Real Estate License—

There seems to be some discontent over the new city ordinance compelling real estate men to pay a city license of $10 per year. The new law went into effect a few days ago, but up to this morning none of the dealers in dirt had put up the filthy lucre called for by the ordinance. This morning Councilman Radcliff who is the father of the bill, paid his fee, and several others paid under protest. It is claimed by some that the law is not sound, and will not stand in the courts, hence the reluctance of some to pay. It is claimed that some curb-stone real estate dealer will be arrested today and a test case made forthwith.

John P. Jones III—

Word was received last Saturday from John P. Jones, the traveling passenger agent of the Southern Pacific Company, who is with the Shriners' excursion at Los Angeles, that he had been taken down with an attack of gastric fever, and is very ill at a hospital in that city. Mr. Jones' aged mother is also at the farm, and all the family is in the greatest anxiety over his condition.

New Headquarters—

The Salem board of trade is now engaged in furnishing and fitting up headquarters for this very effective and active institution. Secretary Poissell is busy putting up the display of grains, grasses, fruits and other products for inspection by all visitors, and hereafter the room will be used as a meeting place for the members and committees of the club. It will be a true home for the organization and a standing monument to the greatness of Oregon's products of the farm and garden. In addition to this exhibit the organization should have, and probably will have, an exhibit of the products of every factory in Salem, and will be surprised at the large number of manufacturing concerns we have in our city. The board should take this matter up at once, and not only invite but request these manufacturers to put up a neat display of their best wares.

O. A. C. Won Meet—

The Oregon Agricultural College won in the field meet Monday with the Washington State College by 10 points. An excellent showing was made by each team. Hall, of the O. A. C. team broke the Agricultural College record in the shot put at 40.3 feet. Washington won the mile in 4:40 1-5, and the high hurdles in 16.4.

Asks for Divorce—

DISCUSSES DIVINE HEALING.

Rev. Vosburgh, of New York, in the City—Speaks Tonight.

Rev. Arthur Reeves Vosburgh, of Rochester, New York, arrived in the city today, and will lecture upon the teachings of Christian Science at the Grand Opera House this evening. The lecturer is a member of the Christian Science board of the First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston.

It is a matter of common knowledge that Mary Baker Eddy is the discoverer of Christian Science, and that this discovery came about through her own healing, that came through the touch of divine power when human resources could offer neither help nor hope.

Mr. Vosburgh said to a reporter "It is by no means a thing anomalous and unprecedented in Christian history that one should be healed through faith, in answer to prayer. It is a matter of authentic record that spiritual healing was known in the work of Wesley and his early followers among the Quakers, or Friends, among the Scotch Covenanters, Luther healed his young friend Melancthon. All down through the process of the Christian countries, after eliminating everything that seems to bear the stamp of fanaticism or superstition, there yet remains in the Christian church a continuous record of those who came near to God that in the hour of need they proved that He is one who not only forgiveth all our iniquities, but who healeth all our diseases.

"We read of a man who once healed the sick and raised the dead; who turned water into wine, walked the wave, out of a handful of loaves and fishes fed the assembled thousands; who finally came and went through closed doors, appeared and disappeared, and at last passed hence, not through the gateway of death, but through the unfolding portals of eternal life.

"What would God's Universe seem to us to be, could we gain his insight and secure his point of view? For what must have been his sense of the real power that lies back of chemical activity and chemical affinity, when he turned water into wine? What must have been his relation to the elements and forces about him when he stilled the storm and walked the wave? What was his conception of the nature of life when he healed the sick and raised the dead? And what was his understanding of the law of mind when, with a spoken word or an unuttered thought, he restored the lunatic and demoniac to rational poise and power.

"From all these mighty workings we can be sure of this: That Jesus understood that the government of the Universe is constituted in spiritual power and spiritual law; but this is only another way of saying that Jesus understood that the real universe is spiritual and not material.

"Christian Science has not only established itself in the United States and Canada, but in all the great divisions of the earth. In England 10 years ago there were but two copies of Mrs. Eddy's book, 'Science and Health.' These were in the British museum and in the Westminster library. Today, in London there are three large, growing churches. The largest of these will this year complete a church edifice with a seating capacity of 15,000."
