

SALEM RAILWAY MATTERS

Special Meeting to Hear the Report of the Falls City Committee

The Salem Electric Light and Power Plant Changes Hands Once More

The Salem Commercial Club will meet Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock, sharp, at the police court rooms to hear a report from the special committee on the Falls City, Dallas & Salem railroad. This is a very important meeting, and Chairman Tilton Ford will report the findings of the committee, which has been at considerable trouble to get at the facts.

The committee has been to Falls City, and have also made some investigation as to securing right of way and terminal facilities in West Salem. The meeting Tuesday evening will probably will decide the fate of this matter, and those who are interested in the welfare of the city should attend.

Chief Engineer Covert, of Dallas, is expected to be present, and give all information that is proper to come before a public meeting. Salem people should turn out and help this enterprise if they have any faith in their town as a railroad center. The Falls City country would open more trade to our community than any other line.

A committee of the Independence Improvement Club is in the city today, to meet a committee of the Salem Commercial Club on the matter of extending the Monmouth and Independence motor line to Salem. The committee is composed of C. A. Hurley, J. M. Stark and Walter Lyons, and the Salem Club committee consists of F. N. Derby, Geo. W. Johnson, H. W. Meyers, J. L. Stockton and Mayor Waters. The gentlemen met at 2 o'clock at Mr. Derby's office, and went over the details of the proposed extension. It would tap the Falls City trade, just the same as the Dallas road, and connect with Dallas by the S. P. Co. It is claimed for the Independence line that they would have but eight miles of track to build to reach this city, as against 14 to Dallas. The time is past when these towns in the valley avoid a railroad connection with Salem, but now all are seeking to connect up with the Capital City.

Z. J. Riggs left last evening for Corvallis, where the State Board of Pharmacy, of which he is a member, will hold a meeting to examine a number of the O. A. C. graduates. The board will also hold a session in Portland.

Miss Jennie Griffith Dead.

Miss Jennie Griffith died at her home in the Waldo Hills Saturday night of heart disease, after an illness of less than a week. Deceased was born in Marion county 28 years ago on the home place where she died. Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Griffith, survive her, as do also three brothers and three sisters, Dr. J. C. Griffith and Dr. L. F. Griffith, of this city, and Carl C. Griffith, who is studying medicine in Portland, and Mrs. Geo. A. Peebles, of Weston; Mrs. L. H. McMahon, of this city, and Mrs. A. W. Giesy. For many years deceased had suffered from heart trouble, but was always cheerful and was always known to all of her acquaintances for her sunny disposition. The old homestead in the Waldo Hills was named by her "The Lilacs," and is one of the landmarks of Marion county.

The funeral will be held at the residence on Tuesday afternoon, and will be in charge of Rev. P. S. Knight, of this city.

Sunday Band Concert.

The band concert at Marion square yesterday afternoon was one of the best of the year, and the organization is showing marked improvement under the able leadership of Prof. McElroy. He was assisted yesterday by Mr. Davidson, a trombone player of ability, and Mr. Cochran, a splendid cornetist. Both gentlemen will probably be retained during the summer, if suitable arrangements can be made. The concert was enjoyed by a large number of people.

Sunday's Games.

At Albany Salem 5, Albany 4.

The Raglans covered themselves with glory at Albany last week by taking the four games of the series, getting two shut-outs, and otherwise demonstrating their superiority as tossers. They arrived home this morning, and will go up against the Eugene "Blues" at the home grounds this week, the first time these two teams have played this year on the home grounds. The games will be watched with interest by the fans, as these teams are the leaders, Albany having dropped to third place, owing to her poor showing last week.

The feature of the Sunday game was a home run by "SI" Davis in the tenth inning, winning the game for Salem.
