

THANKSGIVING

The swiftly speeding days have brought us once more face to face with our great national holiday—Thanksgiving. This store is grateful for the generous patronage it has enjoyed. It has certainly earned its prosperity. The fullest values have been given for every cent received. We earned your confidence by deserving it—and so we shall continue to do.

Business disaster has left no wreckage on our counters. The choicest selections—liberal variety—the newest goods—and the Best—alone satisfy us in buying for you. With every purchase you make here goes the responsible guarantee of right quality—perfect satisfaction or money back—and we shall continue along these lines. Passing Thanksgiving, we face the coming Holiday trade in a better position than ever before.

The Weather.

Tonight and Wednesday, partly cloudy and moderately cold; brisk to high easterly winds.

WHICH?

(Edmund Vance Cooke.)

Are you a trailer, or are you a trolley?
Are you tagged to a leader through wisdom and folly?
Are you Somebody Else, or You?
Do you vote by the symbol and swallow it "straight"?
Do you pray by the book, do you pay by the rate?
Do you tie your cravat by the calendar's date?
Do you follow a cue?

Are you a writer, or that which is worded?
Are you a shepherd, or one of the herded?
Which are you—a What or a Who? It sounds well to call yourself "one of the flock."
But a sheep is a sheep after all. At the block
You're nothing but mutton, or possibly stock.
Would you flavor a stew?

Are you a being and boss of your soul,
Or are you a mummy to carry a scroll?
Are you Somebody Else, or You?
When you finally pass to the heavenly wicket,
Where Peter the Scrutinious stands at his picket,
Are you going to give him a blank for a ticket?
Do you think it will do?

WE DON'T KNOW OREGON.

Here in Oregon we are apt to smile at the ignorance of Eastern people concerning our great state. This privilege we naturally suppose belongs to us, on account of our superior wisdom. Yet how many of us have even a faint conception of Oregon, its geography, climate, soil, products or resources? How many of those living west of the Cascades have anything like a true conception of the vast area across the range? It is safe to say not one in fifty. To most, the Cascade range shuts off the knowledge of the things beyond as thoroughly as it shuts off the vision. If it is thought of at all, it better name the strange metal is called "Josephinite," in honor of the county in which it is found. Samples of the metal have been sent to metallurgists and mineralogists of note in both the West and East, but thus far the metal continues to be called "Josephinite."—Coast Mail.

Feminine Philosophy.

(Washington Times.)
From all those men who think they know it all—good Lord, deliver us!
When you wish to convey the subtlest and most delicate flattery to a man ask him for advice. It isn't necessary to follow it.
The trouble with most men in love is that they want to hurry. Occasionally there is one who understands that every stage on the way is interesting and should be made the most of.

In the long migrations of the birds from north to south; in the journeys of the blacktail deer of the Rockies, when death lurks by the pathway to their summer or winter homes; in the wild stampede of buffalo that once ranged the mighty plains—we never hear of a weaker sex." Queer.

They say that a certain young woman now inspecting tenements under the tenement house department of New York had the highest marks of any one of 2,500 or so candidates. Her general average was 97, and she used to be forewoman of a pickle factory. Nice to see plain working people forge ahead sometimes.

There was once a man who was not spoiled by being lionized. His name was Daniel.
Every college boy likes to be addressed as "old man," and members of the baldheaded row always love to be called "my boy."

Climatic Cures.

The influence of climatic conditions in the cure of consumption is very much overdrawn. The poor patient, and the rich patient, too, can do much better at home by proper attention to food digestion, and a regular course of German Syrup. Free expectoration in the morning is made certain by German Syrup, so is a good night's rest and the absence of that weakening cough and debilitating night sweat. Restless nights and the exhaustion due to coughing, the greatest danger and dread of the consumptive, can be prevented or stopped by taking German Syrup liberally and regularly. Should you be able to go to a warmer climate you will find that of the thousands of consumptives there, the few who are benefited and regain strength are those who use German Syrup. Trial bottle, 25c; regular size, 75c. At all druggists. At Dr. Stone's drug stores.

Scientific Proposal.

(Philadelphia Inquirer.)
When Lord Kelvin was on his schooner yacht Lalla Rookh in the West Indian waters he got up a system of simplifying the method of signals at sea. He asked Miss Crum, whom he greatly admired, and who was the daughter of his host, if she understood his code. She said she did. "If I send you a signal from my yacht," he said, "do you think you could read it and could answer?"
"Well, I would try," she responded. The signal was sent and she did succeed in making out and transmitting the reply. The question was: "Will you marry me?" and the answer was: "Yes."

Mr. Bryan considers that the fight against his getting that $50,000 is wholly political. This may lead to the discovery that two previous fights to prevent his getting the $50,000 per annum attached to the presidency also had a good deal of politics about them.—Pittsburg Dispatch.

JOURNAL X-RAYS

J. E. Furlong killed Irving McDonald at St. Joseph, Missouri yesterday morning. The two had been drinking with a couple of actresses. The name of the murderer suggests that he took some "forty-rod" whisky.

President Schurmann, of Cornell, says students should sit on a hard chair. He does not give his reasons and it may be that the old man simply has it in for the boys.

The new gas ranges suggest the difference in English as she is spoke." An American would say "the hungry eater can have his food cooked on a gas heater," while the Englishman would put it "the ungrateful eater can get his food cooked on a gas heater."

Yesterday's dispatches say that while General Kitchener was riding, his horse threw him six miles from head quarters. They must have a breed in India that can out buck a cayuse.

During the late war General Fitz-John Porter wrote a series of articles for Harper's weekly entitled "Headquarters in the Saddle," which caused General Grant to remark that not much could be expected of a soldier who did not know a saddle was not a place for his headquarters.

A Springfield (Ill.) school teacher received the following note from the mother of one of her pupils: "Dear Mrs. You write me about whipping Sammy. I hereby give you permission to beat him up any time it is necessary to learn him lessons. He is just like his father—you have to learn him with a club. Pound nolego into him. I wante him to git it, and don't pay no atenshion to what his father says. I'll handle him."

A negro woman in Georgia twisted a mules tail on the 11th and on the 13th a dispatch from Manitoba said there was a shower of red snow there. That mule was a good kicker.

The state department has given our minister, Beupre, permission to leave Bogota. The Colombians ought to feel grateful for even this concession, as it looks as though that is about all this country will leave them.

An exchange says: A Missouri woman has proved to her satisfaction that lightning does strike in the same place more than once. Five years ago her husband was killed while standing in a field; two years later she was standing on the same spot and was struck and stunned, and last month her pet cow was grazing there and was struck and killed. This should be a pretty good bit of property to sell.

This also demonstrates that even chain lightning passes when it runs up against a woman.

A Few Pointers.

This disease may commence with an apparently harmless cough which can be cured instantly by Kemp's Balsam for the throat and lungs, which is guaranteed to cure and relieve all cases. ### To Save the Heathen.

Omaha, Nov. 16.—The Methodist missionary committee this morning decided to hold its next meeting in Boston. It apportioned $60,000 for work among the various foreign-speaking missions in the United States, including $20,000 for Porto Rico and $15,000 for Hawaii.
