Racing Hearing Today. White Plains, N. Y., March 30 .---The hearing in the case of the Empire Racing association of Yonkers. why a mandamus shall not issue to compel the racing commission to grant the Empire City track a license for running races, Judge Mills, in the supreme court, presiding. Many novel points have been raised, and an effort will be made to obtain a court order to compel the state racing commission to review its action in refusing to grant the Empire City track people the right to have running meets. Members of the Empire City club are confident that they will obtain a license, now that they have For sale at your grocer's. CALIFORNIA BAKERE. final settlement.
