LOCAL BASEBALL BY JOCK

Rain-checks are a thing of the past this season, as the managers of both the major leagues and the smaller fry would rather send their players out on a diamond covered with mud than to lose the gate receipts.

It has been reported that Coach Frost has severed his connections with the Whitman college baseball team, and will tie himself to San Francisco. Well, maybe he was somewhat of a "frost" in the baseball line, anyway.

Earnie Callif, who is now twirling for Aberdeen, one of the Northwest league clubs, has apparently no trouble at all in putting the circle around his opponents up north. Callif obtained his first reputation here in this city, when he signed up and made good with the "Rag-lans" in the valley league four years ago, from which position he jumped in the major league of the Pacific coast, where he also pitched a successful season, but could not hold out longer owing to his lack of experience.

What has become of "Pap" Derwick, the grand old umpire? There has been no complaints of late dealing of disrepute of old age.

A covering should now be invented which would serve the purpose of a blanket for the "horse-hide" when it rains on a baseball day.

It is somewhat perplexing to gain information from a jockey as to the fastest horse in the race, but it is a ten-to-one shot you lose in attempting to pick the best team in a ball game by asking the umpire.

Heyser, the big German backstop for the Cherry Pickers, is again in the pink of condition. "Hooray for th' Dutch."

The Bourne Program.

(United Press Leased Wire.)

Portland, Or., April 23.—"Oregon—eight votes for Roosevelt and Fairbanks."

This is the reply that United States Senator Jonathan Bourne, acting as chairman of the Oregon delegation at the national Republican convention at Chicago next summer, hopes to shout back to the clerk of the roll call when the voting actually begins upon the presidential nominee. And with Oregon's break to Roosevelt he hopes to create the stampede which will not desist or be controlled until Roosevelt and Fairbanks are lauded so hard and fast upon the ticket that they will not be able to pry themselves loose.

The Oregon senator is cracking his whip over his machine in the state to compel them to go to the state convention, which meets in Portland, May 14, and put up a winning fight for Roosevelt and Fairbanks instructions. His secretary and right hand man, John C. Young, is touring the state, holding conferences and issuing orders. At the same time Young is giving out a series of interviews in which he declares that Roosevelt and Fairbanks will be the choice of the Chicago convention.

For a time Bourne's ticket was Roosevelt and La Follette but now he is for the Indiana statesman for the second place. His secretary, Young, declares the Indiana and Nebraska will follow Oregon's lead in the bid and that this will surely create a stampede. Here, many politicians believe that Bourne is right. Bourne's friends are attempting to bring about a reconciliation between the Calk and Fulton men in the state in order that Fulton will throw his strength towards the plan to instruct for Roosevelt. The olive branch has been held out to Fulton in the guise of a leading place on the Oregon national delegation to Chicago.

Success of "Faith Triumphant."

Everyone of the large audience that greeted "Faith Triumphant" last night at the Christian church on its second presentation enjoyed one of the finest entertainments of the season. Expressions of praise and appreciation were heard on every side and the managers are certainly to be congratulated upon the success of the production. The electrical effects were as fine as any seen in the high class comic operas that visit Salem, and the chorus was splendid. All the members took their parts well and the general verdict of the audience was that the second rendition of "Faith Triumphant" was better than the first, if that were possible.

U. OF O. VS SALEM HIGH BASEBALL

One of the fastest games of baseball played here last season was between the University of Oregon and Salem high school. These two teams meet again Friday afternoon and the leather will be humming for about nine innings at least. Oregon has a much stronger team this year than last and the same can be said of the high school.

This U. of O. bunch is the fastest in the history of the institution having already taken a few scalps this year. They are under the coaching of Doc. Leonard, assistant instructor in mathematics at the university. Leonard is not unknown in the East where he at different times caught for the universities of Michigan, Nebraska and Colorado. He has pulled his team into a leaguer class worth while. Oregon will have three men with them who can fill the pitcher's box, two of them south-paws, Hurde and Hinkle. Clifford will probably pitch the game here. Hurde is throwing like a professional. Coleman at short stop is putting up classy work, he played two games against Whitman with but one error; pretty good for a freshman, and with Payne 1st, Houston 2d, and Hathaway 3d, they make up an almost perfect infield that is causing talk. Dud Clarke is playing in the field on account of a bad foot.

Although this makes Salem's chances look rather distant they are not going to be entirely out of it. The high school's reputation of last year is being amply sustained this year, and they say they are going to put the sticks to U. of O. in a way that will make them come through if they expect to come out in the lead.

Jones will put up the backstop work and Larry Keene, the old reliable will be in the box with his warm arm work that will count. Gabrielson will hold down the first bag, Farmer second, Kay third and Roberts short stop, making an infield that will be heard from occasionally through the game.

It is safe to say that the score of this game is not going to be large, and if things go as they did last year it is apt to string out to a 11 or 12-inning game.

The lineups will probably be as follows:

U. of O.	S. H. S.
Taylor	Jones
Clifford, Hurd,
Hinkle	Keene
Coleman	Roberts
Payne	Gabrielson
Houston	Farmer
Hathaway (capt)	Kay
Kestley	Moore
Ramp	Hunt
Clarke	Perkins

CONFIDENCE CROOK WAS CAPTURED

(United Press Leased Wire.) San Francisco, April 23.—George E. Littell, said to be one of the more daring and cunning confidence men in the country, appeared before United States Commissioner Heacock today for examination for removal to Seattle for trial on a charge of impersonating a federal officer.

Littell was arrested in Oakland a week ago on complaint of Mrs. Josephine Daubney, a Seattle widow, who charged that Littell secured $740 from her after courting her and securing her promise to become his wife. Littell represented himself to the widow to be a federal officer.

Littell, according to the secret service operators, has made a trade of wooing women, getting their money and jewels and disappearing. A Mrs. Wade of this city charges him with having disappeared with two of her rings, one of which she claims Littell gave to Mrs. W. J. Gates, an Oakland widow, to whom he was to have been married on the evening of his arrest.

Mrs. Gates refuses to believe Littell guilty of the charges against him and sat by his side in the courtroom today.

The secret service men aver that Littell has a record in almost every large city in the country, including New York, New Orleans, Minneapolis, Atlanta, Chicago, Boston and Denver.

The authorities claim to have learned that Littell, while in San Jose, Cal., in 1906, secured from Mrs. J. M. Prettyman, wife of a wealthy Portland man, $1000 to be invested for her, in addition to borrowing $900. Littell is said to have fled to Reno, Nev., without making the investment or returning the money.

PRESIDENT ALEX IS HOSTILE

(United Press Leased Wire.)

Port Au Prince, April 23.—Although tranquility appears on the surface in Haytian affairs, hostility against the government is growing more intense each day. The better class of citizens, although fearing to commit themselves openly, are hoping for intervention by the United States and at the proper moment, it is said, will precipitate a conflict that will force the landing of American marines, a thorough investigation and inevitable American intervention and control.

President Nord Alexis says that he will drench the island in blood if any foreign power attempts to dictate to his government. He has succeeded in preventing the departure of many refugees and says any overt act by the foreign warships will be the signal for the massacre of every foreigner on the island.

"They may send me to hell," he is quoted as saying, "but I will not go alone. Every foreigner will go to destruction with me and then the other nations may fight it out among themselves."

There is no doubt hundreds of persons are imprisoned and others have been assassinated, but it is practically impossible to ascertain the actual facts owing to the vigilance of government, and the fear of survivors to communicate with the foreign commanders in the harbor.

BOODLER TAKES THE STAGE

(United Press Leased Wire.)

San Francisco, April 23.—The Ford trial was resumed this morning, ex-Supervisor Charles B. Ford, one of the first of the hoodlums to confess, and who was charged while taking a bribe, again took the stand, his testimony not having been finished when court adjourned Wednesday. Boston was the member of the boodle board named by Daniel Coleman, the alleged bribing of whom Ford testified. James L. Gallagher, J. P. Furey, C. J. Harrigan, Max Block, James F. Kelly and John Walsh. The testimony of all the witnesses was practically identical, all admitting that Gallagher paid them to vote in favor of overhead trolley franchise.

MILLIONS FOR POOR OF CHURCH

(United Press Leased Wire.)

Chicago, April 23.—Roman Catholics in every part of the United States will assist in the raising of a fund of $1,000,000 which to help poor parishioners in their efforts in the furtherance of home missions and church extension.

The decision to adopt this policy was made by the bishops and governors of the Catholic Church. Ambrose Bery of New York has recently created a special fund, which he has been appointed chairman of the committee will collect the $1,000,000. It is hoped that the fund will be sufficient to provide an income for the support of educating candidates for the priesthood and establishing parishes in the most destitute and stricken districts of the country.
