SKIDOO WAS A RIPE PIPPIN

Tired Soul, Wake Up and Come to the Great Festival the Elks Are Giving---It Will Help Some

R 500 beautiful Willamette valley girls, Two bands and an orchestra; Cold summer drinks and delicious ices; 100 amusing and original stunts; More music and more girls; More ice cream and more pretty girls Take as often as you have the chance. Don't shake it; it will stir itself

B. P. O. E., M. D., S. K. E. D. E.

This is the favorite prescription for the celebrated Elks' Skidoo. It is just what Dr. George Waters, the renowned funopapist, ordered. It's good for that tired feeling and the children cry for it. Like they do for Dr. Pitcher's Castoria.

Yes, that in part is the Elks' Skidoo. Last night the great festival of the Salem lodge of Elks was at the zenith of its glory. Bright lights were flashing. Red fire was burning and a myriad of colored lanterns were shedding their kaleidoscopic glare over a thousand happy people. It was a grand success. The first night came as a surprise. The people were not looking for anything so good. The second night was a revelation. In the classic language of the immortal bard of Dahomey, "It had anything skinned that ever touched Salem."

SALEM IS CELEBRATING IN STYLE

Her Sister Towns United With Her to Make It the Greatest Celebration Ever Held in the Willamette Valley

Grand and glorious are adjectives that are being used to death these days, but when referring to the celebration of the nation's natal day as it will be celebrated by the Capital city they are peculiarly appropriate, and they ring out with true significance.

Verily it will be a great and glorious Fourth of July celebration to which Salem invites the west.

At the meeting of the various committees, held at the city hall last evening, much enthusiasm was manifested over the fine prospects for an eventful Fourth. The parade as planned will be the largest seen in Salem and it will be novel and unique in its features.

There will be plenty of music to enliven the occasion and to stir the patriotism of visitors. Bands from Salem, Woodburn, Monmouth, Victor Point and Summit have been engaged to furnish music and the air will be vibrant with harmony.

The car of state was arranged for last evening and 48 little girls will represent the stars on Old Glory's field of blue. They will be dressed in immaculate white and each will bear the name of one of the states. Provision was also made for the representation of the territories.

The parade will be under the command of Adjutant General Finzer and Adjutant Loomis; Colonel Page will be the marshal for the first division, with Lieutenant J. D. Scott as aide; the second division will be under Captain Charles Dick, with Chauncey Bishop as aide; Frank T. Wrightman will have charge of the third division and his aide will be J. W. Wilson; the fourth division will be in charge of D. W. Gibson.

J. W. Holman was chosen color-bearer. The procession will be more extensive than at first expected. Company M, O. N. G., will be out with 60 men, the Chemawas battalion will muster 200 men, the fire department will be well represented and approximately 30 floats will be in the parade.

Altogether it will be one of the most impressive civic parades ever witnessed in the city. Here follows a partial list of the floats:

- Goddess of Liberty.
- The Union—48 states and territories
- Flower float.
- Salem Fire Department.
- Yew Park Fire Department.
- The Toggery.
- The Mitchell, Lewis & Staver Co.
- Chase & Skiffe.
- C. M. Eppley, the g beer.
- Salem Soap Works.
- Salem Woolen Mill Store.
- The Spa.
- L. U. Josse.
- Roth & Graber.
- Patton Bros.
- Geo. F. Rodgers.
- Oregon Nursery Co.
- E. L. Irvin & Co.
- Stockton & Co.
- Steg, Cames & Co.
- Salem Box Factory.
- E. C. Cross, meat market.
- Doe & Kurtz, meat market.
- Geo. Fendrich, meat market.
- Singer Sewing Machine Co.
- The Variety Store.
- W. A. Irvin & Co.
- Salvation Army.
- Salem Fence Works.
- Carpenter's Union.
- Oregon Shoe company.

The position of the floats in the parade has not as yet been definitely arranged, but the line of march will be thus: Formation at the intersection of Front and Court streets, near the Cottage hotel. The cavalcade will then proceed up Court street to Cottage street, thence to State street down to Commercial, and from there to Marion square, where the program will be given. All organizations intending to take part in the parade will please report to Major Loomis at 10 o'clock; also floats expecting to have a place in the parade.

At Marion square there will be music by the Salem Military band, patriotic singing by a trained chorus of mixed voices. The Declaration of Independence will be read by Miss May Chapler of this city, and ex-Governor T. T. Geer will deliver the oration.

Ball games have been arranged to be played on Willamette field at 9:30 a. m. and at 2 p. m.

The street races will take place on State and Commercial streets and will consist of bicycle, horse, potato and wheelbarrow races and all the street sports that usually accompany a Fourth of July celebration.

One of the most attractive features of the day will be the baby show, where fond mothers will have one glorious, good time.

In the evening there will be boat and launch races and a grand display of fireworks.

The crowds that will pour into Salem on that day bid fair to break the record. Albany and Eugene will send large delegations and Independence and Corvallis will furnish their quotas. Then will come the boaters from Woodburn, Gervais, Aurora, Mt. Angel and Stayton and these will enter into the spirit of the day with enthusiasm. The old people, too, are planning to be here and family picnics will be the order of the day.

The committees on entertainments has planned amusements for all and there will be something to be enjoyed by young and old. Salem will do herself proud in the hospitality she will accord to the visitors within her gates.

The Salem fire department will give an exhibition fire drill and that many will prove interesting.

To accommodate the crowds, the parks are to be provided with plenty of seats. A number of special policemen will be appointed to preserve order and to guard against accidents. In brief, Salem will zealously see that her reputation as a royal and cordial host is not questioned.

Contributions were made to make the celebration a success as follows:

THE LIST OF RACES AND PRIZES

Chicago, July 3.—The Fourth of July harvest is on in good earnest in Chicago. Sunday four persons suffered injuries from the deadly toy cannon, pistol and cannon cracked. Violation of Mayor Dunne's orders against premature celebration of the Fourth spread through the city, and scarcely more than ten minutes passed in any of the more populous districts without the bursting of some kind of noise-maker. The police, despite this condition, made only one arrest, but at the various headquarters it was asserted that a sharp lookout was being kept for violators.

Baseball Players and Foot Racers!
Louis J. Kruger, ex-champion long-distance foot racer of Germany and Holland, writes, October 27, 1901: "During my training of eight weeks' foot races at Salt Lake City, in April last, I used Ballard's Snow Liniment to my greatest satisfaction. Therefore, I highly recommend Snow Liniment to all who are troubled with sprains, bruises or rheumatism." 35c, 50c and $1. Sold by D. J. Fry.

An Important Suit.

Attorney General Crawford is engaged in preparing an answer for the defendants in the suit instituted some time ago in the circuit court of Multnomah county by Eleanor Olmstead against the Traders' Insurance Company, Frank I. Dunbar, secretary of state, and Charles S. Moore, treasurer.

In brief, the secretary of state and the treasurer are made defendants for the reason that insurance companies doing business in Oregon have to deposit collateral for a certain sum with the secretary and treasurer as security that they will pay claims to Oregon policy holders. The answer that the attorney general is preparing asks that all Oregon people having claims against this company take steps to have them determined and adjudicated, and asks that the court decree that the secretary of state and the state treasurer be instructed to sell a sufficient amount of the securities deposited by the insurance company to pay these claims.

New Navy Posters.

Washington, July 3.—The navy department is about to get out a new naval recruiting lithograph as a means of advertising the advantages of enlistment in the navy. This will be a placed, thirty-six by thirty inches, with five pictures of ships, those of the Bonhomme Richard, the Constitution, the Hartford, the Olympia, and the Kansas, representing various types of American warships from the time of the Revolution to the present day. The pictures are handsomely colored and the posters are quite attractive.

A Bride of a Few Weeks.

Perhaps the saddest of the announcements which the cable brought to relatives and friends in New York Monday was the message received by Judge Dugro from his daughter, Mrs. Frederick Cossitt, stated briefly that death had ended her brief honeymoon, and that she would return to New York with the body of her husband. Attended by many of the supreme court judges of the city and persons prominent in New York's best society, the Cossitt's wedding at the Hotel Savoy had been one of the most notable June nuptials. Miss Dugro was admired by a very large circle of friends, and her husband was one of the most popular men in Princeton. When the young couple sailed they were accompanied to the pier by many of those who attended the wedding.

What adds to the severity of the blow is the fact that Judge Dugro and his family were to sail tomorrow to join their daughter and son-in-law in London. All arrangements had been made for a trip on the Continent together, and Judge Dugro was expecting a message from his daughter announcing their safe arrival in London when the cable was received telling of the catastrophe at Salisbury.

Deadly Work Begun.

Chicago, July 3.—The Fourth of July harvest is on in good earnest in Chicago. Sunday four persons suffered injuries from the deadly toy cannon, pistol and cannon cracked. Violation of Mayor Dunne's orders against premature celebration of the Fourth spread through the city, and scarcely more than ten minutes passed in any of the more populous districts without the bursting of some kind of noise-maker.
