK

We are as honest in what we say, as in what we sell. We do not misrepresent in statements—we do not substitute in prescriptions. We believe that genuine "honesty" is the best policy and that no permanent success in business can be attained without confidence, hence in all our dealings with physician and patient, and general public, it has been our first aim to merit confidence. Therefore, when we tell you an article is "good", we believe it to be so, and our quarter-century experience with drugs ought to qualify us to judge intelligently along this line. If you wish the best medicines put in your prescriptions, bring them to us—if you like substitution take them elsewhere.

We never learned but one kind of Pharmacy—the honest, the d. A. number trade, our prices are right for the right goods.

In Selecting Furniture

Our solicitation is ever for the staid and sensible home buyer, and not for the frivolous, transient butterfly of fashion. Those who seek to imitate the surface appearance of aristocracy, generally wish to do so for about one-tenth the cost of that which they wish to show forth, and about half the cost of their own wholesome and original needs. "Reciprocity to our trade" is our rule both in selecting and making prices.

FIRST DOOR NORTH OF POSTOFFICE.

welcomed from outside the university as before. Members, however, will be enrolled in two classes, first those who will expect their work to count for a degree, will be assigned topics for investigation, and report their studies as required, and, second, those who may not care to receive credit but may wish to attend and follow the readings. The subject for this year is Geo. Eliot. The only necessary books will be her complete works, which have been ordered in six volume sets at $2 a set. Her entire works will be read and after this chronological survey, there will be various studies of her life, philosophy and teachings, which will broaden out to comparisons with other novelists, with a reading of representative works, and to study of the intellectual and spiritual movements of her time, from Macaulay to Tennyson. Books of biography and criticism are being ordered for the work and will be accessible to the members for study. It will be of advantage to all who intend to join the class this year, to be present at the first meeting.

Tremulous Hands.

When the nervous system is weakened, the body generally shows the symptom of tremulousness in some of its members. The hands shake, the lips twitch at the corners, the eyelids quiver involuntarily. Such a condition calls for medicine which feeds the nerves. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, acting directly on the stomach and organs of digestion and nutrition, has a wonderful influence in restoring nervous force. It quiets the nerves not by drugging them into stupor but by feeding them into strength.

The "Discovery" has restored the health of thousands of those who were utterly hopeless, giving them back natural appetite, physical vigor, healthful sleep, and mental strength. There is no alcohol in "Golden Medical Discovery" and it contains no opium, cocaine or other narcotic.

David Duggles, Esq. of Jones, Ohio Co., Kentucky, writes: "When I began taking Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery I think I had nervous or general debility of three years' duration. I took three bottles of the 'Discovery.' During the time I was taking it my sleep became more refreshing and I gained fifteen pounds weight and also gained strength every day."

Free, on receipt of stamps to pay expense of mailing only, Dr. Pierce's Medical Adviser, 1008 pages. Send 21 one-cent stamps for book in paper covers or 31 stamps in cloth binding to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

Piano Selling

Is Getting Interesting

This has been a great piano week. It takes a little time to get up steam when you're asking people to part with several hundred dollars.

Yesterday evening we sold one of those elegant Ludwigs to Dr. Albright, of Salem and Albany. We pack and ship it on Monday. It's one of the sweetest toned instruments that eyes stood on anyone's floor. There's another Ludwig there, just as sweet, in a different case.

We also sold about noon, a good second-hand Decker, delivering it that evening. Both of these buyers got bargains and big ones too, at that.

There are a number of people coming in today, Saturday, to look over the list of snaps. Among the remaining ones are two fine Fischers, the other sweet little Ludwig, several Kingsburys, the Cable, besides the Estey and Chicago Cottage Organs in several different cases and woods. Permit us to remind you again that the prices we are making on these is a bonafide reduction of from $75 to $1.50 apiece. We never do things by halves, and when we went at this piano sale it was with the purpose of moving out every instrument in the house. The prices are almost down to cost for us, and you'll not soon have the opportunity of duplicating them.

We ask you to come and see for yourself that we mean business. You'll get your pick of the cases if you come now—there's a little choice in that, always is—so don't delay.
