CHINESE VISIT CHICAGO

Say They Have Learned Much That Will Aid in Making China Great

Chicago, March 6.—Prince T'ai Tse, cousin of the present emperor of China; and Commissioners Shang Chi Hong, Li Cheng To, and Colonel Chien Sheh Lin, with a retinue of secretaries, interpreters and servants, arrived here today, and were taken to the University of Chicago and the stock yards. They deny the rumors of the death of the Dowager Empress, and declare their is no rupture in the party. Their spokesman said: "We have learned much, and expect to learn much more. Things we learn may make China the greatest commercial nation. We think other nations cannot teach China the science of government."

Will Be No War.

Washington, March 6.—Senator Hale, of Maine, declared in a speech today there would be no war with China. He declared that the sending of troops to the Philippines, to prepare for exigencies in China would "prove a declaration of war against a friendly power." He denounced the general staff of the army.

Trenton, N. J., March 6.—The right of Judge Bergen, of the county court, to grant a rule to show why a new trial should not be granted to Mrs. Tolla, of Muckensack, the Italian murderess, was denied today by the court of errors. An appeal will now be made to the court of pardons. Her reprieve expires Monday.

She was last seen on Hubbard, where she went mountain-climbing with the children. Search was kept up all night by a large posse. She was found a 9 o'clock this morning near Riverside, in a demented condition. She had walked all night in the fields.

RANIER TAKES A SMOKE

Seattle, Wash., March 6.—Huge clouds of steam and smoke were emitted from Mount Rainier this morning. Thousands of people are watching it. It comes in puffs, then clears away, and then comes again. Observers at the weather bureau state the university is watching it with intense excitement.

PACKERS TALKED FREELY

Chicago, March 6.—Chief Statistician Durand resumed the stand in the packers' case this morning. He said the packers gave all the information desired concerning freight rates. He said the packers offered every facility for investigation.

CHICAGO AND HIGH LICENSE

Chicago, March 6.—By the positive vote of 40 to 28, the city council Monday passed an ordinance raising the annual saloon license from $500 to $1000, and by that token the crusaders against the crime waves that have swept Chicago this winter won one of the greatest victories scored in years. Public interest in the proceedings was intense, and thousands of people, unable to force their entrance to the council chamber, packed the hallways and corridors outside. Scores of policemen fought with the mob of disappointed men and women who sought to witness the proceedings, and on several occasions the crowd became so belligerent that the iron gates leading to the council room were broken down.

When the result of the vote was announced there was an improvised jubilation, the like of which has not been seen here for a long time. The passage of the ordinance means that the revenues from saloon will be increased by $2,500,000 or more; that 1000 men will be added to the present police force, and that probably a thousand saloons, many of which were the haunts of thieves and hold-up men, will be wiped out of existence.

SEATTLE HOLDS ELECTION

Republican and Municipal Ownership Tickets Only in the Field

Seattle, Wash., March 6.—The municipal election here today is anticipated will be very close. Riplinger, Republican; Moore, municipal ownership candidate for mayor, are both on purely local platforms. There is no Democratic ticket in the field. Thirteen councilmen are to be elected.

Seattle, Wash., March 6.—The weather is fine, but a light vote is being cast, which is considered favorable to the Republican ticket. There seems to be no wild enthusiasm over the municipal ownership, which is now almost sure of defeat. The phenomena on Mt. Rainier, according to Prof. Landes, of the University of Washington, is due to atmospheric conditions, which are not unusual at this time of the year.

TENNY WAS NOT DOPED

(Four O'Clock Edition.)

San Francisco, March 6.—City Chemist Both, reported he found no poison in the stomach of Harry Tenny, the fighter, who died following the bout with Neil. This sets at rest the theory that Tenny was doped. A long list of witnesses has been summoned for the inquest, which will be held tomorrow morning. Tenny was a minor, and there is a possibility of his parents bringing a damage suit against the fight promoters.

Mrs. Tengebaum, mother of Tenny, the dead fighter, today called on District Attorney Langdon and asked for warrants for the arrest of Neil, Referee Roach and all the seconds, on the charge of murder, based on the ground that the fight itself was a felony. The district attorney decided to wait until the inquest was completed before issuing the warrants.

IDAHO MURDER TRIAL

Boise, Idaho, March 6.—The grand jury, at Caldwell, filed into court this morning, and the foreman handed a package of indictments to the judge, and retired to resume its duties. But two indictments were made public. They were for Joe Clark, for murder, and Calvin Taylor, for assault with a deadly weapon. Both prisoners were arraigned, and their attorney appeared to defend them. It is stated that Moyer, Pettibone, Haywood, Orchard, Adams and several others have been indicted. The court refused to even permit the number of indictments to be given out, until the parties had been arraigned, but the information leaked out that nine true bills were found in the Steunenberg murder case. The defendants' attorneys are present, and will demand immediate arraignment, to attack any weak places in the indictments. The prisoners will probably be taken to Caldwell tomorrow for arraignment, when the nature of the charge will be definitely known.

Beautifying the Parks.

Marked improvement and increased beauty are daily added to the appearance of Wilson avenue by Park Commissioner Manning and his assistants. The paths are being graveled with decomposed granite, and the carpet of green is undergoing the rolling process, that the grass may be cut more easily. The work makes the postoffice grounds look like 30 cents. The old hymn says: "God moves in a mysterious way His wonders to perform." This is undoubtedly true, and our great and goodly Uncle Samuel; he of the long-tailed coat and tight-striped pants, has been, is now, and perhaps always will be almost divine in moving in the same mysterious way.

An edict issued today declares the report was put in circulation by traitors, and says China needs the friendship of all the powers. It reproves students for mingling in politics, and orders officials to protect foreigners or suffer direct penalties. It has sent troops south to stop the riots.

GRAND JURY TO ACT

(Four O'Clock Edition.)

New York, March 6.—District Attorney Jerome appeared before the grand jury this afternoon and presented evidence based on his own investigation of the report of the Armstrong committee. He requested jurors to give the keenest consideration, looking to the indictments of certain insurance officials, charging them with grand larceny. The jury asked the court questions on hypothetical cases about political contributions by insurance companies, to get instructions as to law.

The court warned the jury to be cautious, and not be guided by public clamor, but to weigh the case with great deliberation.

MODERN DENTISTRY

IS PAINLESS

When a patient comes to my office he isn't afraid of the terrible nerve racking pain that usually goes with dental practice.

When I treat decayed teeth, I do it without discomfort or pain, and if extraction is necessary, not a touch of agony comes to the patient.

Do other dentists do this? Do they claim to do it? Then, if I can bring you and your friends the boon of painless dentistry, shouldn't I tell you about it? That's why I believe in advertising. That's why I pay for valuable newspaper space—that you may know that painless dentistry is the best; that I guarantee my work and charge only half as much as the old-style dentists.

Crowns, $5.00; Plates, $5.00; Fillings, 50¢.

I am giving away a $90 diamond ring July 1st to some one of my patients. It might be you. Who knows?

Dr. B. E. Wright, The Painless Dentist

Office hours, 8 a. m. to 5 p. m.; 7 p. m. to 8 p. m. Sundays, 10 a. m. to 12 m. Steenloff building, Court street.
