The Raglans took three of the five games this season, closing on the afternoon of the Fourth with a brilliant victory over the Albany team, with a score of 5 to 1, in one of the best played games of the year. It was a pitcher's battle, and in some respects Gregory had the best of it. He struck out 10 men, and only issued one pass. Five safe hits were made off him. But one was a home run, when two men were on bases and it was costly. Three errors at critical times put him in the hole after the sixth inning, although he had held the locals down to one measly little hit up to that time. Emerson was effective, but he was in several bad holes at various times, and it required some pretty heavy work to extricate himself.

Long running catches of high flies by Rupert, Williams, Johnson and Davis were features of the game. The score was as follows:

Thin People.
Thin, scrawny, fleshless people are usually nervous, irritable, bilious and dyspeptic. Every change of weather affects them. If they happen to eat or drink anything containing disease germs, it develops at once, and they are the first subjects of any contagious disease coming in the neighborhood. Their life is a continual worry in their efforts to avoid exposure to damp and malarious atmosphere. People can gain from one to three pounds of solid, healthy flesh per week by the use of Dr. Gunn's Blood and Nerve Tonic, it puts their system in condition to resist sickness. This Tonic is in tablet form, to be taken right after meals. Sold by all druggists for 75c per box or three boxes for $2. It turns the food you eat into strong rich blood, this prevents and cures disease. People tell us who have used the Tonic that it cures them, then keeps them from getting sick afterward.

Only a Hackdriver.
The "romantic" wedding of Grace Wright, a Union county girl to a "millionaire," which the Baker City and Union papers have exploited so voluminously, falls flat. The "millionaire" did chores for his board last winter at the hotel owned by Miss Wright's father, and he turns out to be a hackdriver, which is no disgrace, if he is a good one.—Pendleton East Oregonian.

SALEM WOMAN ABROAD

Tells of the Beauties of the British Columbia Scenery

Victoria, B. C., June 29, 1904.

I will try and tell you of my trip to Victoria, and what a beautiful place it is. I left Seattle Wednesday at 8 o'clock on the Rosalie, and came by way of Port Angeles. I took a berth and had a good night's rest. I got up at 4:30 a. m., and went out on deck and saw a glorious sight, the sun just touching the snow on the Olympic mountains, and the water was as calm as one could wish for; then we stopped at Port Angeles about half an hour, stayed on deck until we got to Victoria. I never saw anything anywhere equal the view at the approach of the Victoria harbor. The morning was perfect; my friends met me at the boat, and I had such a kind welcome. We took a car out to their home, and it was such a pleasant ride. I think Victoria has the prettiest homes anywhere on the coast. After breakfast we went through the bush and picked some wild flowers, some of the prettiest I have ever seen; then I climbed up on an old oak stub and took a view of the town, and took a view of the town, and I think I never saw such a pretty place, the rocks and the beautiful homes and the roads and driveways. And the soft breeze is so refreshing; one never feels tired here. Then we went up on the rocks, and from there we could get a view of Craig Darroch or Dunsuir Castle, as everyone calls it here. We came home, had dinner and then in the evening we took a boat ride to the gorge by moonlight. The gorge is about seven miles long and I shall never forget it. It is one of the most beautiful places I have ever seen. It is an extension of Victoria harbor, through which the tide rushes. The water is very warm, and in the evening the beach is lined with camp fires and people in bathing suits. There is one small place in the gorge which is very narrow and when the tide is coming in it is a very hard place to row a boat through as the water seems to boil up like foam. It is a very easy place for one to get a bath if they should lose their cars. Over this place is a stout bridge for a driveway. The same evening we went down to Oak bay, another beautiful place, there I saw the wreck of the Chalm and got a piece of rock to take home with me and a few shells.

Saturday evening we went to an entertainment and I can't begin to tell you how much I enjoyed myself. Sunday morning we went to the English church, which is a very pretty church in the inside, and the music was grand. When the services were out we walked home and no one could ever walk through the city of Victoria without recognizing that it is a city of homes. You see comfort everywhere. People live here to enjoy themselves. Victoria is not a business place, for everywhere you take time and you don't go down the street without seeing happy faces everywhere. In the evening we went to the M. E. church; it is a very large church and very beautiful. The pastor gave such a good sermon. I went home feeling like I was really at home in Salem again, in our own church, for I think there is no church like it, even if it is not so beautiful. Monday morning we went for a bicycle ride; we went down by the parliament buildings to Beacon Hill park; the roads were simply grand and such a grand view of the mountains and the beach rocks. I am in love with them. There is such lovely big oaks here. The park is a beautiful place, with artificial lakes and a fine collection of beasts and birds and the sea shore is something grand; and how I enjoyed the ride, no one can know or realize. I had a fine coast down hill to Oak bay and then we came home and in the evening we went on a moonlight excursion. We took the train to Sidney, an hour's ride, and when we took the boat back to Victoria, up the straight of Arrow, and a grand sight, the moon was beautiful and we had such a good view of the islands. We had two or three hours on the water we took their train home and it was about 1:15 a. m. when we arrived. Today I have been laughing and sleeping and resting, for tonight and tomorrow we are going to the government buildings and have a look at them.

Well, I must close and get ready for dinner, for we are going for a ride at 7 o'clock.
