HOW IT STICKS.

Salem Has Found It Hard to Shake Off.

Hard to bear, harder to get rid of, is an itching skin complaint. Eczema or itching piles. Doan's ointment relieves and cures. All itchiness of the skin. Scores of people endorse this statement.

Mrs. Dr. M. Amos, residing at 1111 East Second street, Albany, says: "I had for quite a long time a sore over my eye, and, while it was not painful, it was very annoying, and I wanted to rid myself of it. I happened to read an advertisement about Doan's ointment, and got a box. Its use cured me. The sore entirely healed up. I know that Doan's ointment does all that is claimed for it. I have used Doan's kidney pills for dull heavy aching across my loins, and, while they did not cure me, I think them a very good remedy. You may refer to me as one who can recommend Doan's Kidney Pills and Doan's ointment."

Plenty more proof like this from Salem people. Call at Dr. Stone's drug store, and ask what his customers report.

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

PENLAND JURY FAILED TO AGREE

give warning when that was changed. If the opening was left for a passage way she had a right to pass through, but if it was not left for a passage way, she had no right to go through. If it was left open way for foot passengers it was an implied invitation to pass through. If they found for the plaintiff they must estimate the number of years Mrs. Penland would possibly have lived and the amount she might have earned and saved during her life as the measure of damages. The jury then retired.

After an all-night session, the jury failed to reach an agreement, and were dismissed.

It is reported on the street that the jury stood eleven to one for plaintiff. The case will probably be tried again at this term of court, early next week, if a new jury can be secured by that time.

AMUSEMENTS.

TONIGHT.

Edison—Continuous Vaudeville.

COMING ATTRACTIONS.
Grand—"The Husking Bee."

San Toy.

"San Toy," the Chinese musical comedy, was at the opera house last night, and the people of Salem turned out en masse to see the production.

It is a gorgeous affair, carries a huge amount of scenery and a large company. The plot is stronger than usually runs through such entertainments, and the star is as good as they make them.

The chorus is fairly good, the tenor section being especially fine, while the dances and marches were neat and snappy.

James T. Powers is the show. As "Li," the pilfering Chink, he does the part to the queen's taste and then some. His jokes are new, action in the same category, and he has a real good voice. The laughing did not break out in spots, when the smooth Celestial cavorted around, but was a general affliction. What would "San Toy" be without "Li" and his English maid.

Miss Margaret McKinney was "Dudley," the maid, and she easily eclipsed the others of her sex. She was not overly handsome, but sprightly and vivacious, and does the best she can to get the merriment right into the very lap of the audience.

The remainder of the cast rounded out the play and made it one of the most acceptable offerings since the Grand has entered to the public.

"The Huskin' Bee."

The people taking part in the production of that exceptionally clever musical farce comedy, "The Huskin' Bee," are working hard to make this production the amateur affair of the season. The special scenery for the staging of the comedy has arrived, and is very elaborate. The music throughout the piece is catchy in the extreme. The dialogue is brisk and spirited, and not a dull moment is allowed to creep into the evening's fun. The cast includes the cleverest of local talent. The young ladies are all very attractive, and the young gentlemen full of music and comedy. The natural aptitude of the local amateurs, taken with the able tutorage of Miss Thompson, will result in a performance that will make the average professional seem quite ordinary. "Dorothy Doughnut," the old maid of the play, has discovered that it is leap year, and she does not hesitate to make it known during the huskin'. O'Flanagan is another prominent character on that occasion, and gets in his work when he hypnotizes Buck Strawpile, who comes near losing his life by eating too much. Among the many specialties is an old-fashioned dance by Mr. Upland Hay and Mrs. Cornhopper. The whole evening full of fun and laughter.

The program at the Edison changes tonight.

Miss Nettie Blackmore, Minneapolis, tells how any young woman may be permanently cured of monthly pains by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

"YOUNG WOMEN:—I had frequent headaches of a severe nature, dark spots before my eyes, and at my menstrual periods I suffered untold agony. A member of the lodge advised me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, but I only scorned good advice and felt that my case was hopeless, but she kept at me until I bought a bottle and started taking it. I soon had the best reason in the world to change my opinion of the medicine, as each day my health improved, and finally I was entirely without pain at my menstruation periods. I am most grateful."—NETTIE BLACKMORE, 28 Central Ave., Minneapolis, Minn.

Painful Periods

are quickly and permanently overcome by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. The above letter is only one of hundreds of thousands which prove this statement to be a fact. Menstruation is a severe strain on a woman's vitality, — if it is painful something is wrong. Don't take narcotics to deaden the pain, but remove the cause — perhaps it is caused by irregularity or womb displacements, or the development of a tumor. Whatever it is, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is guaranteed to cure it.

If there is anything about your case about which you would like special advice, write freely to Mrs. Pinkham. She will treat your letter as strictly confidential. She can surely help you, for no person in America can speak from a wider experience in treating female ills. She has helped hundreds of thousands of women back to health. Her address is Lynn, Mass., and her advice is free. You are very foolish if you do not accept her kind invitation.

Details of Another Case.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—Ignorance and carelessness is the cause of most of the sufferings of women. I believe that if we properly understood the laws of health we would all be well, but if the sick women only knew the truth about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, they would be saved much suffering and would soon be cured.

"I used it for five months for a local difficulty which had troubled me for years, and for which I had spent hundreds of dollars in the vain endeavor to remedy. My life forces were being sapped, and I was daily losing my vitality.

"Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound cured me completely, and I am now enjoying the best of health, and am most grateful, and am too pleased to endorse such a great remedy."—MISS JENNIE L. EDWARDS, 604 H St., N. W., Washington, D. C.

Mrs. Pinkham, whose address is Lynn, Mass., will answer cheerfully and without cost all letters addressed to her by sick women.

LISTON CASE IS DISMISSED

The suit of Celeste Liston versus the City of Salem, for damages received by plaintiff from a defective sidewalk, was called up for trial this forenoon, and, upon motion of counsel for the city, and by consent of plaintiff, the suit was granted.

Police Court Docket.

The police court docket is as follows:
Frank Jones, vagrant, 5 days.
Tito Lugo, vagrant, 5 days.
Elmer Howe, vagrant, 5 days.
Frank McMillan, vagrant, 5 days.
John Sykes, drunk, $5, paid.
