

TABLE BRIGHT: TRUE DELIGHT

When the young wife gives her first dinner party do you suppose there will be anything in the whole equipment of her new home that she will be quite so proud of as the brightness of the dining table sparkling in the splendor of Cut Glass and Silver. Some of the gifts you might give her on the wedding day would find inconspicuous quarters in an obscure corner, but the fine table piece of Cut Glass or the handsome article of Silver Dinner Ware will have an honored place among her real treasures. The Barr Store most earnestly invites you to see its choice and extensive stock of both Cut Glass and Silver before you choose the wedding present. A more exquisite collection of eligible wedding gift goods was never shown in Salem; the new Cut Glass—the famous Hawke's make—being particularly fine. Won't you be sure and look our stock over before choosing? We promise 'twill be worth your while.

Local Events in the Social Realm

Grand Social Event.

The concert to be given Thursday evening at the Grand Opera House, by the students of Mrs. Willman's conservatory, will be one of the unusual events of the season. There will be a rare program rendered by high class talent, and the entire matter will be free to the public. The boxes will be occupied by patrons of the school, and will be ushered in by young ladies. The stage will be decorated with palms, and two grand concert Knabe pianos will be used by the performers.

South Salem Personals.

Ed. O'Flynn is in Junction City this week.
Whit Cooper is visiting at the home of his brother, E. Cooper, in South Salem.
Mr. and Mrs. Welch and family, of Portland, are visiting at the home of their daughter, Mrs. Cooper. They are old residents of Salem, but have been living in Portland, but have come back still loyal to Salem.

PERSONALS.

Mrs. Frank Smith spent the day in Portland.

Justice C. E. Wolverton was in Albany yesterday.

John Shaw, of Mill City, was a Salem visitor today.

H. H. Ragan has gone to his Lincoln county homestead.

O. H. Burggraf, Albany's leading architect, is in the city.

Governor Chamberlain went to Portland yesterday afternoon.

Ex-County Commissioner Watson, of Turner, was in town Saturday.

City Recorder Judah spent the day at Dallas, taking in the carnival.

Wm. Bushey went home to Mehama to vote, and also to do some surveying.

Miss Alice Davey returned last night from a short visit with Portland friends.

State Fish Commissioner Van Dusen was a Salem business visitor yesterday.

Mrs. Myrtle Card, of Portland, and sister, Miss Hepburn, spent Memorial day at Salem.

The E. Lowy residence, on Front street, is offered for sale on account of Mrs. Lowy's health. She has been confined to her room for several months.

Mr. J. M. Payne left last night for San Francisco on a business trip. He was accompanied by his daughter, Mary, who will visit in Berkeley and Oakland.

Mr. O. P. Hoff, of Portland, who was appointed labor commissioner by the state board Monday, was a Salem visitor Tuesday. Mr. Hoff will move his family here, making Salem his home.

Two Fine Voices.

Hear Miss Hortense Kimball and Miss Adelaide Sutmeyer, two of the most promising young vocalists in Oregon, at the Grand Opera House Thursday evening, at Mrs. Willman's commencement concert. Everybody invited. No admission.

College of Oratory.

Dean Mabel Lankton Carter's graduating exercises of the College of Oratory will take place this evening at the First Methodist church, and by an error in a headline of The Journal. It was made to appear as a musical program, which, of course, the text corrected. The program will be principally oratory, and of the highest character.

Greater Salem Park Board.

The council on next Tuesday evening will select a Park Board for Greater Salem, composed of three persons, and it is likely that one of them will be a woman. It is proposed to take one from South Salem, one from the north part of the city and one from the east. The name of Mrs. D. J. Fry has been suggested for one of the members. The council would no doubt be glad to receive suggestions as to proper persons for the places on the board, as there will be no rush for offices without salaries, and yet the position is one of great importance to the future of the city.

Estate Appraised.

The appraisers of the estate of Theodore Odenthal, deceased, yesterday filed their report in the county court, having appraised the real property belonging to the estate at $2995, and the personal property at $3075.86. H. Hunke, William Belle and Charles Hottinger were the appraisers.

In a recent letter to Dr. Hartman, Congressman Botkin says:

"My Dear Doctor—It gives me pleasure to certify to the excellent curative qualities of your medicines—Peruna and Manalin. I have been afflicted more or less for a quarter of a century with catarrh of the stomach and constipation. A residence in Washington has increased these troubles. A few bottles of your medicine have given me almost complete relief, and I am sure that a continuation of them will effect a permanent cure."—J. D. Botkin.

Mr. L. F. Verdyer, a prominent real estate agent, of Augusta, Ga., writes: "I have been a great sufferer from catarrh of the stomach. I tried many physicians, visited a good many springs, but I believe Peruna has done more for me than all of the above put together. I feel like a new person."—L. F. Verdyer.

The most common form of summer catarrh is catarrh of the stomach. This is generally known as dyspepsia. Peruna cures these cases like magic.

If you do not derive prompt and satisfactory results from the use of Peruna, write at once to Dr. Hartman, giving a full statement of your case, and he will be pleased to give you his valuable advice gratis.

Willamette University

J. O. VanWinkle, '04, of the Medical College, is in town for a few days, visiting his friends. Since the closing of the college of medicine, in April, he has been working in the interest of the colleges of medicine and music, enrolling new students for next year. He has traveled through Eastern Oregon, as far as Idaho, and has already a large number of recruits for W. U. Van is a hustler, and he will swell the ranks of the two colleges to a marked extent next fall.

The 'varsity band made a moonlight excursion through the eastern part of the city last night. They serenaded several prominent University friends, but when they came to Dr. Coleman's their trip came to a sudden end, for the president arrested the entire outfit, and took them into the house, where he kept them for an hour. A pleasant social time was spent, and the president and Mrs. Coleman showed their appreciation by treating the boys to refreshments. The band enjoyed the impromptu reception very much, and at a late hour wended their way homeward, to dream of next day's examinations.

The students are all planning to attend the commencement exercises of the College of Oratory this evening. The three graduates have recited before many student and city audiences and have won the hearts of all by their strong, natural interpretations. The appearance of Prof. Gesner on the program is regarded as an exceptional treat, as he is regarded as an artist of rare ability. The program will be open to the public, and everybody is invited to attend. One of the graduates, Miss Parrish, has accepted the professorship of oratory at Dallas college next year, while the other two, Miss Chapler and Miss Byrne, will attend the Columbia School of Oratory, at Chicago.

Yamhill Official Goes to the Republicans—Seven Counties Complete

Later returns increase Hermann's majorities to more than 2300, and reduce the Reames vote, leaving the latter ahead in only four counties. Marion county is not yet complete, but will give Hermann nearly 200 plurality.

The total vote is about 30,000 against 45,000 last year, a remarkably large vote, considering it was an off year, and but one office to fill.

Such Music Hath Charms.
The concert given by the Interstate College of Music, under the management of Mrs. Etta Anders-Willman, at the Grand Opera House Thursday evening, will be one of the social functions of the season, and well worth attending. There will be renditions of classic music, vocal and instrumental, never surpassed in our city. Two grand concert Knabe pianos will be used, the finest ever brought to the city. The public is cordially invited. No admission charged.

Who Will be Carnival Queen

The voting on the Queen contest since the count last Saturday evening has been rather light, owing, perhaps, to the excitement of the congressional election. Miss Laura McAllister is still in the lead, with 235 votes, with Miss Schindler a close second.

Miss Ruby Cornell entered the race today with 93 votes, and from the number she has to start with, it looks as if her friends intended to elect her. Miss Cornell is employed in the secretary of state's office.

The vote stands as follows:

Miss Laura McAllister 235
Miss Emeline Schindler 235
Miss Ruth Gabrielson 105
Miss Ruby Cornell 93
Miss Olive Howe 79
Miss Cora Talkington 55
Miss Edna Hubbard 35
Miss Cora McAtee 21
