Ladies' Ready-to-wear Goods

Isn't it worth a good deal to you to know when you trade here you are trading in a safe, reliable store. We are not altogether perfect—never have claimed to be—but we certainly aim at perfection. Each week, each month each year has to be better than the preceding one. Years of experience has taught us to eliminate the doubtful and hold fast to that which we know to be the merit.

Season Ended—The busy picking season is practically ended, as the rain put a temporary stop to the business, and that is a full stop. It is quite certain that the crop will not exceed 50 per cent of the first estimate, and my run considerably below. The quality, however, is very good, and the picking to be cleaner than usual.
The weather, however, are firm, firmer if it rains, at eight cents. A Salem man drove to McMinnville yesterday and half the hops along the road are picked. Many fine ones still un-picked, and are being ordered upon orders and sales at eight cents.

Waldo Will Probated—

The last will and testament of the late Judge J. B. Waldo was yesterday admitted to probate in the Marion county court. The value of the property located in Marion county, according to the petition filed, is $30,000. All of this, with the exception of $5000, which is given to Mary Logan, a sister of the deceased, to be paid within five years from his demise, was willed to his daughter, Edith Waldo. Mrs. Clara H. Waldo, wife of the deceased, is named as executrix to serve without bonds. W. H. H. Darby, G. W. Eoff and D. J. Siller have been appointed to appraise the estate.

Kicked by a Horse—

F. H. Hudson was kicked by the thoroughbred, "Willie Highlow," this morning when the parade of that breed of racers was taking place. The animal aimed a vicious blow at his head and breast, and, if it had struck him a trifle higher, might have ended the career of his attendant. As it was he was badly cut on the breast, and thrown backwards about ten feet. A physician was sent for from the city, and he was soon resuscitated and led off the grounds.

Twelfth Street Studio—

F. M. Baker will open his Twelfth street studio on Saturday, September 21st, and on that day will make first-class cabinet photos, on that day only, for $2.00 per dozen. All other work, from stamp photos up, done in first-class style. 9-17-3t

Miss Carrie Judd, who taught one year in the Salem high school, has passed the city examinations, after taking her degree at the Chicago University, and begins work as a teacher in the Chicago schools.

WHOSE BABY ARE YOU

Go and Learn Tonight—Delightful Presentation of "That Girl From Texas" Last Night

The Allen Stock Company began a weeks engagement at the Grand Opera House last night, opening with "That Girl from Texas," with Miss Verna Felton as "The Girl." There was a long wait for the curtain to go up, owing to the fact, so Mr. Kennedy explained, that the train from Portland collided with a vicissitude, for which Mr. Kennedy apologized, and added another of the same kind for the curtain hanging fire. It seemed for awhile that the company must have hit, another vicissitude, for there was another long wait, that, however, passed pleasantly owing to the music put up by the orchestra, which in itself was well worth spending the evening to hear. However, all things come to him who waits, even the waiter, and patience was surely well rewarded when the girl from Texas arrived. The play is a pretty little light affair, but it is one that is brimming with laughter and lacking in tears. Miss Felton as the girl is chic, insouciant, natural, as breezy as the big prairies from which she hails and with a laugh as infectious as the measles, and that breaks out with the same prolific spontaneity. The support was excellent, and "The Girl From Texas" promises a week of genuine pleasure to Salem theatre-goers, and what she says goes. Tonight the attraction is "Whose Baby Are You?" If it is up to the standard of last night's presentation you will miss a pleasant evening if you do not attend and learn the answer to the question. Tomorrow being Salem day at the fair, the box office will be closed from 11 o'clock in the morning to 6 in the evening. Those wanting seats reserved should make a note of this.

An Ounce of Prevention

Is worth a pound of cure. There are many poor sufferers, consumptives who are hopeless of getting well—who, if they had taken care of themselves, would now be well. A cough is the foundation of consumption. Ballard's Horehound Syrup will cure that cough. Mrs. S., Great Falls, Montana, writes: "I have used Ballard's Horehound Syrup in my family for years—my children never suffer with coughs." Sold by D. J. Fry.
