Lively Runaway—

Henry Keene, the well-known citizen of the Shaw vicinity, arrived in Salem Saturday morning with a fine span of chargers, which became frightened at the strange city sights, when they were near the state house and ran down State street at a pace that splattered Mr. Keene's face with mud, and caused him to think that when he "got" his breath he would be over in Polk county. He bravely held onto the ribbons, and fortunately did not strike anything in the mad rush any more disagreeable than mudholes until Doc Gibson caught the infuriated animals at the corner of State and Commercial streets. Mr. Keene, after washing his face and locating his hat, which had fallen by the wayside, found that there had been no damage done, and went his way.

A Good Liniment.

When you need a good reliable liniment try Chamberlain's Pain Balm. It has no superior for sprains and swellings. A piece of flannel slightly dampened with Pain Balm is superior to a plaster for lame back or pains in the side or chest. It also relieves rheumatic pains and makes sleep and rest possible. For sale at Dr. Stone's drug store.

ANSWERS SUNDAY NIGHT

To Charge That He Teaches Infant Damnation at Christian Church.

I am reported as teaching infant damnation. Is it true that I do? I will answer this charge at the First Christian church Sunday night. Do not take what you hear about me. I am responsible for what I say, not for what people think or report that I say. I invite critics, theologians, newspaper reporters and stenographers to hear and note me carefully. Respectfully,
VICTOR DORRIS.
