For years I was troubled with biliousness and constipation, which made life miserable for me. My appetite failed me. I lost my usual force and vitality. The tablets relieve the ill feeling at once, strengthen the digestive functions, helping the system to do its work naturally. Mrs. Rosa Potts, Birmingham, Ala. WANT STATE BANK AND LABOR TEMPLE

Trades' Union Draft New Bill and Lay Plans for Building.

Portland unions want a state bank to be owned by the state and operated by it. The legislative committee of the Trades' council appointed at its last meeting is now at work on a bill providing for the creation of such a bank and will present the document to the voters of the state at the next election held in June. Then if the people consider the plan a good one and pass the bill the bank will be organized.

Plans are also being considered for the labor temple to be erected in Portland in the near future. The plans for the structure are expected to be ready for adoption at the meeting of the Federated Trades' council committee next Friday evening. The members of the committee having matter in charge are: W. H. Fitzgerald, of the cigarmakers, chairman; P. McDonald, grainhandlers, secretary; W. Wood, longshoremen; A. H. Shaffer, cooks and waiters; T. M. Leabo, barbers; H. W. Drew, iron trades; J. A. Steinbach, bricklayers; W. H. Sparks, teamsters; G. W. Lewis, typographical; J. Thorpe, tailors.

From the vote so far received from the different unions of the city it is apparent the per capita tax upon the union members of the city will be increased in order to provide a fund for keeping a union organizer in the Portland field continually.

At the meeting last night H. G. Parsons and P. McDonald were elected delegates to the annual meeting of the Oregon State Federation of Labor which is to convene in Astoria, Monday, January 6. A committee was also appointed to draft resolutions of condolence relative to the recent death of William G. Burton of San Francisco, Pacific coast organizer for the Amalgamated Street and Electrical Railway Employees of America. Mr. Burton spent some time in Portland during the strike of the street railway employees last winter.
