SKILLED LABOR SCARCE

WORK NOW DELAYED

be unfashionable and hips impossible in winter styles for women, according to Elizabeth A. C. White, president of the Dressmakers' Protective Association of America, in demonstrating new gowns for the first session of the annual meeting in Masonic Temple the other night.

"The stylish figure," Miss White declared, "will be one without hips, a straight-line figure. It is all in the corset."

Nor will there be any fleshy women—at least none that are well dressed. Miss White, who rejoices in 220 pounds, a gain of 20 since the last convention, declares she is not fat, and says there is no need of anyone else so appearing, unless she is lazy and wants so to appear.

Miss White said well-dressed women on winter afternoon will wear demi-tailored skirts of gray, lavender, reddish purple and light blue, black coats, waists of net embroidered in the color of the skirt, with erer in the color of the skirt, with orchids, morning-glories and roses.

To Try Glass Again.

San Francisco, Sept. 11.—Louis Glass today appeared before Judge Lawlor to stand trial on eight indictments on the charge of bribery. Lawlor set the date for the trial on next Friday.

Chicago Markets.

Chicago, Sept. 11.—Wheat 99 1/2 @ 97 1/2, corn 59 1/2 @ 59 1/2, oats 52 1/2 @ 52 1/2.

Naval Yard Compelled to suspend Work On Vessels, and Mechanics Are Dissatisfied Over Change of Piece System

Cal., Sept. 11.—The Mare Island navy yard is facing one of its most critical periods of its career because of the scarcity of skilled mechanics and the ill feeling of mechanics toward the introduction of the piece system. On account of the scarcity of labor the authorities have been forced to suspend work on several vessels, and for the same reason the keel of the collier Albatross has been delayed.

HARRIMAN SAYS SO

Thinks Panic Cannot Touch Them—People Are Prosperous But Hang On to Their Money Which Makes It Poor Picking For Eastern Sharks

New York, Sept. 11.—Harriman, who recently returned from the West, says the West is more prosperous than ever. There are no signs of a panic there, but the people of that section are not seeking investments. He added: "In spots the crops will not be as good as last year, but they will have fair crops. There is no question in my mind but that a good deal of money is tied up in the banks, but these people who are hanging onto their money now will later be seeking investments."

WILL FIGHT UNION

Los Angeles, Cal., Sept. 11.—The international typographical union today appealed to the federation of labor for funds to carry on the campaign against an open shop in Los Angeles, which the union declares to be the only free city in the country and is therefore in a "deplorable state." This is regarded as a challenge to battle by the merchants and manufacturers association, and the challenge was accepted today. This association has managed all the defensive operations against strikers and boycotters for several years, and the expense of the campaign has been borne heretofore by a few members. Now that the federation threatens to pour $10,000 a month into the coffers of the local boycotters, the association has voted to raise a defense fund of $100,000 to meet every move of the printers.

Still Killing Jews.

Gatlatz, Roumania, Sept. 11.—The massacre of Jews at Kishneff continues. Fugitives say fully 100 Hebrews have been killed. Mobs are rushing through the Ghetto shooting every Jew who appeared on the streets or at the windows. At Lodz the slaughter continues and a score of Jews are reported dead.

Sued J. Whyte Evans.

Los Angeles, Sept. 11.—J. Whyte Evans is defendant in a suit brought in the superior court yesterday by E. K. Potter, representing the Los Angeles Examiner, Times, Evening Express and Herald-Record, to recover $1168.61 alleged to be due for advertising carried by the defendant in those publications two years ago, and not paid for.

Steamer Santa Rosa Aground.

Los Angeles, Cal., Sept. 11.—The big passenger steamer Santa Rosa, of the Pacific Coast Steamship Company, went aground at Portuguese and near San Pedro early this morning. The vessel was northbound from San Diego. She got off at high tide.

Fire in Canton.

Hong Kong, Sept. 11.—News has been received here of a conflagration raging at Canton. Some large keroseene stores are burning fiercely, and the loss will probably be heavy.

WILL NOT ISSUE BONDS.

Tacoma Votes Against Bonding City for Gravity Water System.

Tacoma, Sept. 11.—The special election yesterday to determine whether Tacoma should issue $2,000,000 bonds for the construction of the Green river gravity water system, resulted in an overwhelming defeat for the project.

CHRISTINE NILSSON ILL.

Great Swedish Singer May Not Recover.

Stockholm, Sweden, Sept. 11.—Mme. Christine Nilsson (Countess McCanda) the great Swedish soprano is seriously ill with heart disease at her country place in Smaland. She is confined to her bed, and friends fear she will not recover. Mme. Nilsson was born in 1843 and made her debut in Stockholm in 1860. Her first trip to America was made in 1870.

LIEUT. U. S. GRANT 3D.
Grandson of General U. S. Grant, who will wed Miss Edith Root, daughter of Secretary of State Elihu Root.

STEAMER TO BREAK RECORDS

Cape Race, Sept. 11.—The Cunard steamer Lusitana came into wireless connection early this morning. Messages from the ship says the vessel was 225 miles south of Cape Race at 5:20 this morning, and expects to reach New York at 1 a. m. Friday, making the voyage in about 4 days and 18 hours, which will be 13 hours better than the record.

Scabs Started the Row.

San Francisco, Sept. 11.—Police man Wade, who was a participant in last night's battle between non-union carmen and three police officers, declares the preliminary skirmish was between the men on the wrecked car and union pickets, and was the result of a plot on the part of the non-union men and was entirely unprovoked. Wade asserts the men on the car deliberately smashed the windows of the car to make it appear as if a brick had been thrown, and then began firing upon a tent occupied by pickets. A battle ensued, and the non-unionists fired upon the police.

Coal Will Be High.

Pittsburg, Pa., Sept. 11.—According to the operators, there is every reason to believe the price of coal will be higher this winter than ever before, mainly through the shortage of cars.

Won the St. Leger.

Doncaster, Eng., Sept. 11.—Wool-Winder, with Halsey up, won the St. Leger stakes today, a purse of £4000.

WILL FORCE TREATY

MEANS EXCLUSION

Race Prejudice Exists and Lawmakers Will Remove the Cause of Riots Since They Cannot Remove Racial Antipathy

Vancouver, B. C., Sept. 11.—Despite the fact that the Orientals of Vancouver have practically bought out all the gun stores, no further outbreaks occurred last night. Mounted Imperials are on guard, and with this assurance of protection the Japanese are returning to work. While all further outbreaks will be promptly suppressed the people are still determined on absolute exclusion of all Orientals from British Columbia. The recent Canadian-Japanese treaty provides for full freedom of entry, but local politicians are expecting to find means of overcoming this obstruction to the passage of an exclusion law.

Washington, Sept. 11.—That a stringent exclusion treaty between America and Japan is measurably nearer realization than the most optimistic administration official could have believed 48 hours ago, is the judgment of the members of the diplomatic corps. This long-sought object is expected to be attained perhaps, as an indirect result of the mobbing of the Japanese at Vancouver, B. C., last Saturday night. Officials here deplore what they view as an unfortunate and unwarranted infraction of the treaty rights of the Japanese, but they do not fail to perceive at once the important bearing that this incident will probably have upon the negotiations between the state department and the Japanese ambassador, looking to the drafting of a treaty that shall limit the incoming of Japanese coolies.

The belief that a treaty is now within sight is based on the conviction of officials that the Japanese government will now be brought face to face with the fact that, as it cannot discriminate between Great Britain and America in the matter of demands for fair treatment for its subjects, and must by this time be convinced that the problem presented is really a radical one, the only solution will lie in the formal recognition by Japan of the right to restrict coolie immigration not only in America, but in British Columbia, Australia and the other British colonies.

To take another view, it is pointed out here, would mean a breach of the alliance with Great Britain, of which the Japanese have been so proud, and which they regard as so necessary to the development of their ambitious schemes for the exploitation of the East. For, though the British government may, and doubtless will, apologize for the Vancouver affair, and even pay an indemnity, a repetition of the incident is believed to be almost certain, unless the British government yields to the demands of the British Columbians in the matter of restriction of Japanese immigration.

As a matter of fact, negotiations are already on foot between the British and the Japanese governments to regulate the influx of coolie labor into the British colonies. The Vancouver incident, it is believed here, will hasten the negotiations to a conclusion and, if Japan enters into treaty relations of that kind with Great Britain, it cannot refuse to do so with America, so that there is, after all, a prospect that Secretary

Root and Ambassador Aoki will soon again be in conference on this subject.

Vancouver, Sept. 11.—That a perfected military system, embodying 5000 Japanese, is in existence in Vancouver, was the declaration of Secretary Fowler, of the Japanese-Korean Exclusion League, of Seattle, who came here at the invitation of the local anti-Oriental body to speak at the meeting which resulted in the riot of Saturday.

"These 5000 Japanese," says Fowler, "are as well organized as our soldiers in the American army, have their officers to whom they report, and with whom they are in close touch at all times, especially now, when another demonstration is likely to take place."

"They have made a minute and systematic plan for defense in case their section of the city is again attacked and all these Japanese are armed. The anti-Asiatic league of this city would not attempt to allow another demonstration, because if it should visit the Japanese town the loss of life would be tremendous, and it is my prediction that more whites would be killed than Orientals."

SHOOTS FRIEND FOR DEER.

Fatal Hunting Accident Near Bandon, Coos County.

EDWARD R. TAYLOR.
Doctor, lawyer and literary man, who is San Francisco's new mayor.

Marshfield, Or., Sept. 8.—While out hunting deer near Whiskey Run, about ten miles north of Bandon, William Hull mistook his companion, Alexander Mathers, for a deer and fired. Upon running to the spot where he supposed his deer was floundering in the brush, he found his companion in the agony of death. His aim was too true. He only fired one shot, but it cost his companion his life. Mathers lived but a few minutes. Hull is crazed with grief.

Honey to Come Back.

Portland, Sept. 11.—Speaking of land fraud trials, Heney states they will be resumed November 1st. It is his fault, and not Bristol's that they have been postponed so long. The San Francisco prosecutions consumed more time than he thought necessary. Heney will return to Portland to conduct land fraud trials in person, as he is anxious to have command when the trials of Hermann, Hale and Booth are called.
