

GIFT MAKING HINTS.

Presents Clever Women May Construct at Home.

WORKBOX AND TIE HOLDER.

Two Attractive Christmas Remembrances, in the Manufacture of Which Embroidery and Amateur Carpentry Figure.

There is an interesting variety of pretty Christmas gifts that women can make at home this year for trifling expense if they are ingenious enough to do a little carpentry work and have also the ability to embroider and crochet or knit.

One of these practical and desirable presents for either a man or woman is a necktie holder. It can be fashioned as simply or elaborately as is wished once the woodwork is made. These holders that may be hung on a bureau knob, attached to the gas jet or nailed to the wall in a bedroom are made of an oval piece of light whitewood that is covered with denim, crash, linen or satin in any shade desired. They are serviceable if the material is left plain, but when embroidered with tulips in red, white and yellow silk with green leaves or in a solid rose pattern in natural colors they are decorative and are really an ornament to any apartment. On this wood plaque a round steel rod is screwed, and on it the scarf and ties are hung when not in use. At the back two ribbons—any length needed to suspend the holder from a desirable place—are attached and tied in a bowknot. The ribbons may be of a color to match the material.

Instead of an oval of whitewood a six sided piece about ten inches in diameter is needed for the modern workbox that is just now so acceptable because it contains all the necessary things that a housekeeper wants when she sits down to sew or mend. Once the wood is carefully sawed into a hexagon it may be covered with dark red or deep green satin or with less expensive material, and then the task of fitting the workbox with spools, miniature boxes for needles, pins, tape measure, etc., may be started.

In the center a cushion for pins and needles is essential, and it may be made as decorative as is desired. Around it the small cardboard or pill boxes, covered with satin or whatever goods is used on the base, are glued in place, and between these boxes spools of thread are tied into place with narrow baby ribbon. On the tops of the boxes slips of ribbon are attached so that scissors, bodkins, knitting needles, thimbles and emery bags will have a place on the workbox.

Novel Pincushion.

A pincushion is a very necessary adjunct to the average woman's dressing table, and she is apt to be specially appreciative if the one bestowed upon her at Christmas is made in some novel form.

Brooches that are worn often are generally kept somewhere within easy reach, and they are preserved in better condition if their ordinary resting place is a wash leather cushion instead of a china or metal pin tray.

To make this brooch pincushion, use a round cushion covered with wash leather for your center and sew to this four flaps of velvet, heavy silk or any other material that you choose, lining each flap with the wash leather. Stick your brooches into the center cushion and fold the flaps over. The two that fold on top are tied together with ribbon.

RIBBON WORK EMBROIDERY.

Gifts Any Clever Woman Can Make at Small Expense.

Such dainty gifts decorated with ribbon embroidery may be made for Christmas by women who know this art that there is really no limit to the presents that are possible to construct out of inexpensive materials and that will look like costly articles when ornamented with this hand work, for ribbon embroidery made in floral, elaborate scroll or geometric designs will give even the homeliest of bedroom or dress accessories an original appearance, and anything from the old-fashioned pincushion, that is an essential

PHOTOGRAPH FRAME IN RIBBON WORK.

In dressing, to the newest corset bag will be attractive and decidedly acceptable when decorated with it.

A pincushion made of white satin in a round style, with two ruffles of real or imitation valenciennes lace and a third flounce of white silk, is pretty, but when decorated in the center with a Louis XVI basket made of gold thread, out of which ribbon embroidered flowers in imitation roses and forget-me-nots fall in confusion, this ordinary bureau article becomes a work of art, or if the middle of satin is ornamented with ribbon embroidery made into a running green vine on which conventional tulips or carnations in yellow, pink and blue are worked the cushion is equally effective and unique.

Picture frames for photographs made of silk or satin and ornamented with ribbon embroidery flowers are comparatively new this season and will be most acceptable gifts, for they may be used with appropriateness on either a dressing table or in a sitting room or parlor. Though these frames, finished with an edging of white or gilt wood, are attractive, a piece of bright gold galloon put around the glass makes the whole more original and decorative.

Pills and Piles.

A prolific cause of Piles is the use of cathartics and pills of a drastic nature, always followed by a reaction on account of the resinous, drying properties they contain.

There are other causes, but no matter what the cause or what the kind of Piles, Dr. Leonhardt's Hem-Roid can be relied upon to cure—to stay cured.

It's an internal remedy that removes the causes of Itching, Blind, Bleeding or Suppurating Piles.

A guarantee goes with each package. $1.00 at druggists, or Dr. Leonhardt Co., Niagara Falls, N. Y., Proprietors. Sold by Dr. Stone, Salem.

GIFTS FOR AN INVALID.

Christmas Remembrances That May Be Made at Home.

Many useful Christmas gifts for invalids may be made at home. A case for the hot water bottle is one that calls for skill with crochet hook and knitting needles.

Heavy fingering and bone needles will be required for this, the bag being knitted on two needles. A frill is crocheted, also of wool, and sewn around the three sides and the mouth of the case. When the water bag is inserted the top is drawn together by running a ribbon in and out, tying the bag in place, and it goes without saying that this is much more pleasing and slightly than the usual flannel case. To match this a pretty covering for a hand warmer may be constructed on similar lines, except that both ends are drawn up and finished with tassels and loops, though one is left open to receive the warmer. Little bottles filled with hot salt, then tightly corked, are slipped in the case and the open end drawn together. When complete it is not unlike the silk crochet purse of long ago, as the hand warmer, though matching the colors of the hot water bottle case, is made of heavy silk in crochet.

Then, too, the sofa rug, that will keep slipping off, may be made to retain its position by having an under portion—say half the length of the rug—into which the feet are slipped, thus having it up to the knees both over and under the legs. From the knees upward the rug may be drawn up or thrown back, as preferred, because this part is single.

Every one knows how pillows are apt to slip, whether the patient is lying or sitting in bed, and so a holder is quickly and simply made by sewing to a strong pretty ribbon stocking suspender clasps, which will grip the pillow and hold it in place when the invalid wishes to sit up for a few minutes. Laying back again, she will find it in exactly the same place. A thoughtful gift would be a strip of white linen embroidered, bound and the ends finished with the clasps.

Puff Bags.

Little lace edged handkerchiefs are utilized for making bags into which the powder puff can be conveniently slipped and used so that no one but the woman who knows the trick would detect it.

Thousands Have Kidney Trouble and Never Suspect it.

Prevalency of Kidney Disease. Most people do not realize the alarming increase and remarkable prevalence of kidney disease. While kidney disorders are the most common diseases that prevail, they are almost the last recognized by patient and physicians, who content themselves with doctoring the effects, while the original disease undermines the system.

There is comfort in the knowledge so often expressed, that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy, fulfills every wish in curing rheumatism, pain in the back, kidneys, liver, bladder and every part of the urinary passage. It corrects inability to hold water and scalding pain in passing it, or bad effects following use of liquor, wine or beer, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often during the day, and to get up many times during the night. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases. If you need a medicine you should have the best. Sold by druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar sizes.

You may have a sample bottle and a book that tells all about it, both sent free by mail. Address Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. When writing mention this paper and don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y.

Crocheted Opera Bag.

Since the fad for knitting and crocheting has taken such a hold on the feminine contingent the fashion for knitted and crocheted articles has gained greatly in popularity. One of the prettiest gifts imaginable for the woman who goes out a great deal is a theater bag of crocheted silk that is capacious enough to hold all of the small articles that she may need.

Crochet rings very loosely in single stitches or make squares by crocheting solid stitches and connecting them by chains of four stitches each until a long piece has been made, which, when folded over and the edges joined, will form a bag. Line this with pretty silk of a contrasting color. Cover ten brass rings with the silk crocheted in a single stitch, fasten them in a row an inch below the top and run a cord through these rings to draw the top together.
