THE LEGISLATIVE TICKET.

Under the direct primary system there are nineteen candidates offered in this county from which to select five representatives in the next legislature. It can be said that the gentlemen offering themselves to serve forty days at three dollars a day comprise more than average ability among their number.

The people should try and center on five men, regardless of locality, who not only can represent the people, but REPRESENT THINGS TO THE PEOPLE about as they are.

A strong ticket will be needed in the campaign, as well as in the legislature to represent not only the Republican party, but the people of Marion county.

Unless a reform program can be agreed upon, and Republicans put back of it who are heart and soul opposed to continuing the graft, the next legislature will grind out the same grist as heretofore.

LOWELL'S CAMPAIGN.

Stephan A. Lowell, of Peedleton, met with a very favorable reception in his opening campaign speech at Salem from Republicans generally.

Of course, the people who regard the senatorship as a private political preserve didn't like his breaking in here.

They did not attend his meeting at his organ, and otherwise manifested their displeasure at his appearance.

They passed the word around that he was a boister, and was not wanted as a Republican candidate for that office. BUT LOWELL GOES ON.

He sustains Roosevelt, talks for direct election of a senator, and espouses popular Republican principles that do not please the grafters.

OTHER WAYS WILL BE FOUND TO HEAD OFF LOWELL. HE IS NOT WANTED. HE IS TOO CLEAN. HE TALKS OUT TO THE PEOPLE. A MUEZZED CANDIDATE MUST BE HEAD.

If a man can talk to the people, get their votes and lead in the United States senate without a barrel, what will become of the hold-up artists, of the patronage peddlers and senate makers on the old line.

Like Demetrius, of the Ephesians, their occupation will be gone.

It is to be remembered and particularly by those religiously and charitably inclined, that Hon. John H. Aitkin, of Huntington, now seeking the nomination on the Republican ticket for state treasurer, has liberally assisted more calls upon public charity than any man in Eastern Oregon. He is a banker and also president of the largest commercial institution in the state of Oregon, yet his purse has always been open to the appeals of misery and of distressed humanity.

A YOUNG MAN REMARKED THE OTHER DAY "THERE IS NO USE IN MY STARTING A SAVINGS ACCOUNT, I AM GETTING ONLY $8 A WEEK." WE SAY TO SUCH A YOUNG MAN; SUPPOSE YOU WERE ONLY GETTING $7.00 A WEEK, YOU WOULD STILL GET ALONG, WOULDN'T YOU? WHY NOT DEPOSIT THAT $7.00 A WEEK TO A SAVINGS ACCOUNT THAT WOULD EARN INTEREST? ONE DOLLAR WILL OPEN AN ACCOUNT. BEGIN NOW.

manly. Solicitors for the various churches have never appealed to him in vain. He gives to all of them, regardless of their faith. To the Salvation Army he has been a friend at all times.

Let us go a little further. As the representative of a large aggregation of capital and president of one of the largest mercantile establishments in the Northwest, Mr. Aitkin has loaned hundreds of thousands of dollars to home builders and needy ranchers who were struggling to get on their feet. He has protected his bank, but to his everlasting credit be it said he has never foreclosed a mortgage on some poor man's meager holdings nor forced a helpless debtor to the wall. No sorrowful widow with her hungry children have ever gone supperless to bed through the action of his bank or his big mercantile establishment. On the contrary, the store was always open to them and their personal credit was extended almost indefinitely.

During the hard times a few years ago when the prices of stock were low, it was within his power to break large numbers of stockmen, and take advantage of conditions, and several of the stockmen offered to let him have their stock for his claim against them, but he helped them through the hard times and today those men are among the leading stockmen in Eastern Oregon.

This is the sort of a man whose friends have virtually forced him into the race for the Republican nomination for state treasurer. Individual comparisons are always odious, but the records can speak. Have the worthy gentlemen who oppose him in the race very much to offer as against a life record like this? Not that we have heard of.

Mr. Aitkin has made money for his company and money for his bank, but it has all been legitimate and clean money; not one cent of it having been wrung from the distressed and poverty stricken—the pauper and the widow.

Mr. Aitkin proposes an amendment forcing the state treasurer to deposit the funds under direction of a state board, the interest to be paid to the state. This may be harking back to the strenuous days of the ancient Spartans, but it is honest and the people know it. All Mr. Aitkin desires is the flat salary paid by the state for his services—not the immense "graft" gathered in the state treasurer in the way of interest on personal deposits of money, really the money of the state, and no part of their personal prerogatives.

Your Cold

How will your cold be tonight? Worse, probably. How about tomorrow? The trouble is, colds always tend downward. Stop this downward tendency with Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. Your doctor will tell you why it can do this. Ask him all about it. Ask him if he has anything better for coughs and colds. Then follow his advice, whatever it is.

DOUBLE ELECTION EXPENSES. The New Primary Law Adds to the Public as Well as Private Expenses.

The primary nominating election on April 20th is conducted the same as the general election, which follows as before, on the first Monday in June. The election expenses chargeable to the county are thereby doubled, as the primaries are supplied with ballots, stationery, etc., just as the judges and clerks are paid at public expense. The new law adds considerably to the work of the county clerk's office. The county clerk must send out supplies to each of the 35 precincts of the county before April 20th. The supplies consist of the following articles: One package containing white ballots for the Republican party. One package containing blue ballots for the Democratic party. One package containing colored ballots for the Republican party. One package containing colored ballots for the Democratic party. One package containing two poll books, 10 tally sheets and 25 official seals. One package containing three pens and pen holders, five indelible copying pencils, three bottles of ink, three blotting pads, two needles and string, one stick sealing wax and six brass chips. Also two packages containing the two ballot boxes and their keys. The contents of most of these packages are enclosed in heavy manila envelopes, 12x18 inches. All of which have to be endorsed by filling in a number of blanks. All paraphernalia and red tape must be furnished at the expense of the county to place in nomination men in the leading political parties on the 20th of April.

CALL OF THE WILD

C. H. Chalcraft, superintendent of the Indian school at Chemawa, went to Portland on the local train yesterday morning, en route north to intercept a runaway student from the school. A girl who came to the school from Montana about three months ago for a three years' course escaped from the school on Monday evening, and left Salem on the early morning train Tuesday. Her brother, who lives at Bremerton, Washington, is supposed to have aided her. He wrote to Mr. Chalcraft, asking that his sister be allowed to visit him at once. Mr. Chalcraft refused, stating that she could go during the summer vacation. So she took French leave. Telegrams were sent to intercept the two Indians at Goble.

A Hopeful Outcome. William Allen White says that the most amusing "personal" note that ever he came across in a country newspaper was that which last year caught his eye while reading a Wisconsin paper. The item was something like this: "Niels Anderson met with a painful accident last week, a fishhook becoming entangled in his eye. Niels is being attended by Dr. Phil Norton, who says his eye will come out all right." --Harper's Weekly.

A Boon to the Bilious

Are you compelled to deny yourself many wholesome foods because you think they make you bilious? Do you know that your condition is more to blame than the foods? Your liver and stomach need attention more than the diet. When you find yourself suffering with a bilious attack, take and all annoying symptoms will soon disappear. They settle the stomach, regulate the liver and exercise the bowels. Their good effects are felt immediately. Beecham's Pills mingle with the contents of the stomach and make easy work of digestion. The nourishing properties of the food are then readily assimilated and the residue carried off without irritating the intestines or clogging the bowels. Beecham's Pills should be taken whenever there is sick headache, furred tongue, constipation, sallow skin or any symptoms that indicate an inactive liver.
