CITY NEWS

A collection of important Paragraphs for Your Consideration

Teachers' Examinations— Notice is hereby given that the county school superintendent of Marion county, Oregon, will hold the regular examination of applicants for state and county papers at the Methodist church, beginning Wednesday, February 13, 1907, at 9 o'clock a. m., and continuing until Saturday, February 16th, at 4 o'clock p. m. E. T. Moore, County School Superintendent. 2-2-31-wk2t

Fish and Everything— Farrington & Van Patton, in their new State street market, handle not only fresh meats of all kinds, groceries and provisions, but vegetables, fruits, eggs, fish, game and poultry.

This is where you can get everything for the table without going to more than one store. Phone 217.

Caught in the Web— At the Klinger Grand theatre tonight.

Masquerade— At the Auditorium Wednesday, February 6.

Caught by Cupid— Ernest L. Kappahn of Salem, aged 24 and Lyllis Anderson, of this city, aged 20, have been issued a marriage license by County Clerk Allen. P. A. Anderson acted as witness.

Change of Play— And specialties Monday and Friday at the Klinger Grand theatre.

Race, Race, Race— Tonight at the Auditorium rink. Admission, 10c.

Well-Known Musician Returns— Willis McElroy, the well-known band master, arrived in the city last Sunday evening from San Francisco, where he has been for the past several months. He recently accepted a position at the Hotel Portland, and will make the metropolis his home.

Masquerade— At the Auditorium rink tomorrow night, 7:20 to 11. Masks will be removed and prizes awarded at 9:30, after which everybody can skate until 11 o'clock.

New Pastor Called— Rev. Paul Dick, of Arlington, Minnesota, has accepted the ministry of the Lutheran church, on East State street. He comes to the city well recommended, and will doubtless prove a valuable acquisition to the Salem ministerial circle.

Morning Sessions— 10 to 12 o'clock at the skating rink are especially for beginners. Two competent instructors at your service. No admission charged.

Masquerade— Tickets on sale at the box office. Reserve your skates and get your tickets in advance. Admission, 25c; skates, 25c.

Race, Race, Race— Tonight at the Auditorium rink. Admission, 10c.

Probate Matters— In the matter of Theodore Hist, deceased, estate, the final account of Sallie Damm and Barbara Wolk, as executrix, has been allowed and approved. In the matter of the guardianship of the estate of Fred Gaebler, a minor, upon motion of the guardian, F. N. Derby, E. W. Hazard, D. W. Eyre and J. W. Willson have been appointed appraisers of the said estate.

Don't Fail to See— "Caught in the Web" tonight at the Klinger Grand theatre.

Foxy Grandpa— Yellow Kid, Alfonso and Gaston, and many other characters will be represented at the rink tomorrow night. Admission 25c.

Get in the Banw Wagon— The Modern Woodmen of this city have received notice that no assessment will be needed in February. Last year the order "skipped" three assessments, and this year will equal if not "go one better." Better get in the band wagon and "jive."

Salem Military Band— Will furnish music for the masquerade at the Auditorium tomorrow night. Admission, 25c.

Report of Asylum— The report of Superintendent Calbreath, filed yesterday afternoon at the meeting of the governing board of the state insane asylum, shows the following: Payroll for January, $6,853.89; improvements, $108; patients admitted, 38; discharged, 11; patients in institution, 1435.

Kimball Lecture— Prof. Kimball will lecture on the life of John Wesley at Kimball college tomorrow evening at 7:30 o'clock. Rev. W. H. Selleck will render a solo. The public cordially invited. No admission charged.

Was Not a Rescuer— Mr. Rollis Southwick, not wanting credit for heroic actions he never performed, explains that it was someone else who assisted in rescuing some young ladies from in front of the train last Friday evening. As the rescue occurred near Mr. Southwick's place probably caused his name to be mentioned. Anyway, Mr. Southwick was not among those present.

See the Moving Pictures— And illustrated songs between acts at the Klinger Grand.

For Seattle Fair— Henry E. Reel, one of the temporary Oregon commissioners to the Yukon-Alaska-Pacific fair at Seattle and also secretary of the exposition, is in Salem, having come to appear before the legislature to discuss the proposed appropriation from this state.

Unlucky Luckey— Lester Luckey was last evening defeated by Will Zidell in a one-mile skating race at the Auditorium roller rink. This was the first race of a series of three and the time was 3 minutes and 23 seconds. The second race of the series will take place this evening.

Sue for $1100.00— Frank Holmes has filed an action in department No. 1 of the circuit court against the Stayton woolen mills to recover the sum of $1100.00 which amount he claims is due him for professional services rendered the said company. Webster Holmes, J. H. and C. L. McNary appear in the case as attorneys for the plaintiff.

Willamette Still Rising. At noon today the Willamette stood at 26 feet above low water, having raised two feet since daylight. The Spaulding mills have shut down and all bands are busy moving lumber to save it. The upper North Santiam began to fall at midnight, but that effect will not reach here before this evening. The McKenzie is reported the highest it has been since 1890, and still rising this morning, which will add to the Willamette here until tomorrow night at least. It is now estimated that the river cannot begin to fall before it reaches about 30 feet, but, as the rains are off for the time being, and the air turning colder, that will probably be the limit.

MR. HARBORD DEAD.

Death Came at Willamette Sanitarium at 11 O'clock Today.

M. C. Harbord died at 11 o'clock this morning at the Willamette Sanitarium, after an illness of three weeks. He was coming home from Texas when stricken with paralysis, was placed in a hospital at Cheyenne and was brought home from there by his daughter, Miss Kittle Harbord, and, after lingering for one week, died.

Mr. Harbord moved to Salem in 1876 from Yamhill county. He was three times elected marshal of this city, serving from 1880 to 1886.

In 1888 he moved to Spokane, where he has since resided. He served on the police force in that city, and was the chief from 1890 for one term.

Mr. Harbord is survived by four children: Mrs. Ida M. Knapp, of Davenport, Washington; Rolla C. Harbord, of Spokane; Miss Kittle W. Harbord and Mrs. Daniel J. Fry, of this city.

The exact date of the funeral will be announced later, but it will be from the residence of D. J. Fry, 600 South High street, and Rev. P. S. Knight will officiate, assisted by Rev. F. E. Dell. The funeral may be held tomorrow or probably Thursday. Mr. Harbord will be buried with Masonic honors, under the auspices of Pacific Lodge No. 50, A. F. & A. M.

M. Harbord was one of the best-known and best-liked of the older generation of Salem men, who are fast passing away.

Mrs. Geo. Collins Dead.

After an illness of only a few hours, Mrs. George Collins succumbed this morning to an attack of appendicitis. She was taken ill last evening, and summoned Dr. Byrd, and was soon resting easier, but toward morning the complaint became worse, and death claimed her at 4:30 a. m.

Mrs. Collins was born in Thurell, Canada, in 1845, and moved to Oregon in 1867, where she has since resided. She has been one of Salem's most prominent women, and was an active member of the Methodist church.

She has been subject to attacks of appendicitis, and her sudden death at this time comes as a shock to the family and many friends.

George Knight and wife, of Hubbard, are Salem visitors. Miss Emma Muths left this morning for a week's business visit to Eugene.

THAW'S LAWYERS DEFEND

court of appeals in opinion on hypothetical question which must accord with rules. Wiley answered he believed the act was that of an insane man. Again Jerome went at the witness, asking him what he believed. "I believe he was suffering from a delusion," said Wiley. "Of what nature," asked Jerome. "They were impressions reached by forty conclusions," said Wiley. "Do you know anything about Christian Science?" asked Jerome. "I have some friends who believe in it." "Do you believe them insane?" "No." Then Jerome and the witness wrestled with the medical differences between pathological conditions and perverted functions.

Jerome Batters Expert. Jerome made Wiley admit that his opinion that Thaw was insane was based upon the street car incident, but not until after he read of the shooting, and further admitted that the opinion was partly formed by what he read in the newspapers. Jerome returned to the question of pathological conditions and perverted functions, and asked Wiley if he applied the Romberg test. "I don't know what the Romberg test is," replied Wiley. "What, you an expert on mental and nervous diseases and don't know what the Romberg test is?" sharply asked Jerome. Have you read Hactuck's book? Witness said he had, but did not recall the Romberg test. Jerome kept witting under withering fire of medical questions, causing him to fret continually. He was still under fire at recess hour. Court asked if it would be very long. Jerome said: "Yes, I find witness interesting." Recess until 2 o'clock.

To Benefit Library— The Salem public library board will give a "500" card party at the residence of Werner Breyman, Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock, and the public is invited to attend. The tickets may be procured from any member of the library board or of the committee of arrangements, consisting of Mrs. A. N. Bush, Mrs. B. O. Shucking, Mrs. W. H. Eldridge, Mrs. E. E. Waters, Mrs. T. H. Raymond and Mrs. A. M. Cannon.

The Von Jessen Concert.

Friday evening at the Grand Opera House there will be given one of the greatest musical programs ever ordered in this city. It will not only be a musical event par excellence, but a social quality attaches to the whole program on account of the part of the most prominent people of the Capital City. Great interest is already manifested through the city and in every musical circle. Mr. Von Jessen has only appeared once before in this city in concert and was given unqualified approval by Dr. Heritage and Mrs. Smith and their best form, and have made themselves more than local reputations. They are each unsurpassed in their parts. More detailed information about the program will be given in our next issue.

The Kind of Frames

Glasses Right Good Sight

To be used in very much a matter of taste. It is important though, that the frames set properly on the nose and at the right distance from the eyes; that the lenses be perfectly centered, and how are you to know when some is guessing. WE NEVER GUESS.
