TRAIN ROBBERS MISSED CONNECTIONS

(United Press Leased Wire.)
 Butte, Mont., April 24.—Lack of nerve on the part of would-be train robbers at the critical moment last night saved the North Coast Limited, the crack overland flyer of the Northern Pacific, from being held up a second time within a few months at Welch's spur, 15 miles from Butte.
 As the train approached the spur a red lantern was waved and almost immediately shots were fired from the roadside. The train slowed down but no attempt was made by the bandits to board. Word was immediately sent to this city and Sheriff Henderson and a posse were rushed to the scene. After a brief search they caught three men, Alfred Teasdale, Rudolph Wenk and Paul Filenius, the two latter being mild appearing Germans, who admit flagging the train, but who declare they were compelled to do so by two masked men. Teasdale could not explain his presence in the vicinity. The prisoners were brought to this city this morning.
 Half a dozen shots were fired at the engine, empty shells being found together with a stick of dynamite with a fuse attached.
 The two Germans say they were also forced to soap the track.
 Welch's spur was the scene of the hold-up of the North Coast Limited several months ago, when Engineer Clow was murdered and his fireman wounded.

WRECKED FISHERMEN WERE PICKED UP

Hogium, Wash., April 24.—Starving and almost insane from the lack of water, three men, Ed. Sax, Jacob Jacobson and Eric Anderson, were picked up by the steamer Carmel in a dismantled fishing boat which was tossing helplessly in the open sea. The men had left Grays harbor for Astoria, but had lost their bearing in a squall.

WATER STOCK MYSTERIES

New York, April 24.—Thomas F. Ryan, before the special grand jury investigating the affairs of the Metropolitan Street Railway, swore that 95 per cent of the stock of the railroad corporation in this country never cost a dollar.
 There was great surprise and many of the jurors questioned Mr. Ryan, believing that they had misunderstood him.
 Ryan figured out that the $52,000,000 of Metropolitan Street railway stock represented cash payment of 83 1/2 per cent of its par value.
 As District Attorney Jerome read this statement Ryan interrupted, saying:
 "Gentlemen, that is the answer to a statement that has been made for the last five years that the Metropolitan Street Railway Company stock is all water."
 Jerome then asked:
 "Mr. Ryan, you have been connected with a large number of corporate ventures both in street railways and in steam railways, have you not?"
 "Yes, sir," answered Ryan.
 "And as a banker you have been familiar with the calculations of many of the railroads of this country, have you not?"
 "Yes, sir."
 "How will that compare—that percentage of water, if you call it such?"
 "Ninety-five per cent of the stock of the railroad corporations of this country never cost a dollar," was Ryan's declaration.
 "You mean," said Jerome, "that ninety-five per cent of the stock of the railroads of this country are all water?"
 "Yes."

COOL ROBBERY OF TICKET OFFICE
 (United Press Leased Wire.)
 Los Angeles, Cal., April 24.—While a large crowd was rushing out of the Los Angeles and Redondo railway ticket office on West Second street to board a car last night, a man coolly walked into the room, ordered General Ticket Agent Davison to throw open the huge office safe, and, with one hand, scooped $7450 out of the cash box. Holding a revolver close to Davison's body, the fellow forced him to walk to the rear of the office, from where the nervy visitor escaped.

GREAT DIAMOND ROBBERY AT CHICAGO
 Chicago, April 24.—Diamonds valued at $2500 are reported to have been stolen from the room of A. A. Fish, a diamond broker, at the fashionable Hotel Del Prado last night while the guests were dining. The police are after a well dressed young man who was seen loitering in the lobby of the hotel prior to the robbery.

JOSEPH LEITER ENGAGED

Washington, April 24.—Joseph Leiter, the Chicago millionaire whose daring attempt to corner the wheat market in the latter city in 1897, started even the old time plungers and cost his father, Levi Leiter, something like $1,000,000 or perhaps more, is engaged to marry Miss Juliette Williams, daughter of Colonel and Mrs. J. R. Williams of Washington is the bride-to-be. She was graduated from Georgetown convention in this city and later spent four years in Europe. She made her debut last winter at one of the largest teas of the season. Miss Williams is strikingly beautiful and is scarcely more than 20 years old.
 Leiter, who was born in Chicago in 1865, is a graduate of Marvard. The date of the wedding has not been set, but friends of the couple say it will take place in Washington within a few weeks.

LAWYERS DISCUSS HAGUE CONFERENCE

(United Press Leased Wire.)
 Washington, April 24.—The principal address at the opening session today of the second annual meeting of the American Society of International Law was delivered by Secretary Root, who is president of the organization. His subject was "The Sanctions of International Law."
 The New Willard hotel is the scene of the meeting, which will close tomorrow night with a banquet. The advisability of making violations of treaties a federal offense, the codification of international law, and arbitration at the second Hague peace conference were among the subjects discussed.
