

You May Need It

Ask your doctor about the wisdom of your keeping Ayer's Cherry Pectoral in the house, ready for colds, coughs, croup, bronchitis. If he says it's all right, then get a bottle of it at once. Why not show a little foresight in such matters? Early treatment, early cure. We have no secrets! We publish the formulas of all our preparations. J. C. Ayer Co., Lowell, Mass.

TONGUES OF FIRE COMING

The "Tongues of Fire" are coming north. It is they who have made the people of Los Angeles sit up and take notice. California papers have been full of accounts telling of the strange things that have been done by the sect, and several of these religious workers are coming to Salem to hold meetings under the auspices of the Pentecostal mission, located near State and Twelfth streets. The reports are that many have been converted to the "apostolic faith," and that the members speak in tongues as they did on the day of Pentecost. Rev. J. M. Ryan, the pastor of the local mission, in speaking concerning the movement, says that it is growing, and that it has spread from Kansas to Los Angeles, and then to Texas and to the islands of the sea. The pentecostal fire is catching through the cities in the vicinity of Los Angeles, Monrovia, Pasadena, San Pedro, Sawtelle and Whittier. The "burning bush" workers in Los Angeles came into the new movement in a body. The members of the Apostolic faith have been called "Holly Rollers," but this is an injustice to the sect, said Rev. Ryan to a Journal representative yesterday. "Just how the people here will receive the workers from California I do not know. It is possible that they will be persecuted, but we all are ready to follow the Master whatever comes. We rely on God's word." Rev. Ryan returned recently from Los Angeles, where he went to investigate the movement. He believes in its genuineness through and through, and says the meetings were of unusual power. "To be sure there are always fanatics in religious movements and this one is no exception," continued he. The meetings in Los Angeles had their inception in a barn-like structure on Azusa street, and the Pentecost, says the "Apostolic Faith," the organ of the new sect, fell there three nights. The people had nothing to do but wait on the Lord, and praise him, and they commenced speaking in tongues as they did on Pentecost, and the spirit sang songs through them. The workers at the local mission are holding prayer meetings nightly in preparation for the coming of the Californians.

HOLINESS MEETING.

Big Tent Provided for a Series of Sermons.

It is late in the season for the holding of camp meetings but nothing daunts the fervor of Oregonians and it is announced that there will be a camp meeting in this city which will begin next Saturday in the large tent which was erected Wednesday on the grounds near the depot. The meetings are to be conducted by Rev. Thomas G. Rogers, of Los Angeles, Cal., who is said to be on the old fashion exhorters, but also a man of good sound learning. He comes under the auspices of the Holiness church situated on Fifteenth and Mill streets of which Rev. J. C. Williams is pastor.

The meetings will continue as long as the interest is manifest and so long as the weather remains propitious.

The huge tent, 40x60 feet, which was pitched yesterday afternoon will comfortably seat 350 people. Seats and chairs are being provided and everything will be in readiness when the Los Angeles preacher arrives to take charge. Rev. Rogers is sent out by the Apostolic Holiness Union of Cincinnati.
