BOOK PISTOL ROUTE

Special to the Oregonian from London dated July 25th, says: Georgia Pierce, wife of T. J. Pierce, committed suicide tonight at 10 o'clock, by shooting herself through the heart with a .38 revolver. The woman at the time was crazed by drink and disappointment in love. She left letters to Ed. Emerson, a waiter in the restaurant, and to Sylvester Grant, a waiter in the St. George restaurant, also her husband, who is with a harvesting outfit at Helix. She yet knows nothing of the letter to Emerson she upbraided him for deserting her for a serious girl in green. In the letter Grant she bids him come with her and stay with her always. In a letter to her husband she says she can endure life no longer, but him an affectionate farewell, prays for his forgiveness. She asks that he inform Ida Massey, whom she loved, of her death. Pierce, who had been drinking the afternoon, came home at 9 o'clock and asked Mrs. Guy, who occupies half of the house, for a key, saying she had lost her last $5 and her life insured. She borrowed envelopes and Mrs. Stratton that she would place "where ice wasn't" Mrs. Stratton immediately came to the police, but before she returned to the house, the woman shot herself.

MANY COUNTIES COMPETE

The interest in the state fair is increasing. Many of the counties are considering the preparing of exhibits and five have already made application for space, namely: Linn, Lane, Jackson, Marion and Benton. The space allotted to each consists of 50 feet frontage in the exhibit pavilion. The races, too, will be a feature of fair week, and they promise to be of special interest to the lovers of horseflesh. The celebrated trotter, Zoloc, that will do an exhibition mile during the fair is doing the act in 2:14, just for fun. His performance during the fair will be a cracker, sure.

Horses are coming nearly every day, and going into training. Among the recent arrivals are three belonging to Frazier, the well-known Los Angeles turf man. These will be in charge of Sam Castro, the veteran trainer. C. W. Officer, a Canyon City horseman, has three running horses, two of which have been on other circuits and performed splendidly. The other is a promising young animal. The track has received much attention, and each day is being sprinkled and rolled. But the improvements that will impress the fair "habitués" will be the neat and tidy appearance of the camp grounds, and of the buildings that have recently been white-washed.

The septic tank which has been installed will improve the sewerage system at the grounds. Among the concessions already applied for is a merry-go-round. The committee on amusements is endeavoring to secure an airship exhibition. The fair, without doubt, promises to exceed in scope of magnitude and attendance anything of the kind ever attempted in the North west.

Some Years Ago. Joseph Thorpe and wife, of Butler, on the Yamhill river, west of Willamina, were in the city today, driving over from their ranch, and started back this afternoon. Mr. Thorpe started across the plains in 1845, when he was only three months but not of his own accord, but he has seen the country grow up from a wilderness. He says railroad surveyors are putting a line through from Sheridan to the Siletz, ten men and two wagons being in the party, which is now working through the Grand Ronde reservation.

Croup. Is a violent inflammation of the mucous membrane of the wind pipe, which sometimes extend to the larynx and bronchial tubes; and is one of the most dangerous diseases of children. It almost always comes on in the night. Give frequent small doses of Ballard's Horehound Syrup and apply Ballard's Snow Linctum externally to the throat. 25c, 50c and $1. For sale by D. J. Fry.

Petition Denied. Mrs. Philomena Bolter will remain the guardian of the estate of Mrs. Harrietta Molsan, so was decided by County Judge Scott yesterday. A petition had been presented for her removal from the guardianship. Many witnesses were called to give testimony, but the court saw no good reason to grant the petition.

Sure Cure for Piles. Itching Piles produce moisture and cause itching; this form, as well as Blind, Bleeding or Protruding Piles, are cured by Dr. Bo-sank-o's Pile Remedy. Stops itching and bleeding. Absorbs tumors. 50c a jar at druggists, or sent by mail. Treatise free. Write me about your case. Dr. Bosanko, Philadelphia, Pa.

Meet Tonight. There will be a meeting held at the armory tonight of the Oregon Rifle and Revolver Association, at 8 o'clock.

A Fine Performance.

"The Country Girl" was the attraction at the Edison theater last night, and will continue to be the remainder of the week. The performance last night was of a high order and clever all the way through, some people having been heard to remark that they liked last night's performance better than any of the previous efforts of the Brigham-Cooper Co. Every one plays his or her parts in the play with vim and earnestness. This week will be the last appearance of the Brigham-Cooper Company until fall. The last performance will be given Sunday night, then the Edison will be closed for the remainder of the summer, and it will be remodeled and enlarged, in fact, made in a thoroughly and up-to-date place house where theater-goers can enjoy themselves and see first-class productions and at the same time be comfortable. The house will be opened in September by the Brigham Cooper Company which will probably play here during the winter months in stock with a much larger company, presenting such high class plays as "Under Two Flags," "Camille," "Drifting Apart," "The Young Wife," and many more that arrangements are being made for So Salem has the assurance of a first class place of amusement after the hot weather is over and fall season commences. Tomorrow there will be a matinee of "The Country Girl" at 2:30 p. m., and after the performance a prize will be given away, and on Sunday night another prize will be given. Remember this is the last week of the Brigham-Cooper Company until September.

Fine Band Concert.

Nothing but words of praise were heard last evening for the members of the Salem Military Band. Last night's concert, given near the Red Cross Pharmacy, was of unusual excellence, and each selection given was heartily applauded by the large crowd which had gathered to listen to the music.

It was an ideal evening, and the program given was thoroughly enjoyed. Ward & Jerman are to be congratulated on giving a percentage of the amount derived from the sale of ice cream to the uniform fund. It is reasonable for other business firms to lend assistance to the fund.
